Whitehall, October 27.

ON Wednesday last one of his Majesty's Messengers arrived from Hano- ver, at his Grace the Duke of Bedford's Office, with the Treaty signed at Madrid on the 5th of October, N. S. by Benjamin Keene, Esq; his Britannick Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary, and Don Joseph Carvajal and Lancaster, Knight of the most illustrious Order of the Golden Fleece, his Catholick Majesty's Minister of State, and President of the Council of State, &c. And Directions are given by their Excellencies the Lords Justices for preparing the Ratification for his Majesty's Royal Signature, upon his Arrival in England.

Tetuan, Sept. 16. A Treaty of Peace and Friendship is concluded between William Pettigrew, Esq; his Britannick Majesty's Consul General, and Hadge Mohemet Temim, Alcaide of this Place, whereby all former Treaties of Peace and Friendship between Great Britain and Morocco are renewed and confirmed; and the new Treaty is gone to the Emperor to be ratified. Mr. Pettigrew has likewise agreed with the Alcaide for the Redemption of Sixty Captives, his Britannick Majesty's Subjects; and Preparations are making for getting Part of them from Fez, and for embarking the Whole. The Tangerine Cruizer has taken a Dutch Vessel, loaden with Wheat, which they have made a Prize of, and sent the Crew, consisting of ten Men, into Captivity.

Gibraltar, Sept. 25. We are informed, that the Plague has ceased in all the Towns on the Coast of Morocco and Fez, and that very little remains of it in the interior Parts of that Country.

Stockholm, Oct. 20. The Prince Successor, and the Princess his Spouse, who have been for some Time taking the Diversion of Hunting in the Neighbourhood of Nora, set out from thence on the 10th Instant, accompanied by Count Tessin and Baron Palmstierna for Sala, where they arrived the same Day, and were received by the Magistrates in a Body, the Clergy and the Citizens. The 11th their Highnesses went to view the Mine in the Neighbourhood of that Place, and saw all the Operations which the Oar passes through, before it becomes pure Silver. On the 12th they went to Ekholmfund, and on the 17th returned to their Palace at Drottningholm.

Warsaw, Oct. 20. The King, before his Departure for Saxony, conferred the Order of the White Eagle on M. de Woronicz, Castellan of Kiow. We hear from Petrikau, that the Tribunal of the Kingdom continues its Assembly with all the Success that can be desired.

Vienna, Oct. 21. The Directors of the Bank of this City have given Notice, that they intend to pay off, at the End of December next, all such Sums of Money for which they now pay an Interest of 6 per Cent, unless the Proprietors thereof shall desire to have it continued afterwards at 5 per Cent. His Imperial Majesty sets out this Afternoon for Losenstein, a Seat belonging to Prince d'Aversperg, in order to take the Diversion of Hunting for some Days. On Friday last the Archdukes and Archdutchesses came from Schonbrun to the Palace in this City for the Winter. The same Day the Count de Hautefort, the French Ambassador, arrived here with his Lady, and a numerous Retinue; and on Monday he had his first private Audience of the Emperor. Some private Letters from Lower Hungary say, that the Janissaries, who are in Quarters in Bosnia, have revolted against their Chief; that some Thousands of them had assembled themselves together, and plundered the Town of Zwarnick, after having massacred the Bashaw who commanded it, and some other Officers who endeavoured to bring them to Reason; that they afterwards set Fire to some of the Neighbouring Villages, and that several of the Inhabitants had perished in the Flames.

Copenhagen, Oct. 24. On Monday last the King went with a numerous Retinue to the Island of Armagh near this City, in order to be present at the Proving of some new Pieces of Cannon invented by a German, who has been here for some Time; they were so contrived as to fire in a different Manner from other Cannon, and his Majesty seemed greatly pleased with the Performance. M. vander Luhe, Knight of the Order of Dannebrog, one of the King's Chamberlains, and Grand Bailiff of Seland, died here the 19th Instant; by whose Death the important Post of Grand Bailiff of Seland, which the King had lately conferred on him, is again become vacant.

Dresden,
