

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday July 27, to Tuesday July 30, 1751.

Turin, July 12.

ACCORDING to the Advices we receive here daily from Vaudier, the King continues to drink the Waters at that Place with great Success; and 'tis said his Majesty proposes taking a Tour from thence to Fenestrelles, to examine the Condition of the Fortifications of that Place, so that he is not expected here till the 5th or 6th of next Month. A Courier is arrived here from the Count de Sartirane, Envoy Extraordinary from this Court to that of Genoa, with Dispatches relating to the Affairs of Corsica.

Naples, July 13. Their Majesties came here last Friday from Portici; and the next Day there was a grand Appearance at Court on Occasion of its being the Feast of St. Amelia, whose Name the Queen bears. We have received Advice, that three of our Gallies, being on a Cruize, came up with a Tunesian Corsair on the 28th past off Lapari, and soon made themselves Masters of her: She had 18 Guns on board; and her Crew, consisting of about 30 Men, were all sent to work at the Gallies.

Petersbourg, July 13. Within these few Days past, a great Number of Workmen have been sent, by the Empress's Order, to Petershoff, in order to repair and beautify the Royal Palace and Gardens of that Place. Last Week her Imperial Majesty made a numerous Promotion of Subaltern Officers, not only in the three Regiments of her Foot Guards, but likewise in those of her Horse Guards. Count Verthern, late a Major General in the Service of the Elector of Bavaria, is soon expected here, in order to enter into the Service of this Court in the same Quality. Count Posse, the Swedish Minister, is taking his Leave of the other Foreign Ministers, being to set out To-morrow or next Day for Stockholm. Yesterday a Man of War of 86 Guns was launched at the Dock belonging to the Admiralty, and appeared to be an exceeding fine Ship. By an Express arrived here a few Days ago from Russian Finland, we received Advice of the Death of Lieutenant General Grouschoff, Commander of her Imperial Majesty's Forces quartered in that Country, but as yet no one is appointed to succeed him. The Departure of Count Lynar from Copenhagen is again deferred; and 'tis now said it will not take Place till after that Minister has finished a Negotiation he began some Time ago with the Ministers of the Great Duke of Russia, concerning the Dutchy of Holstein.

Breslau, July 20. On Tuesday last there fell, in the Principality of Munsterberg, a prodigious Quantity of Hail, and so very large, that it has done an infinite deal of Damage to all the Fruits of the Earth. We learn from Faustadt and Lissa, that the Locusts begin to appear in such Numbers, that they have great Reason to be apprehensive of their doing as much Mischief this Year as they did the last.

Vienna, July 21. On Monday last the Emperor, accompanied by Prince Charles of Lorraine, and attended by several of the principal Lords of the Court, arrived in this City; and Yesterday his Imperial Majesty signed several Dispatches; after which he went to Schonbrun, to see the young Archduchesses; and this Morning he set out, with the Prince his Brother, on his Return to Presbourg. In Consequence of the Scheme which is on Foot for the better Regulation of the Commerce of Hungary, Magazines are going to be erected there in divers Places, in which are to be deposited all the Surplus Grain, and other unperishable Productions of that Kingdom; and the Duties that used to be paid upon all Corn, Wine and Cattle, are going to be considerably lessened, in order to facilitate, by that Means, the Sale of such Part of those Commodities as shall be transported from Hungary into the Hereditary Countries. The Departure of the Court for the Camp at Pest is again deferred for some Days, and 'tis now believed will not take Place till the 4th of next Month. Count Colloredo, Vice Chancellor of the

[Price Two-Pence.]