

Paris, May 8. His most Christian Majesty removes To-day from Versailles to Marly, and will be followed To-morrow by the Queen, and the rest of the Royal Family, to remain there till the 25th. On the Return of the Court to Versailles, they will soon after go to Cressy, and from thence, in a few Days, to Compeigne. Cardinal Tencin has desired Leave to retreat to his Archbishopsrick at Lyons, which his Majesty has consented to, and he will set out accordingly some Day next Month.

Cologne, May 9 We hear from Leipsick, that the King and Queen of Poland, accompanied by the Prince Royal and the Princess his Spouse, arrived there from Dresden on the 2d Instant, and propose staying during the whole Time of the Fair.

Hague, May 11. The States of Holland and Westfrizeland are to assemble To-morrow, for which Purpose most of the Members are already arrived here. This Morning their Serene and Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Orange, with the Hereditary Prince and Princess Caroline, accompanied by several General Officers, went to review the Burgeses of this Place, who were all drawn out in Arms for that Purpose; and having seen them perform their Exercises, they pertook of a cold Collation which was purposely prepared for them in a Tent, and at Night supped with the Officers of the Burgeses. We learn from Amsterdam, that the Directors of the East India Company have received Advice, that the Baron d'Imhoff, Governor General of the Dutch Settlements in the East Indies, died at Batavia on the 1st of November last, and was succeeded by M. Mossel, first Counsellor and Director General of the Company's Affairs in that Country; and that M. Golonosse, who had been named Governor of Ceylon, succeeded M. Mossel.

Whitehall, May 4.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint the Right Honourable George William Earl of Coventry, to be Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of and in the County of Worcester, City of Worcester, and County of the same.

Admiralty-Office, May 3, 1751.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth; as also with the Clerks of the Checque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Mr Thomas Riley Blanckley, at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute to the Widows of Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August 1732, as well as to the Widows of those who died since that Time, whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, such Sums as the Funds of the said Charity shall produce for one Year ending the 31st of this Month, as soon as the Pay-books can be made up, and the Money shall be issued into the Paymaster's Hands for that Purpose; This is to give Notice, that any Widows who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do so as soon as possible; and that all such Widows whose Claims have been already allowed, may send or bring to this Office, by the 31st of this Month, the Affidavits required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon the Pension or Bounty.

General Post Office.

Whereas the Post-Boy bringing the Cirencester Mail to this Office, was Yesterday Morning, between Two and Three of the Clock, on Gerrard's Cross Common, between Wickham and Uxbridge, attacked and robbed by a single Highwayman, mounted on a Bay Mare, who carried off the said Mail, which contained the following Bags of Letters, viz.

Bristol,	Worcester,
Exeter,	Birmingham,
Tiverton,	Wolverhampton,
Taunton,	Woodstock,
Wellington,	Bath,
Bridgewater,	Cirencester,
Wells,	Gloucester,
Oxford,	Thame,
Burford,	Wickham,
Witney,	Beaconsfield,
Chipping-norton,	Gerrard's Cross,
Campden,	Abingdon, and
Evesham,	Farringdon.

The Person who committed this Robbery, was a tall lusty black Man, about Six Feet high, between Forty and Fifty Years of Age, marked with the Small Pox, and had on a blue Surtout or Horseman's Coat, and under it a dark coloured one, with white Metal Buttons, and wore a black or dark coloured Wig, and rode upon a large Brown Bay Horse or Mare, Fifteen Hands high, with a bald Face, and a dark black Mane, the Tail lately docked and nicked, the Wounds not healed.

This therefore is to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby the Person, who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of the Party, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.
