11th Day of October, 1751.

P R E S E N T,

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS upon Information of the Plague raging with great Violence at Constantinople and Parts adjacent, His Majesty thought proper, by His Order in Council of the Fourth of September last, to require and command all Ships and Vessels that should arrive after that Time from the Levant, to perform a Quarantine of Forty Days in Standgate Creek—And whereas some Doubts may arise concerning the Extent of the Levant, it is therefore judged necessary hereby to declare and order, that the Levant be understood in this Case (as formerly on like Occasions) to extend itself Eastward from the Isle of Corfu on the Borders of Greece in the Ionian Sea, and from Cape Rufata on the Coast of Barca in Africa. Whereof the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to take Notice, and give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Sharpe.

Naples, Sept. 23. The King is determined if possible to have the Men of War and Frigats now actually upon the Stocks, launched early in the Spring, for which Purpose his Majesty has given Orders that the Workmen be paid for working all extraordinary Hours. Two of our Gallies, which have been cruizing for some Time upon the Coast of Calabria, against the Barbary Pyrates, are returned into Port, in order to be repaired, having suffered very much lately in a violent Storm. The King has appointed Don Mirabelli, to be one of the Judges of the Criminal Court of Justice of this Kingdom.

Rome, Sept. 25. The Pope has given M.
Maggi Leave to resign his Employment of President of the Mint, and M. de Bonacorfi is appointed to succeed him. Orders are dispatched to all the Frontiers of the Ecclesiastical State, for the late Prohibition against sending of Corn out of this Country, to be strictly carried into Execution. The Collection that has been made in this City, and its Neighbourhood, for the Relief of the Sufferers by the late Earthquakes at Ombria and Ancona, amount to a very considerable Sum, the greatest Part of which has already been remitted to them for their present Subsistence. They write from Civita Vecchia, that no less than twenty Smugglers were seized last Week in the Neighbourhood of that City, who were all committed to Prison, and ordered to be prosecuted immediately. The Pope is perfectly recovered from his late severe Fit of the Gout, and appears again in Publick as before.

Genda, Sept. 26. M. Chauvelin, Minister Plenipotentiary from France, continues to have frequent Conferences with the principal Members of this Government, in Relation to the preserving the Tranquility that is to happily established in Corsica. We have just received Advice, that a Tunesian Corsair has taken a Neapolitan Pink in the Sea of Tuscany.

Leghorn, Sept. 26. The Pope's Gallies, that were drove into this Port a few Days ago by contrary Winds, are put to Sea again, and sailed for the Island of Corsica, where they are to be joined by some Genoese armed Vessels that are ordered to go with them on a Cruize against the Algerine Corsairs, who appear in great Numbers on the Coast of the Ecclesiastical State, and greatly interrupt the Commerce. The Master of a French Ship just arrived in this Port from Tunis says, that four large Gallions, and two Tartanes, were fitting out there by Order of the Dey and Regency, and that it was confidently reported they would be ready to put to Sea by the Beginning of next Month, in order to cruize in the Spanish Seas.

Warsaw, Sept. 26. All the Accounts we receive from Turky agree, that although the Ottoman Troops, who advanced some Months ago into the Neighbourhood of Checzin, Bender and Oczakow, continued very quiet in their respective Quarters, yet the repairing and augmenting the Fortifications of these three Places were carrying on with great Vigour by the Grand Seignior's express Orders.

Vienna, Oct. 2. Preparations are making at Schonbrun for celebrating the Emperor's Name-Day on Monday next. 'Tis said a Resolution has been taken to keep 30000 Imperial Troops on Foot in Bohemia, for the enabling this Court to be always ready to fulfill its Engagements with that of Russia. Yesterday the Court went into Mourning for the Death of the Elec-tress of Bavaria, and the young Prince of Est, second Son of the Duke of Modena. Her Imperial Majesty has sent Orders to the Commanding Officers of her Forces quartered on the Frontiers of Hungary, bordering on the Dominions of the Grand Seignior, to cause the Troops under their Command immediately to form a Line, in order to prevent the Plague, which still rages pretty much in some of the neighbouring
