

the Eighth Day of October next, and that the same shall be then held at Dublin, and fit for the Dispatch of Business: Whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this present Parliament, are to take Notice, and to give their Attendance accordingly.

Given at his Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 2d Day of August, 1751.

By their Excellencies Command,
Tho. Waite.

GOD save the KING.

Naples, July 23. We have received certain Advice, that a Genoese armed Bark has taken, on the Coast of this Kingdom, a Barbary Pink with eight Guns and 70 Men on board. They have published here a very rigorous Edict against the assembling of Free Masons. This Edict was granted by the King, at the Desire of the Clergy; and several Persons are appointed to see it carried into Execution.

Genoa, July 26. Nothing is neglected by this Government that can possibly tend towards the Re-establishing the Credit of the Bank of St. George, or contribute to the Benefit and Advantage of the Subjects of this Republick, of which the Great Road they have resolved to make from Spezzia, to join those leading to the Dutchy of Parma, is an incontestable Proof; as this Road, which is already begun, will greatly facilitate the conveying of Merchandize into that Dutchy, and thereby be of the utmost Service to us; and the rather, as the Journey will then be made in two Days. Prince Doria, who went some Time since to Turin to compliment the King of Sardinia, and all that Royal Family, on the Birth of the Prince of Piemont, is returned here, extremely well pleased with the Reception he met with at that Court. We are informed by our last Letters from Corsica, that M. Chauvelin, the French Minister, did not leave Bastia till Thursday last, when he went to St. Fiorenzo, and established his Head Quarters there. The News we received of the Tripolitans having taken a Maltese Ship is confirmed; with these additional Circumstances, that two of those Corsairs attacked her off the Island of Rhodes, and that she fought them upwards of three Hours; but as her Crew consisted only of 40 Men, upwards of twenty of whom were either killed or wounded during the Engagement, she was at length over-powered, and obliged to surrender. By our last Letters from Venice, we are informed, that they have received, from divers Places, a Confirmation of the News of a bloody Battle having been fought in the Neighbourhood of Ispahan, between two of the Competitors for the Throne of Persia, in which upwards of thirty thousand Men were killed and wounded on both Sides; and that they soon expected a more particular Account of this Action, and of the Consequences attending it.

Turin, July 27. The King having been seized, during his Stay at the Baths of Vaudier, with some slight feverish Disorders, occasioned his Return hither from thence sooner than was at first intended; however his Majesty now finds himself much better.

Stockholm, July 30. The Directors of the Fire Office having advanced several considerable Sums of Money towards rebuilding such Houses as were consumed by the late Fires, and insured by them, those Buildings are now carrying on with the greatest Diligence. The Chamberlain Count Panin, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the Empress of Russia, is preparing a most magnificent Equipage to appear with at their Majesties Coronation.

Warsaw, July 31. There is arrived here, within these few Days past, a considerable Sum of new coined Money to pay the Saxon Troops which the Empress Queen of Hungary keeps on Foot in this Kingdom. The last Letters from the Frontiers say, that the Heyducks have not appeared in any great Numbers since their late Skirmishes with some Detachments of the Crown Army, who have killed Numbers of them, and taken many Prisoners.

Prague, July 31. The Regiment of Foot of Harsch, which composed Part of this Garrison, marched from hence on Monday last for the Camp that is forming between Colin and Kutttenberg; and was followed the next Day by those of Betleem and Haller, so that we have now only some Companies of Invalids left here to do Duty.

Dresden, Aug. 2. The Count de Bose, one of the King's Chamberlains, who lately entred with the Consent of his Majesty, into the Service of the Margrave of Brandenburg Bareith, in Quality of Privy Councillor, and Master of the Horse, set out from hence last Week to take Possession of those Employments. The Report that was lately spread of a Camp's being to be formed of the Regiments quartered in this Neighbourhood, seems to have no Foundation, the Court not having given the least Orders in Relation thereto.

Vienna, Aug. 3. The Empress Queen has disposed of the Archbishoprick of Gran, and of the high Dignity of Primate of the Kingdom of Hungary, in Favour of Count Czacky, Archbishop of Koloczka, who is succeeded in his Archbishoprick by the Baron de Klobzisky, Bishop of Agran in Croatia. Her Imperial Majesty has likewise made a numerous Promotion of General Officers, Councillors of State, and Chamberlains. On Saturday last his Imperial Majesty, accompanied by Prince Charles of Lorraine, arrived here from Presbourg; and the same Night the Empress Queen also arrived, accompanied by the Princess Charlotte. And Yesterday their Imperial Majesties set out for the Camp at Offen; which Journey will take up ten or twelve Days, after which they will return to Presbourg, where 'tis said the Court will reside till the End of September. The same Day the young Archdukes and Archduchesses returned hither from Presbourg. The States of Hungary are again assembled, in order to regulate the different Proportions which each respective Province is to furnish of the Subsidies lately granted by the Diet of that Kingdom to her Imperial Majesty. The Copper Mines in Hungary having produced a much larger Quantity last Year than they did in any former Year, they have lately opened a Correspondence with Hambourg, in order thereby to dispose of Part of that Commodity.

Breslau, Aug. 4. We have received Advice from Oels, that on Sunday last the Duke of Wurtemberg Oels's Dutchess was safely delivered there of a Princess.

Hambourg, Aug. 6. The Princess, Spouse of the Prince of Holstein Gottorp, Major General and Colonel of a Regiment of Dragoons in the Service of the King of Prussia, was delivered of a Prince on the 20th of last Month at Riesenbourg.

Berlin,
