Whitehall, November 2, 1751.

Walter Titley, Esq; His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Court of Denmark, has transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State, the following Account from Copenhagen, dated the 30th of October N. S. It having been found necessary to change the Situation of the Fire kept hitherto upon a Sand-Bank, at the Point of Jutland, called Schagen, for the Use of Mariners; His Danish Majesty has ordered Notice thereof to be given to the Publick, and, in Pursuance of that Order, the proper Officers sent an Advertisement, accompanied with a Memorial, to Mr. Titley, desiring him to transmit the said Advertisement to England, for the Information of the British Traders to the Bal-tick; of which Advertisement the following is a Translation.

Advertisement.

Whereas the Sand-Hill at Schagen, upon which a Fire has been kept hitherto in the Night Time for the Direction of Ships sailing through the Cattegat, is almost washed away by the Sea; and there is now erected, instead of the said wasting Sand-Hill, a Tower of Sixty Four Feet high, standing further within the Land at the Distance of Eight Hundred Feet from the Sand-Hill, and Four Hundred Feet more towards the North; upon which Tower the Fire is to be kept for the Future, and to commence on the ^{21st of January, O. S.} _{21st of February, N. S.} in the ensuing Year 1752: Therefore, by Order of the King of Denmark, Norway, &c. this Notice is given to the Publick, to the End that Mariners, being duly apprized of the Alteration beforehand, may regulate their Course through the Cattegat accordingly.

Should the foresaid Sand-Hill happen to be destroyed and carried quite away, by any violent Storm, before the Time abovementioned, in that Case a Fire will immediately be lighted up upon the Tower, instead of that which has hitherto burnt upon the Sand-Hill.

Copenhagen, from the Office of his Majesty's Privy-Purse, the 25th October 1751.

Naples, Nov. 30. The Eruption of Mount Vesuvius has been very violent, and continues still, insomuch that Publick Prayers are ordered to be continued for nine Days successively, to implore the Divine Assistance on so extraordinary a Juncture. The King has obtained the Pope's Consent for the Suppression of the Convents of the Order of Benedictines in the Two Sicilies, commonly called Collaretani, on Condition of employing their Revenues in charitable Uses, especially towards erecting the new Hospital which is building in this City for the Poor; and the Fryars of those Convents are to be distributed in the Convents of the Augustinians. A few Days ago three Parties of Banditti, who have lately infested the neighbouring Villages, were arrested and conducted Prisoners to this City, escorted by Parties of Grenadiers. On the 18th their Majesties and the Royal Family, attended by their respective Retinues and Guards, returned to this City from Portici, Rome, Dec. 4. The necessary Utensils and Materials having been compleated and transported from Gaeta to Porto d'Anzio, for repairing that Port, under the Direction of two eminent Engineers, the Pope has ordered a large Supply of Money from the Treasury for the commencing of that Work. On the 13th Instant Cardinal Portocarrero returned to this City from Parma, after having stood as Proxy for the King of Spain, at the Christening of the young Princess of Parma; and on the 16th he had an Audience of the Pope. It is said that he is to repair to Madrid in the Spring, by Order of the Court of Spain.

Florence, Dec. 6. M. de Verelst, late Envoy Extraordinary from the States General to the Court of Turin, after having observed the Cu-riositys of this City, set out from hence a few Days ago for Naples, where he is to reside with the same Character. Two of the Emperor's Ships of War are disarmed at Porto Ferrajo, by his Imperial Majesty's Directions, and their Crew and Officers (the Captain, first Lieutenant, Carpenter and Boatswain only excepted) are discharged and paid off. The third Ship is kept in Commission, to be made Use of upon any Occasion.

this Morning happily delivered of a Princess.

Stockholm, Dec. 10. On Tuesday last the Ceremony of their Majesties Coronation was performed here with that Magnificence and Solemnity as is scarcely to be expressed. And Yesterday the four Orders which compose the States of this Kingdom waited on his Majesty, and took the Oaths of Allegiance usual on this Occasion, and were afterwards splendidly entertained at Dinner by his Majesty. The publick Rejoicings have been continued for three Days, during which the Houses in this City were all illuminated, and Fireworks were played off every Night.

Munich, Dec. 12. Last Sunday the Pregnancy of the Electress of Bavaria our Sovereign was declared at Court, to the great Joy of the Inhabitants of this Electorate.

Dresden, Dec. 14. The Distemper amongst the Horned Cattle, which was thought to have entirely ceased in this Electorate, is broke out again with great Violence in several Places, and great Numbers of Cattle die of it every Day.

pointed Envoy from the States General to the Court of Sweden, arrived here last Night.
