Naples, November 3.

ON the 28th past the King's two Gallies, which went lately on a Cruize against the Corsairs of Barbary, returned into Port, and brought with them a Tripolitan Ship, which they took during their Cruize in the Sicilian Sea. The Count de Monasterol, his Sardinian Majesty's Ambassador to this Court, having received his Letters of Revocation, and taken his Audience of Leave of their Majesties, set out last Week from hence for Rome, on his Way to Turin; before his Departure, the King presented him with a Diamond Ring of great Value. The Court is expected here to Day from Portici, in order to celebrate To-morrow the Feast of St. Charles, his Majesty's Name Day, for which great Preparations are making.

Petersbourg, Nov. 6. Several Councils have been lately held at Court, in one of which it was resolved, that a considerable Body of her Imperial Majesty's Forces, which are now quartered in the Ukraine, shall immediately join those of the King and Republick of Poland, and act in Concert with them, in order to put a Stop to the many Outrages and Cruelties that have for some Time past been committed by several large Bodies of Heyducks.

Venice, Nov. 13. M. Chavigny, the French Ambassador, arrived here on Monday last; but being ill of a Fever, he has not as yet notified his Arrival to the College and Foreign Ministers.

Vienna, Nov. 14. The Empress Queen of Hungary has lately ordered the Regiment of Dragoons of Preysing to be disbanded. Engineer-General de Bohn, who has been to visit the Fortifications of Hungary and Esclavonia, is arrived here from Peter-Waradin, where he has given Orders for the carrying on of the new Fortifications of that Place. Their Imperial Majesties propose setting out To-morrow for Closter Neubourg, in order to celebrate the Feast of St. Leopold; and the Archduke Joseph, and most of the Foreign Ministers are to accompany their Majesties on this Occasion.

Turin, Nov. 14. On Tuesday last being the Anniversary of the King of Great Britain's Birth, the same was celebrated here by the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford, his Britannick Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to this Court; on which Occasion his Lordship gave a sumptuous Entertainment to the Foreign Ministers; at which were present all the English now residing at Turin.

Warsaw, Nov. 14. By some Dispatches received from the Castellàn of Wislitz, dated from Wisniowicz the first of this Month, we have an Account, that the Plague has broke out again in Moldavia, and that several Villages in the Neighbourhood of Kaminiëck are actually infected with it.

Copenhagen, Nov. 16. The King has declared his Intention of hunting no more this Season in the Forest of Jagersbourg. On Tuesday last the Queen had a Drawing-Room for the first Time since her coming to the Winter-Palace, and has ordered the same to be continued as usual at this Time of the Year. On Friday Morning last his Majesty went to the Dock-yard of the West-India Company, and saw two new Ships, named the Caroline and the William, launched from off the Stocks; with which his Majesty was greatly pleased; and the father, as no Accident of any Kind happened. The Queen Dowager intends to set out next Week for Hirschholm, where she proposes to stay the greatest Part of the Winter. Yesterday Morning Count Schulembourg arrived here from the Tour he has taken through Germany, and last Night he had the Honour to be presented to the King, and met with a most gracious Reception.

Dresden, Nov. 17. The Weather is set in very severe in this Country; and as the Ground is now too hard for Hunting, their Majesties propose leaving St. Hubertsbourg on Tuesday next with the whole-Court, in order to return to this City for the Winter.

Dusseldorp, Nov. 20. This Morning died here General Count de Grammont, Councillor of State and of the Conferences, and Master of the Horse to his Serene Highness the Elector Palatine

[Price Two-pence.]

Palatine. We learn from Manheim, that Prince Frederick of Deux Ponts proposes to set out from thence on the 28th Instant, in order to accompany the Spouse of Prince Clement of Bavaria to Munich, from whence he proposes taking a Tour to Rome.

Berlin, Nov. 21. The King came hither a few Days ago from Potzdam, and gave Audience to some Foreign Ministers; after which his Majesty paid a Visit to the Margravine of Bareith his Sister, who is perfectly recovered from her late Indisposition, and proposes, as 'tis now said, to set out shortly on her Return to the Court of Bareith. The Day after his Majesty dined with the Queen-Mother, and set out the same Evening for Potzdam. Prince Maurice of Anhalt-Deßau is arrived at Potzdam from Brandenbourg; as is also Prince Frederick Eugene of Wirtemberg from Stolpe; Major General de Hautcharmoy, Governor of Brieg, from Silesia; and M. Klingraff from Hanover. On the 16th Instant died here the Baron de Borstel, in the 58th Year of his Age; he was one of the King's Chamberlains, Privy Councillor of War, and of the Finances and Domaines, Knight of the Order of St. John, and Hereditary Lord of Wester Egelu, Dobritz and Ferwitz.

Brussels, Nov. 23. On Thursday last the Empress's Name-day was celebrated here with great Solempnity. Prince Charles of Lorrain, Governor General of the Low Countries, is returned hither from the Tour he lately made to Ter Vuren. 'Tis assured, that the Project for rebuilding the ancient Palace, which was burnt down, will shortly be put in Execution.

Hambourg, Nov. 24. The young Count Schonburn, Nephew to the Elector of Triers, and Heir to the late Bishop of Wurtzbourg his Uncle, who travels with a very numerous Attendance, is at present in this City.

Hague, Nov. 26. On Friday last his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange assisted for four Hours at the Assembly of the States of Holland and Westfrizeland; and on Saturday the said States separated for some Time. The new Company of Grenadiers, which has been lately raised, in order to be placed at the Head of the Dutch Guards, arrived here a few Days ago from Loo; and having passed in Review before the Prince of Orange, who was greatly pleased with its Appearance, has since taken the Station for which it was raised.

