Turin, June 26.

HER Royal Highness the Dutches of Savoy has begun to receive Compliments on her Recovery from her late Illness. This being the Anniversary of his Royal Highness the Duke of Savoy's Birth-Day, there was a grand Appearance at Court, and the Foreign Ministers had separate Audiences of his Royal Highness to congratulate him upon that Occasion.

Turin, June 29. All the Royal Family continue to enjoy perfect Health; and the King is very assiduous in his Endeavours to put his Finances upon a good Footing. Count Moris, who lately failed for a considerable Sum, and found Means to retire to Lugano, returned hither on the 22d Instant, in order to assist in settling his Affairs. Private Letters from Italy inform us of several considerable Bankruptcies that have lately happened at Bergame, Novi, Modena, Genoa, Naples, and even at Leghorn and Florence, which are principally attributed to the Diminution of the Price of Silk.

Genoa, June 28. Letters from Calvi, dated the 20th Instant advise, that the French Troops in Corfica were to be at St. Fiorenzo by the 25th, from whence they were to embark for France; but the Transports were not arrived when those Letters came away.

Vienna, July 1. Count Colloredo, Vice-Chancellor of the Empire, who arrived here on Sunday Morning last from Hungary, was next Day in Conference with several of the Foreign Ministers, and set out immediately after to join the Court at Presbourg. Yesterday the Pope's Nuncio performed the Ceremony of Installing our new Archbishop in the Metropolitan Church of this City. The Departure of their Imperial Majesties for the Camp at Pest, is deferred to the 20th of next Month.

Stockholm, July 2. The Time fixed for opening of the Diet of the States of this Kingdom begins now to draw near, and 'tis expected the necessary Summonses for that Purpose will soon be dispatched. The Number of Houses burnt down by the late Fires are more than were at first imagined, it appearing that there are upwards of 950 consumed. Several scandalous Reflections having been thrown out on this melancholly Occasion against some of the Foreign Ministers and their Servants, the King has caused a Placard to be published, forbidding the same for the future on Pain of Death.

Hambourg, July 9. The Queen Dowager of Denmark, accompanied by the Margrave of Culmbach, arrived here on Friday last from Altena. And Yesterday the Dutches Dowager of Holstein Sleswick, Mother to the present King of Sweden, set out from hence for Eutin, in Company with the Duke and Dutches of Saxe Gotha, who have been here some Days paying her a Visit. We have received Advice from Gothenbourg, that the Frederick Adolphus was arrived there from China on the 29th past, richly laden.

Hague, July 15. The Baron de Nieuwerkerken, and M. Harzolte, have taken the usual Oaths before the Council of State, the first in Quality of Colonel of the Regiment of Orange Groninguen, and the latter in Quality of Lieutenant Colonel in the Regiment of the Prince of Baden Dourlach, to which they were lately preferred by his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange.

Kensington, July 7.

This Day Signior Vignola, lately arrived here Resident from the most Serene Republick of Venice, had his first private Audience of his Royal Highness the Duke; to which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, July 9.

The King has been pleased to constitute, and appoint, the most Honourable, Charles, Marquess of Rockingham, to be his Majesty's Lieutenant of the West Riding in the County of York, and of the City of York, and County of the same City; and, also, to be Custos Rotulorum of the North, and West, Riding in the said County of York, and of the City of York and County of the same City, and Ansty, otherwise Aynstre of York.

The King has been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable William Lord Cavendish, of Hardwyck, to be his Majesty's Master of the Horse.

General Post-Office, June 21, 1751.

These are to give Notice, That the Post will go every Night (Sundays excepted) from London to Tunbridge-Wells, and from Tunbridge Wells to London, to begin on Monday next the 24th Instant, and continue so to do, during the Summer Season, as usual.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

Witney,	Beconsfield,
Chipping-norton,	Gerrard's Cross,
Campden,	Abingdon, and
Evesham,	Farringdon.

The Person who committed this Robbery, was a tall lusty black Man, about Six Feet high, between Forty and Fifty Years of Age, marked with the Small Pox, and had on a blue Surtout or Horseman's Coat, and under it a dark coloured one, with white Metal-Buttons, and wore a black or dark coloured Wig, and rode upon a large Brown Bay Horse or Mare, Fifteen Hands high, with a bald Face, and a dark black Mane, the Tail lately docked and nicked, the Wounds not healed.

This therefore is to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby the Person, who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of the Party, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

Navy-Office, July 5, 1751.

The Right Hon. the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed Money for paying Half Pay to Sea Officers, from the 30th of June to the 31st of December 1750, according to his Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf;

These are to give Notice, that the said Payment will begin to be made at the Treasurer of the Navy's Office in Broad Street, on Monday the 22d Instant, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning, and continued the Tuesday and Wednesday following, beginning at the same Hour; That all Persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the Affidavit required touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid the said Half Pay, but also produce Certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to his present Majesty. And in Case any of the said Sea Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpose, that the said Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.

East-India House, June 12, 1751.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, do hereby give Notice, That on the 31st of December 1751, they will pay and discharge all Principal Money and Interest that shall be then due on such of the said Company's Bonds as carried an Interest after the Rate of Three per Cent. per Annum from the 31st Day of March 1750, and were not brought in and marked as conforming to the Terms and Resolutions of the General Court of the said Company of the 25th of April 1750. After which 31st of December 1751; all Interest on the said Bonds will cease.

Chorographia Britanniae :

OR,

A new Sett of MAPS of all the Counties in England and Wales :

To which are prefix'd the following general Maps, viz.

I. An Accurate Chart of the Sea Coast, exhibiting all the Royal Docks, Fortifications, Harbours, Sands, &c.

II. A Map of England and Wales, as divided into Counties, with the Names of the Cities and County Towns, and the Length, Breadth, and Superficial Content of the Whole, and each County separately.

III. A Map of the great Roads from London, to all Parts of South Britain; with Tables shewing the Distance of each City and Town upon the Road, from the Metropolis, both in computed and measured Miles.

IV. A Map of all the Cross Roads from one great Town to another, with the Distances from Town to Town, both by Computation and Measure. With the particular Map of each County, is an Account of all the Cities, Boroughs, Market Towns, Parishes, and Rivers therein; the Number of Members it sends to Parliament, the Market and Fair Days; and in those of Oxford and Cambridge, are the Names of all the Colleges and Halls in both Universities, with the Dates of their Foundations. To the Whole is added an Alphabetical Index of all the Cities, Boroughs, and Market Towns, properly distinguish'd from each other, and in what County they are situate.

This Collection (conveying a more comprehensive Idea of South Britain, than any Thing hitherto publish'd) was first drawn and compiled into a Pocket Book by Order and for the Use of his late Majesty King George I. for his intended Tour thro' England and Wales.
