

Orders to march for the Camp of Kuttentourg next Tuesday.

Dresden, July 27. The Court will set out in a few Days for St. Hubertsbourg, in order to reside there till the Fair of Leipfick. 'Tis said the Royal and Electoral Princess is again with Child, and that the same will shortly be declared at Court. Field Marshal Count Lowendahl is still here, and constantly attends the King's Levee, where he is always received with great Marks of Distinction: It is now said the Time of his Departure for France is fixed for the Beginning of next Month; and, according to all Appearance, he will take his Route by Berlin. General Arnim, Envoy Extraordinary from this Court to that of Russia, having solicited for some Time to be recalled, his Majesty has at last consented thereto, so that he is expected to leave Petersbourg soon after he receives and presents his Letters of Revocation; but as yet the King has named no Person to fill up that Post. The Count de Puebla, Minister Plenipotentiary from their Imperial Majesties to the Court of Prussia, who went some Time since to Presbourg, to receive some new Instructions, arrived here a few Days ago from thence; and having had the Honour to be presented to his Majesty, and met with a most gracious Reception, set out on his Return to Berlin. The Countess Dowager of Ogilvy having been named Grand Mistress of the King's Household, is soon expected here to take Possession of that Employment. We have received Advice, that the Count de Gersdorff, Grand Bailiff of Upper Lusatia, died some Days ago at Carlsbad, to which Place he was gone to drink the Waters.

Hambourg, July 30. An Express has passed by this Place going from Paris to Stockholm, with Dispatches, as is believed, relating to the Declaration which the Empress of Russia sent lately to several of the principal Courts of Europe. M. de Spreckelsen, who a few Months ago was placed at the Head of the Regency of this City, died here on Tuesday last, greatly regretted.

Berlin July 30. The King, who has been for some Time past drinking of Mineral Waters at his Palace of Sans-Soucy, and found great Benefit therefrom, is returned again to Potzdam. The Princess of Prussia, who now grows near the Time of her Lying-in, is in extreme good Health: Her eldest Son Prince Frederick William, who was lately seized with the Small Pox, is now perfectly recovered. The Count de Puebla, Minister Plenipotentiary from their Imperial Majesties, returned hither on Sunday Night last from Presbourg, and had next Day the Honour of Supping with the Queen Mother at her Palace of Montbijou, to which several other Foreign Ministers were likewise invited. We have received Advice that Prince Henry, the King's Brother, after he had spent a Fortnight at the Court of the Elector Palatine, was gone to that of Wirtembourg; from whence he proposed going to the Courts of Bareith and Gotha, so that he is not expected to return hither till the 20th of next Month. M. Klawfenheim, one of the Chamberlains of the Great Prince of Russia, arrived in this City on Saturday last from Hambourg, and set out the next Day for Vienna. M. von der Hellen, whom the King has named his Resident to the States General, only waits for his last Instructions in order to his setting out for the Hague.

Brussels, August 4. The Government have granted Leave to the States of the Province of Flanders, to make a High Road from Menin to Bruges, from whence it is expected great Advantages will arise from Commerce; and that Work will be immediately begun. The Regency having been informed, that notwithstanding the Ordonnances which have been issued from Time to Time against Tradesmen's opening their Shops and vending their Goods on Sabbath-days, many continue so to do, not only in this City, but likewise in several other Places in these Provinces, have caused the said Ordonnances to be renewed, with a heavy Penalty, and even corporal Punishment to be inflicted on all those who shall be found guilty of the like Practices for the future. Upon Complaints having been made to the Magistrates of Bruges, of the Number and Insolence of the Beggars, they have caused a Placard to be published, ordering all Beggars to depart from thence in the Space of three Days, on Pain of being severely punished as common Disturbers of the publick Tranquillity. We learn from Mons, that the Repairing of the Fortifications of that Place is carried on with great Diligence, and will soon be in a much better State of Defence than they were before the late War. By Letters from Madrid of the 14th of last Month, we learn, that the Court had come to a Resolution of sending seven or eight hundred regular Troops, and some Engineers, to Peru, in order to repair and fortify the different Places situate upon the Sea Coast; and that, in order thereto, a sufficient Number of Ships were ordered to be got ready at Cadiz as soon as possible; on board of which are to be embarked several Pieces of Artillery for a Fort which is to be erected on the Island of Juan Fernandez.

Kensington, August 1.

This Day General Wall, for some Time since Plenipotentiary Minister here from the King of Spain, having received fresh Letters of Credence, giving him the Character of Ambassador from his Catholick Majesty, had a private Audience of his Majesty, to present his said Credential Letters, to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Holderness, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Knight, Master of the Ceremonies.

July 29, 1751.
