

21st Year of his Age, the same was celebrated at Court, and their Majesties received the Compliments of the Nobility and Foreign Ministers on that Occasion.

Stockholm, Aug. 28. The Count de Goes, Envoy Extraordinary from their Imperial Majesties to this Court, arrived here on the 26th Instant from Vienna.

Dresden, Aug. 28. The young Count de Bruhl, Son to the Prime Minister, whom the King has named Starostie of Warsaw, set out from hence some Days ago for Poland, in order to take Possession of that important Post. We have received Advice from Leipzick of the Death of Count Lichtenstein, in the 36th Year of his Age.

Vienna, Aug. 29. This Court is gone into Mourning for six Weeks on Occasion of the Death of the King of Portugal. Yesterday was celebrated the Anniversary of the Birth of the Empress Dowager, who enters into the 60th Year of her Age; when the Empress Queen, with all the Royal Family, went from Schopbrun to Hetzendorff, to pay their Compliments on that Occasion; where most of the Nobility in Town likewise resorted. The Empress Dowager and the Empress Queen dined together in Publick; several other Tables having been provided for the Lords and Ladies of the Court; and at Night there was a grand Appearance of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction to see the fine Fireworks played off before the Balcony of the Castle, in which was all the Imperial Family;

Turin, Aug. 29. A Project has been proposed to the King of Sardinia, for making Salt from a Fountain of Salt Water found at a Place called Conflans, in the Tarantaine, which has been approved of, and there is great Probability of its succeeding. Count Viry, Minister from this Court to that of the Hague, set out on the 26th Instant for Holland; he will stay some Time in Savoy, and make France in his Way. Count Verelst, Envoy Extraordinary from the States General to this Court, is not yet arrived, but is expected every Day. Yesterday died the Marquess de la Chiusa, who was made Grand Master and Knight of the Order of the Annunciation, at the last Promotion.

Ratisbon, Aug. 31. Preparations are making at the Convent of St. Emeran for the Reception of the Prince and Princess of Furstenberg, who are shortly expected here with their Daughter, in order to her Marriage with the Prince of Tour Taxis, the Emperor's Principal Commissary to the Diet of the Empire, who set out from Brussels five or six Days ago, and is also expected here some Day this Week.

Berlin, Sept. 5. The Margrave and Margravine of Bareith set out from hence this Morning on their Return Home. By Advices from Cultrim, the King arrived there, in his Way to Silesia, on the 1st Instant at Night; and the next Morning his Majesty reviewed the Regiments of Dragoons of Rothenbourg, Bonin and Katt, and seemed greatly pleased with their Behaviour and Appearance.

Copenhagen, Sept. 5. M. Reventlaw, the first President of Altona, is arrived here, and appointed to succeed Baron Bernstorff as Envoy Extraordinary to the French Court. Major General Gruner goes to Petersbourg, and M. Von Thiener, an Officer in the Regiment of Horse Guards, to Berlin. On Tuesday or Wednesday next the Court comes to Town; and after having spent a few Days here, intends to return to Friedensbourg.

Brussels, Sept. 7. There are arrived here some Deputies from Namur, in order to present to his Serene Highness Prince Charles of Lorrain, a free Gift from the States of that Province. The Regiment of Major General Cornabe, in the Service of the States General of the United Provinces, has passed by this City in its Way to Namur, in order to replace that of Lillers, which is ordered into Garrison at Tournay. The Price of Corn has fallen here very considerably within these few Days past, on Account of the plentiful Harvest we have had this Year. By Letters from Paris of the 4th Instant we are informed, that the Count d'Hautefort, Ambassador from France to their Imperial Majesties, was preparing to set out for Vienna; and that the Palace of Bourbon was fitting up for the Reception of Count Kaunitz, their Imperial Majesties Ambassador to the Court of France, who is expected at Paris some Time next Month. The same Letters say, that the Marquess de St. Contest was preparing to set out on his Embassy to the States General of the United Provinces; and that the Count de Steinville, charged with the Affairs of the Emperor, as Grand Duke of Tuscany, at the Court of his most Christian Majesty, was also preparing to set out from Paris, in order to take Possession of the Government of that Dutchy, in the Room of Count Richecourt.

Hague, Sept. 11. The States of Holland, before they separated, issued a Proclamation to explain their Placart of the 12th of March last, N. S. relating to the Ronde Maat, (or Duty levied upon Dry Measure in this Province,) which had been misinterpreted. They declare in the present Proclamation, that they had never intended, by the above-mentioned Placart of the 12th of March, to alter any Thing in the Disposition made by the ancient Ordonnances relating to the Duty on the Ronde Maat, and that consequently they ordain, That the said Ordonnances shall remain in full Force, as heretofore. M. Meynertzhagen, who was Resident from the Margrave of Anspach, has been recalled, and has, in Consequence thereof, presented a Memorial to the States General, to take Leave of their High Mightinesses.
