Whitehall, December 10, 1751.

Additional Article to the antient Treaties subsisting between His Majesty and the Dey and Government of Algiers, agreed to by the present Dey, Mahomet, and His Majesty's Plenipotentiaries the Honourable Augustus Keppel, and Ambrose Stanyford, Esq; His Majesty's Agent and Consul General at Algier.

THAT all Packets or Express-Boats, bearing His Britannick Majesty's Commission, which shall be met by any of the Cruizers of Algiers, shall be treated with the same Respect as His Majesty's Ships of War, and all due Respect shall be paid to His Majesty's Commission; and both at Meeting and Parting, they shall be treated as Friends: And if any of the Algerine Cruizers commit the least Fault or Violence against them, the Captains or Raizes so offending, shall, on their Arrival at Algiers, and proper Complaint being made of them, be most severely punished, without admitting of their Excuses. Dated at Algiers the 3d Day of June 1751, and in the Year of Hageira 1164, the 20th Day of the Moon Regil.

Whitehall, November 2, 1751.

Walter Titley, Esq; His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Court of Denmark, has transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State, the following Account from Copenhagen, dated the 30th of October N. S. It having been found necessary to change the Situation of the Fire kept hitherto upon a Sand-Bank, at the Point of Jutland, called Schagen, for the Use of Mariners; His Danish Majesty has ordered Notice thereof to be given to the Publick, and, in Pursuance of that Order, the proper Officers sent an Advertisement, accompanied with a Memorial, to Mr. Titley, desiring him to transmit the said Advertisement to England, for the Information of the British Traders to the Baltick; of which Advertisement the following is a Translation.

Advertisement.

Whereas the Sand-Hill at Schagen, upon which a Fire has been kept hitherto in the Night Time for the Direction of Ships failing through the Cattegat, is almost washed away by the Sea; and there is now erected, instead of the said wasting Sand-Hill, a Tower of Sixty Four Feet high, standing further within the Land at the Distance of Eight Hundred Feet from the Sand-Hill, and Four Hundred Feet more towards the North; upon which Tower the Fire is to be kept for the Future, and to commence on the ^{21st of January, O. S.} 1st of February, N. S. in the ensuing Year 1752: Therefore, by Order of the King of Denmark, Norway, &c. this Notice is given to the Publick, to the End that Mariners, being duly apprized of the Alteration beforehand, may regulate their Course through the Cattegat accordingly.

Should the foresaid Sand Hill happen to be destroyed and carried quite away, by any violent Storm, before the Time abovementioned, in that Case a Fire will immediately be lighted up upon the Tower, instead of that which has hitherto burnt upon the Sand-Hill.

Copenhagen, from the Office of his Majesty's Privy-Purse, the 25th October 1751.

Constantinople, Nov. 5. The Plague is now entirely ceased in this Capital, and the Grand Signior, the Ministers of the Divan, and most of the Foreign Ministers, are come to Town. According to our last Advices from Persia, the Prince of Georgia continues to make great Progress in Ghilan, having already made himself Master of the greatest Part of that Province.

Petersbourg, Nov. 19. Every Thing is now ready for the Empress's Departure for Moscow, and to all Appearance it will take Place as soon as a sufficient Quantity of Snow shall have fallen, and the Sledging Ways are become open. A few Days ago a private Gentleman was beheaded here for having betrayed the Secrets of this Court; and his Accomplices, after having been punished severely with the Knout, were banished to Siberia. The Weather is set in so very cold here for these three Days past, that not only Foot Passengers, but even Carriages have already begun to cross the Neva. Several young Gentlemen, of the best Families in this Empire, have lately obtained her Imperial Majesty's Leave to go to