Hague, Nov. 27. The States General received, on Monday last, a Letter from the French King, by which they were informed, that his Most Christian Majesty had thought proper to recall the Abbe de la Ville, his late Ambassador to the Republick; which Letter was delivered to the President of the Week by M. Chiquet, who at the same Time presented a Memorial from the Abbe de la Ville, by which that Minister took Leave of their High Migh- tinesses, who came to a Resolution to grant him the usual Present of a Golden Chain and Medal, of the Value of 1300 Florins, with one of 300 for M. Chiquet his Secretary. Yesterday in the Afternoon the Marquis de St. Contest, the new French Ambassador, waited in Ceremony on the Prince Stadtholder, who received him at the Foot of the great Stair Case, and reconducted him to the same Place. And this Day his Serene Highness returned the Ambassador his Visit, in great Pomp: His Excellency received his Serene Highness at the Coach Door, to which he likewise reconducted him at his Departure, Whitehall, November 13, 1750.

Whereas Mr. Richard Newman, of Westham Abby in the County of Essex, Callicoe Printer, received by the General Post, on the 2d of this Instant November, an anonymous Letter, dated the 30th of October, threatening the Lives and Houses of him, and all Callicoe Printers, and others, if they do not pay off their Irish Servants in one Month from the Date thereof, as the Englishmen are starving for want of Work, and adding, that some of them would meet at the Swan at Stratford every Sunday till the 30th of November, and therefore, that the abovesaid Gentlemen should beware: His Majesty is therefore pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any Person concerned in writing and sending the said Letter, (except the Person who actually wrote the same) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

B E D F O R D.

And for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in writing the said Letter, I do hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons, (except the Person who wrote the said Letter) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Rich. Newman.

Victualling Office, June 8, 1750.

The Commissioners for Victualling his Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 21st of November next, in the Forenoon, they shall be ready to treat with such Persons as may be inclinable to undertake the Victualling such of his Majesty's Ships and Vessels as may touch at Madeira, and be in Want of Provisions. The Conditions of the Contract may be seen at the Secretary's Office at the Victualling-Office, London, and by applying to his Majesty's Consuls at Madeira and Lisbon.

This is to give Notice to the Officers and Company, who were on Board his Majesty's Ships the Kent and Tavistock at the Taking the Diamond, a French Merchantman, and carried into Lisbon, that their respective Shares will be paid at Mitchell's Coffee-house in Crutched Fryers, on Monday the 3d of December: And the Recalls will be at Mr. Matthew Birtill's, at the Old South-Sea House, the first Monday in every Month for three Years to come.

A Quarterly General Court of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, will be held at their Office in Dean's Yard in Westminster, on Monday the 3d Day of December next, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon.

THE Creditors of Lyonel Vane, late of Gerrard Street, in the Parish of St. Ann in the County of Middlesex, Esq; late a Fugitive for Debt, and discharged from the Fleet Prison by Virtue of the late Act of Parliament for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Lyonel Vane's Estate and Effects, at the Dwelling House of John Bedford, Vintner, known by the Sign of the Crown and Rolls Tavern in Chancery Lane, London, on Wednesday the 19th Day of December next, at Five of the Clock in the Afternoon, on special Affairs.

WHEREAS it was advertised in the London Gazette of the 24th of July last, That the Real and Copyhold Estates of Thomas Kerridge, late of Shelley Hall, in the County of Suffolk, Esq; were to be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, before Robert Holford, Esq; then one of the Masters of the said Court, as on the 21st of this present Month of November; This is to give Notice, that the Time for such Sale is adjourned until the First Day of February next, when the same will be peremptorily Sold, between the Hours of Five and Seven in the Afternoon of that Day, before Peter Holford, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in-Symond's Inn in Chancery Lane, London, where Particulars may be had, and a Plan of the said Estates inspected.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against John Taylor, of the Parish of Saint George Hanover Square, in the County of Middlesex, Victualler and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt, is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major Part of them, on the 26th Instant, the 3d of December next, and on the 1st of January following, at Three in the Afternoon, on each of the said Days, at Guildhall, London, and make a full Discovery and Disclosure of his Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, and at the Second Sitting to chuse Assignees, and at the last Sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his Examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the Allowance of his Certificate. All Persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his Effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint, but give Notice to Mr. Walling, Attorney, in Elme Court in the Temple.

THE Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Simons, of Elmstead in the County of Essex, Dealer and Chapman, intend to meet on the 15th Day of December next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, at Guildhall, London, in order to make a final Dividend of the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors who have not already proved their Debts, are to come prepared to do the same, or they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Dividend. At which Time the Claimants under the said Commission are to come and make full Proof of their Debts by them so claimed, or they will be excluded all Benefit of the said Dividend.

WHEREAS the acting Commissioners in the Commission of Bankrupt awarded against John Shackleton, late of Ripon, in the County of York, Common Brewer, Maltster and Chapman, have certified to the Right Honourable Philip Lord Hardwicke, Baron of Hardwicke, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, that the said John Shackleton hath in all Things conformed himself according to the Directions of the several Acts of Parliament made concerning Bankrupts; This is to give Notice, that by Virtue of an Act passed in the fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, his Certificate will be allowed and confirmed as the said Act directs, unless Cause be shewn to the contrary on or before the 11th of December next.
