

some Rocks, and dashed to Pieces. During the Tempest three other Ships were cast away off Fiumicino, but we could not learn of what Nation they were of, as not any one Person on Board either of them was saved. The Master of a Ship just arrived here from the Levant says, that a Tripolitan Corsair, for Fear of falling into the Hands of a Venetian Man of War that was in Pursuit of her, had run in amongst some Rocks near Patrasso, where, by Means of a Shallop, she had landed all her Men.

Leghorn, March 15. This Day arrived in this Port, the Emperor's three Ships, last from Algiers.

Turin, March 16. The Dutchess of Savoy, who has been pretty much indisposed, is now perfectly recovered, and advances happily in her Pregnancy.

Dresden, March 20. On the 5th Instant, being the King's Name-Day, their Majesties dined at the Prince Royal's, at a Table of thirty Covers; the Nobility and Gentry dining at two other Tables. During the Entertainment several Discharges were made of the Cannon upon the Ramparts; and at Night there was a drawing Room at the Queen's Apartment. The Count de Mozschynsky, one of the Gentlemen of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber, is set out to carry the Order of the White Eagle to the Duke of Wirtembourg.

Copenhagen, March 21. The Talk of the King's Journey to Holstein is renewed, and 'tis expected his Majesty will soon appoint the Lords who are to attend him in that Journey. They are hard at Work upon the two Men of War which are on the Stocks, and near finished, in order to get them ready for launching if possible against the King's Birth-Day, which will be the latter End of this Month. The severe cold Weather and hard Frost we had here for several Days together, is now entirely gone off, and is succeeded by very fine seasonable Weather.

Vienna, March 21. The Archdutchess, of whom her Imperial Majesty was safely delivered on Friday last, was baptized the same Night by the Name of Mary-Anne, the King and Queen of Spain standing Godfather and Godmother by their Proxies the Prince of Saxe Hildbourghausen and the Princess Charlotte of Lorrain.

Hambourg, March 23. M. de Reventlau, appointed Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark to the Court of France, will set out from hence To-morrow Morning for Paris.

Berlin, March 27. The King has conferred on M. Hildebrand, eldest Son of the Baron de Rodenberg, the Title of Councillor of War and of the Domains of the Principality of Minden in Westphalia. His Majesty has appointed Captain Wartemberg to be Major to the Regiment of Hussars of Seydlitz. The Margrave of Brandebourg Schwedt, who has resided here for some Time, went on Monday last to take Leave of the two Queens and of the rest of the Royal Family, and set out early the next Morning on his Return Home. A few Days ago the Margrave Charles went to visit the Count de Rothenbourg, who still continues very much indisposed. By Letters received last Post from Silesia we are informed, that the River Oder has overflowed its Banks in several Places, and done a deal of Damage to all the neighbouring Country, and that even Breslau itself has suffered greatly by it.

Hague, March 31. On Thursday last, being the Anniversary of the Marriage of their Serene and Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Orange, their Highnesses received the usual Compliments on that Occasion. The Letters received by the last Post from Utrecht and Brussels, give us very melancholly Accounts of the great Damages that have been done by the Overflowings of the Rivers Lecq and Senne.

Whitehall, March 26.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Robert Manners, Esq; commonly called Lord Robert Manners, to be Colonel of the Regiment of Foot, late under the Command of Major General Fleming, deceased.

Whitehall, March 23, 1750-51.

Whereas it has been represented to his Majesty, that on the 16th Instant, early in the Morning, a Letter directed to Mr. Alderman Stephenson, was drop'd and left in the Low Exchange of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, threatening, "That if he did not lay Twenty Guineas in a certain Place therein describ'd, before Six o'Clock the next Morning, he and all his Family should be murder'd, and his House burn'd; and that he might be in daily Expectation of the fatal Consequence that would happen in Case he did not comply with the said Demand"; His Majesty for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concern'd in writing and dropping the above-mentioned Letter, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person that actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover one or more Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

For the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concern'd in writing and dropping the said Letter, the Magistrates of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne do hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Guineas to any Person or Persons (except the Person that actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover one or more Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And as a further Encouragement, the said Mr. Stephenson does hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Guineas to any Person or Persons (except the Person that actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover one or more Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Tower of London, March 22, 1750.

The Lieutenant General and rest of the Principal Officers of his Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give Notice to such Persons as are willing to furnish Carriages, Horses and Drivers for his Majesty's Service, to be employed