

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 13, to Tuesday April 16, 1751.

Naples, March 30.

ON Saturday last their Majesties arrived here in perfect Health from Bovino, and were soon after complimented thereupon by the Nobility, General Officers, and other Persons of Distinction. The Company established by the King for the Direction of the Commerce of this Kingdom, have agreed to set up an Insurance Office, the Capital of which is to consist of 100,000 Ducats, and the Project for it is laid before his Majesty for his Approbation. They have likewise agreed to erect an Academy for teaching the Art of Navigation to such young Gentlemen as chuse to go into the Sea Service. The King having been informed that the Corsairs of Barbary begin to appear again in the Adriatick Sea, and on the Coast of Calabria, has given Orders for the equipping with all Diligence such Gallies, Gallies, Xebecs and other Vessels fit for Service in this Port, in order to their joining those already out a Cruizing. The two Frigats which sailed from hence a few Days ago in Quest of some Barbary Corsairs who 'twas thought had a Design to attempt a Descent upon the Coast of Calabria, are returned into Port, in order to their being repaired, having suffered greatly in the late tempestuous Weather.

Petersbourg, April 2. We have received Advice from the Ukraine, that the Tartars, who lately made an Irruption into those Territories, were all returned into the Crimea. The same Advices say, that a large Body of Horse had received Orders to march in pursuit of a great Number of Heyducks who had appeared again upon the Frontiers, and committed several Outrages; and that the Officers had received Instructions to give the Heyducks no Quarter.

Florence, April 3. Count Richcourt, President of the Council of the Regency, who has been for some Days extremely ill with a violent Cold, is so well recovered, that he went the Beginning of this Week to Leghorn, to give Orders relating to the Emperor's three Ships of War which lately arrived there from the Levant. We have received Advice from Pisa, that they had apprehended, on the 31st past, the Villain that assassinated some Time since at Venice the Wife and Daughter of a rich Merchant of that City, and that they had conducted him to Prison in order to his being punished. They write from Parma, that great Preparations were making there for the publick Entry of the Infant Duke and his Royal Spouse, which they say is fixed for the 13th Instant.

Turin, April 7. Frequent Conferences have been lately held at Court, in order to consider of some proper Methods for augmenting the Finances, and putting the Commerce and Manufactures of this Kingdom upon a good Footing. M. Pinelli set out a few Days ago from hence for Genoa, and M. Villavecchia, who stays here in order to take Care of the Affairs of that Republick in his Room, has already been introduced to his Majesty, and delivered his Credential Letters.

Stockholm, April 9. On the 7th Instant the Senate in a Body, the Members of the different Colleges, and those of the Tribunal, waited on their Majesties with their Compliments of Condolance on the Death of the late King; and at the same Time complimented their Majesties on their Advancement to the Throne; and they all had the Honour of kissing their Majesties Hands. After which they were introduced to the Prince Royal, and the two young Princes, in their Majesties Apartment, whom they likewise condoled with, and afterwards complimented on that Occasion. The Body of the late King is to lay in State for three Days. And Orders are issued for a general deep Mourning throughout the Kingdom. The Opening of the General Diet seems fixed for the Month of October next. And Orders have been sent to the Officers who command the Troops that are posted on the Frontiers of Finland,

[ Price Two-pence. ]