His Majesty proposes reaching Stargard this Evening, where Prince Maurice of Anhalt Dessau, Governor of that Place, has been some Days making Preparations for his Majesty's Reception. Hague, June 9. By a Ship which arrived last Saturday from Surinam, we are informed, that the Insurrection of the Negroes was quite suppressed by a Company of Burghers, headed by their Captain, who, after coming up with the Rebels, had killed some, and taken several Prisoners, who were carried to Paramaibo, and there executed publicly; the few remaining were so dispersed about the Woods, that it was thought they must perish through Want. The Letters received on this Occasion, attribute the Revolt to the Tyranny of Mons. Thomas, the Man whose Plantation was destroyed, and himself and his Family murdered by a Negro Slave, whose Wife Mons. Thomas had taken away, and who, in order to gratify his Revenge, engaged all the other Slaves who were discontented with their Masters, to join with him in his Attempt. Notwithstanding this News, the Troops destined for that Place are to be shipped off in a few Days, and the Officers who are to command them have received Orders to repair immediately to Naarden, where they are now assembled. The Prince of Orange's Departure for Zealand is not yet determined, though it is expected his Serene Highness will set out from hence about the latter End of this Week, or the Beginning of the next. The States of that Province are to assemble on the 15th Instant.

Georgia Office, Westminster, May 25, 1750.

Whereas the Trustees for establishing the Colony of Georgia in America, thought it necessary in the first Establishment of that Colony to restrain the Grants they made of Lots of Land to limited Tenures only, in order thereby to prevent many Abuses which at that Time might probably have defeated the good Ends proposed by that Establishment, and during the late War it might have been of dangerous Consequence to have alter'd the Tenures; but as a general Peace and Tranquility happily prevail, the said Trustees are of Opinion, that the intended Enlargement of the Tenures may now be safely made, and have come to the following Resolution, viz.

That the Tenures of all Grants of Land whatsoever already made to any Persons within the Province of Georgia be enlarg'd and extended to an absolute Inheritance; and that all future Grants of Land shall be of an absolute Inheritance to the Grantees, their Heirs and Assigns.

Sign'd by Order of the Trustees.
