Florence, Nov. 15. On the 5th Instant the Marquess Malaspina, the late Minister from the Court of Naples to that of Dresden, being recovered of his Indisposition, proceeded on his Journey to Naples.

Warsaw, Nov. 16. They write from Laticzew, that the Heyducks, who had given no Uneasiness for some Time past, had lately appeared again in great Numbers upon the Territories of the Republick, and had committed very great Disorders; that some rich Jew Merchants who were returning from the Fair of Mohilow, having had the Misfortune to fall into their Hands, had been robbed and murdered by them; and that a large Party of them had been in the Neighbourhood of Winnicza, where they had plundered the Inhabitants of two or three Towns or Villages.

Turin, Nov. 17. This being the Anniversary of her Royal Highness the Dutchess of Savoy's Birth-Day, there was a great Court at the Venerie; and, as a Mark of Distinction, his Serene Highness the Prince of Anspac was invited to Dinner with his Sardinian Majesty. On this Occasion the Nobility and Foreign Ministers went to Court in their richest Habits to pay their Compliments. Don Emanuel de Valguenera, late Viceroy of Sardinia, and who came from thence about a Fortnight ago, was this Day declared Great Chamberlain, in the Room of the late Marquess de Gorzegne.

Gotha, Nov. 18. On Thursday Morning last a Fire broke out at Wattershausen, a small Town situate about two Miles from hence, which burnt with such Violence, that near forty Houses were entirely reduced to Ashes in about four Hours Time, notwithstanding all possible Assistance was sent them from all the neighbouring Towns and Villages. Many Persons were very much bruised and burnt on this melancholly Occasion, but we have not as yet heard of more than two or three Persons who have lost their Lives.

Dresden, Nov. 21. The Frost is set in so very severe in this County, that the Navigation of the Elbe is already greatly interrupted by the Ice. We are informed by private Letters from Holstein, that the Mortality amongst the horned Cattle had broke out there again, and raged with great Violence. Last Week a Fire broke out in the Night, in one of the Wings of the Castle of St. Hubertsberg, but it was soon extinguished, and did very little Damage.

Berlin, Nov. 26. The King has granted to Major General the Baron de Stillen, a considerable Fief in Pomerania. Last Monday Morning his Majesty came here from Potzdam, and having given some Audiences to Foreign Ministers, returned thither again the next Morning. The young Prince of Anhalt Cothen, who some Time ago quitted the Danish Service, to enter into that of this Court, has had a Company given him in the King's own Regiment of Horse Guards.

Brussels, Nov. 29. The Citizens of this City have given their Consent to the raising of a Twentieth Penny for the Use of his Imperial Majesty; and of a Tenth Penny for the Support of the Court and Dignity of Prince Charles of Lorraine our Governor General.

Hague, Dec. 2. The Deputies of our East India Company, and M. Zwellengrebel, heretofore Governour of the Cape of Good Hope, attended this Morning on the Assembly of the States General, and gave an Account of the present Situation of their Affairs in that Country. Her Royal Highness the Princess Governante has appointed Baron Frederick Wassenauer to be Bailiff of this Place, in the room of the late Baron Charles Wassenauer.
