

ture from Presbourg for the Camp at Pest, several Hungarian Noblemen, who have Seats on the Roads through which they are to pass, are already set out to make the necessary Preparations for their Reception. The Archdukes and Archduchesses are to leave Presbourg on Wednesday next, in order to return to Schonbrun. 'Tis said that the Empress Queen, before the Return of the Court from Hungary, will dispose of the important Post of Primate of that Kingdom, which has been vacant for some Years; and, according to all Appearance, it will be given to the Archbishop of Koloczka.

Modena, Aug. 1. The Duke has given Orders for casting, at our Arsenal, thirty Pieces of large Cannon, and some Mortars, and they are already preparing to begin the same. The Court is still at the Castle of Rivalta, but will remove on Thursday or Friday next to Sassuolo, in order to pass the Remainder of the fine Season at that Place.

Dresden, Aug. 2. The whole Court set out this Morning for Zedlitz, where it will stay till the End of the Week. The Deputies who are come hither from Dantzick, as well on Behalf of the Magistrates, as of the Burgeses, have already laid a Narrative of their Grievances before the Commissaries whom the King has appointed to enquire into their Complaints.

Hambourg, Aug. 3. M. Corthum, one of the Members of the Regency, has been elected Burgomaster of this City, in the room of the late M. Spreckelsen, whose Corps was interred with great Funeral Pomp in the Church of St. Nicholas. We learn by the last Letters from Petersburg, that, in Conformity to the Orders of the Empress, an Ordonnance has been published there, renewing that of the 11th of May 1744, which forbids, under very severe Penalties, the carrying of any Gold or Silver, or any Species of Russian Money, out of any Part of that Empire. They write from Dresden, that Field Marshal Count Lowendahl, and the Countess, his Spouse, set out from thence on the 26th past, on their Return to France.

Berlin, Aug. 3. The Queen-Mother, accompanied by the Princess Amelia, went on Sunday Night last to pay a Visit to her present Majesty at the Palace of Schonhausen, where there was a very grand Concert, at which were present the Prince of Prussia, and several Persons of the First Distinction of both Sexes. The same Day Count Bredow, Minister of State, and Grand Master of the King's Wardrobe, set out from hence for Vienna. His Majesty has appointed M. de Tettau to be Major to the Regiment of Foot of the Prince of Hesse Darmstadt. The Prince of Anhalt Bernbourg arrived here Yesterday Morning, and the same Day waited on the two Queens, and met with a gracious Reception.

Franckfort, Aug. 5. The Prussian Officers continue to raise a great Number of Recruits in the Neighbourhood of this City; and they are often sending them away for their respective Regiments. The Affair concerning the Church, which the Protestants have been for a long Time past soliciting to have built within the Walls of this City, continues in the same Situation it has been for some Time past; and notwithstanding several Princes and States of the Empire have interested themselves in Favour of the Protestants, yet the Magistrates seem quite stedfast in refusing their Request. A few Days ago a prodigious Quantity of all Sorts of Merchandizes passed by here, upon the Mayne, for the Fair of Mayence, which is to begin Tomorrow.

Hague, Aug. 10. The Deputies of the several Colleges of the Admiralty of this Country are arrived here from their respective Towns, and have already began their Deliberations. And Tomorrow the States of Holland and West-frizeland will open their Assembly. We learn from Delft, that M. Bleiswyk, Councillor and Burgomaster of that City, died there Yesterday Morning, aged 72.
