Petersbourg, February 16. The Preparations which were making for her Imperial Majesty's Journey to Moscow, are all countermanded. The Court has received Advice from Cronstadt and Revel, that the Men of War and Gallies in those Ports are ready to put to Sea upon the first Notice. By Letters from Finland we learn, that all Things remained there in perfect Tranquillity; and that the Troops of her Imperial Majesty, and those of the Sweeds, continued very quiet in their respective Quarters.

Leghorn, Feb. 21. We have received Advice that the Corsairs of Tunis have lately taken a rich Venetian Merchant Ship, the Cargo of which consisted of 125 Bales of Cotton, 150 Barrels of Cyprus Wine, 6 Bales of Raw Silk, and about 70,000 Crowns in Specie. There was on Board 24 Persons, who were all carried into Slavery, amongst whom was a Venetian Lady of the Family of Benzoni, and two of her Children.

Turin, Feb. 24. The Dutchess of Savoy advances happily in her Pregnancy. The Military Conferences are continued, at which the Duke of Savoy almost constantly assists. They have already regulated some Points in regard to the Alterations the King proposed making in the Habits and Exercise of his Troops. His Majesty finding it necessary to continue the extraordinary Taxes upon the same Footing they were during the War, has caused an Edict to be published, by which he makes known his Intentions on that Subject.

Erfurt, Feb. 26. Yesterday a Fire broke out at Alpersted, a Village situate about two Leagues from hence, which burnt with such Violence, that twenty Houses were reduced to Ashes in about three Hours Time, notwithstanding the Inhabitants of this Town and those of all the neighbouring Towns and Villages, gave them all the Assistance in their Power.

Copenhagen, Feb. 27. The Diversions of the Carnival have been extremely brilliant, and ended on Monday last with a grand Ball at Court. Within these few Days past several Swedish Deserters have found Means to cross the Sound upon the Ice, and have enlisted themselves in the Troops of this Kingdom.

Stockholm, Feb. 27. The King continues to enjoy his Health to Admiration, and assists regularly at the Diversions of the Court. His Majesty has appointed M. Schulberg to be Keeper of the Records of this Kingdom. The Russian and Prussian Ministers have frequent Conferences with Count Tessin, and on Friday last each dispatched a Courier for his Court.

Vienna, Feb. 27. Yesterday an extraordinary Council was held at the Palace, at which her Imperial Majesty assisted; after which she delivered to his Imperial Majesty the necessary Full Powers for managing all publick and private Affairs during her Lying-in, which is now almost daily expected. 'Tis still said that Prince Charles of Lorraine will come hither from Brussels towards the Beginning of May, in order to accompany their Imperial Majesties to Presburg.

Dusseldorp, March 5. The Rhine, which has lately done great Damage in the neighbourhood of this City by its Overflowings, is now confined again within its Banks. Yesterday a considerable Number of Recruits for the Imperial Troops quartered in the Low Countries, passed through this City on their Way to their respective Regiments.

Franckfort, March 5. The Cardinal Prince and Bishop of Liege set out from Munich the 25th past for Manheim, where he proposed staying for ten Days, and then return to his Principality.

Amsterdam, March 6. We have received Advices by a Ship which is arrived at Zealand from Surinam, that the Troops which sailed from hence some Time ago for that Colony under the Command of General Sporckett, landed there the Beginning of December last, having weathered a violent Tempest some Days before; that the General had been pretty much out of Order during Part of the Voyage, but was perfectly recovered when he arrived at Surinam; that the Troops were in good Health, having lost but very few during the Voyage; that they were received in a very obliging Manner by M. Mauritius the Governor; and that they found every Thing there in perfect Tranquillity, there not being the least Appearance
