Naples, April 16.

IN Consequence of the Orders lately issued by the King for the establishing an Academy for the Instruction of Youth in the Art of Navigation, several young Gentlemen of the best Families in this Kingdom have already entred themselves to be instructed in that most useful Art, in order to qualify themselves for Officers on board our Men of War and Gallies. The Corsairs of Barbary, which for some Time past have appeared in great Numbers on the Coast of Calabria, have entirely disappeared for several Days together, on Advice that some Ships of War in this Port were almost ready to put to Sea in order to give them Chace.

Rome, April 17. On Sunday last, being Easter-Day, the Pope went in State to the Vatican Church, where he officiated Pontifically at a Grand Mass, at which assisted upwards of thirty Cardinals, besides a great Number of Archbishops and Bishops; and after Mass he gave the usual Benediction to an infinite Number of People who were assembled together for that Purpose. A Project is on Foot for widening considerably the Mouth of the Tiber, by which Means all great Floods will the easier pass off into the Sea, and prevent many Inundations. The Pope seems greatly inclined to favour this Project, and till Money can be raised for carrying it into Execution, very large Ditches are ordered to be dug so as to receive and carry off all Overflowings of the Waters of that River, which will greatly encrease the Value of all the Lands thereabouts.

Florence, April 17. Count Charles, Son of Count Richecount, President of the Council of this Regency, who came hither a few Days ago from Leghorn in Company with several young Noblemen who had been with him in his Voyage to the Levant on board the Emperor's three Men of War, has brought with him several very great and valuable Curiosities, most of which he has presented to his Father and to the other Lords of the Regency. They write from Trieste, that a Ship was just arrived there from the Barbary Shore, the Master of which affirms, that no less than twenty eight Corsairs failed from the Port of Algiers the Beginning of this Month, in order to cruize on the Christian Powers, and that they steered their Course towards the Sicilian and Adriatick Seas; of which the Court of Naples, the Religion of Malta, and the Republick of Genoa having been informed, were equipping with all Diligence several Men of War and Gallies in order to protect their Trade and pursue those Pyrates.

Warsaw, April 23. We begin to flatter ourselves with the Hopes of seeing their Majesties here again this Year; and 'tis said that the Bishoprick of Cujavia, which has been vacant about two Months, will not be filled up till after their Majesties Arrival. Marshal Lowendahl is expected here in a few Days, and 'tis believed intends to set out on his Return to France the Beginning of next Month. According to different Advices from Podolia, the Turks seem to be making great Preparations for War both on the Frontiers of the Ukraine and Tartary, but with what Views no one at present can tell.

Vienna, April 24. The Deputies from the States of Hungary, who arrived here a few Days ago from Presbourg, have already been admitted to their Audiences of their Imperial Majesties. Part of the Equipage of Prince Charles of Lorraine is already arrived here, but his Highness is not expected at Presbourg till the Month of June. This Day the Court went into Mourning for six Months on Occasion of the Death of the Prince of Wales. We are assured that the Pope has authorized her Imperial Majesty to levy a Tenth upon the Revenues of the Clergy in all her Hereditary Countries. It appears by a List of the Forces her Imperial Majesty has now on Foot, that they consist of 56 Regiments of Infantry, eight of Cuirassiers, two of Dragoons and ten of Hussars, besides four Regiments of Carlstadians, three of Slavonians, and two of Waradins, and some Companies of Hussars which are upon the Repartition of Hungary and Sirmia.

Dresden, April 24. The King, who set out a few Days ago for Torgow, in order to take the Diversion of Hunting, is expected here again on Wednesday next, the Departure of the Court for Leipstick being fixt for the first of next Month, where they propose staying during the whole Time of the Fair, which, according to all Appearance, will be very brilliant this Year. 'Tis reported that a Camp will be formed in the Neighbourhood of this City some Time in June next, in order to exercise the Troops of this Electorate.

Chamberry, April 24. The Count de la Tour, whom the King of Sardinia sent some Time ago to Berne, in order to renew the Capitulation for the Swiss Regiment belonging to that Canton in the Service of his Majesty, having happily terminated that Commission, passed by this Place on Tuesday last on his Return to Turin. We learn from Lyons, that several Manufacturers in the Silk Trade have been lately stop't there with their Effects, on a Suspicion of their having a Design to leave the Country.

Munich, April 27. On Friday last was celebrated at Court the Feast of the Order of St. George, when his Electoral Highness created Count Perouse, her Imperial Majesty's Grand Master of the Household, and the Count de Thoring, Son of the Field Marshal of that Name, Knights of that Order.

Ratisbon, April 29 To-morrow they begin to deliberate in the Assembly of the Diet upon the Affair of the Guarantee of the Treaty of Dresden by the Empire; and as the respective Ministers have received the necessary Instructions on that Head, 'tis not doubted but that it will soon be terminated.

Franckfort, May 1. We have received Advice from Munster, that on the 16th past they had a most violent Storm of Thunder and Lightning, which fell on the Tower of the Church of St. Lambert, but it was soon extinguished without doing any considerable Damage.

Brussels, May 3. Prince Charles of Lorraine set out this Morning for Marimont, in order to take the Diversion of hunting for a few Days.

Hague, May 6. M. d'Abbekerp-Krap, Deputy to the Council of State on the Part of the Province of Holland, has taken his Seat in that Quality, being introduced by M. vander Does. Yesterday Count Charles Bentinck set out from hence for London.

Tower of London, April 26, 1751.

The Lieutenant General and Principal Officers of his Majesty's Ordnance give Notice, that they will sell by publick Auction, on Tuesday the 21st of May next, sundry Lotts of Parchment, Paper and Cotton Cartridges, Tann'd Hides, Handscrews, Drums, Shovels, Spades, Leather Coats for Firemen, Woolpacks, Tents, Match, Tarr'd Rope, Breechings, Tacklefalls, and other old and unserviceable Stores lying in the Tower, where they may be viewed till the Time of Sale; and printed Lists of the Lotts will be delivered to such Persons as apply for the same.
