

Vienna, April 3. The Empress Queen is so far recovered from her late Lying-in, that several Ladies were last Sunday admitted to visit her in her Apartment for the first Time. And her Imperial Majesty has given Orders, on the Occasion of her happy Delivery and Recovery, that all the Deserters from her Troops, who were condemned to work at the Fortifications, should be immediately set at Liberty on Condition of their joining their respective Regiments.

Copenhagen, April 3. The Anniversary of the King of Denmark's Birth-day having been celebrated here on the 31st past, in the usual Manner, several Promotions were made on that Occasion; the Chief of which are these, General Lerche is made a Count; General Levetau and the Privy Counsellor M. Brockorff have received the Order of the Elephant; and the Colonels Baurenfeind, Castagna and Caltenborn, are advanced to the Rank of Major Generals of Infantry.

Dresden, April 3. The Queen has been a little indisposed for some Days past, but we hope her Illness will be attended with no very bad Consequences.

Brussels, April 12. Count Stampa, one of Prince Charles of Lorraine's Adjutant Generals, having had a Regiment given him by the Queen of Hungary, set out from hence on Friday Morning last for Vienna, in order to take Possession of the same; and to compliment their Imperial Majesties, in the Name of Prince Charles of Lorraine, upon the Birth of the young Archduchess. We are assured that the Government have at Length granted a Permission to the Magistrates of the City of Mons, to make a new Canal from that City to Ath; and that in Consequence thereof, they are making Preparations in order to begin that Work.

Hambourg, April 13. This Morning the Swedish Resident received, by an Express from Stockholm, the melancholy News of the Death of the King of Sweden, who died the 6th Instant; and the Day following the Prince Successor was proclaimed King, and received the Compliments of the Senators of Sweden upon the Occasion. The Magistrates of this City have already given Notice, that a Vessel is ready to sail for Algiers with a new Pass, agreeable to the Treaty lately concluded between this City and that Republick.

Hague, April 15. The States of Holland and Westfrizeland, who were assembled Yesterday, have to Day continued their Deliberations. The Deputies of the several Colleges of the Admiralty of this Kingdom, who arrived here a few Days ago, have already entred upon Business.

Whitehall, March 30, 1751.

It having been represented to the King, That in the Night between the 31st Day of October and the 1st of November last, a Hay-rick belonging to the Right Honourable the Earl of Uxbridge, which stood near his Seat called Beaufert, in the County of Stafford, was with a malicious Design (as is supposed) set on Fire, and reduced to Ashes; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in setting the said Hay-rick on Fire, is hereby pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Crime, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a farther Encouragement, the said Earl of Uxbridge doth hereby Promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds, to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

The Commissioners appointed to put in Execution an Act of Parliament passed in the Kingdom of Ireland, for making Rivers navigable, having taken under their Consideration the Navigation of the River Shannon, and different Methods being proposed for effecting the same, they do hereby give Notice, that any Person of Skill in Projecting, and also well versed in the Execution of Works of that Nature, may apply to Isham Baggs, Esq; (Secretary to the said Commissioners) in Dublin, setting forth his Qualifications, and the Proofs thereof; and in Case the said Commissioners shall, upon due Enquiry, be satisfied of the Capacity of such Person for their Service, they will contract to give him a very ample Recompence for going over to Ireland, and for directing and conducting the said intended Navigation to the final Completion thereof.

Dublin Castle,
9 March 1750.

Signed by Order,
Isham Baggs.
