

And every Person so offending may be seized, and brought to England, and committed to Goal there, by any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, until sufficient Security be given by Natural-born Subjects or Denizens, to appear in the Court, where such Prosecution shall be commenced, to answer the same, and not depart without Leave of the Court.

3d Geo. II. Cap. 14.] By an Act passed in the 3d Year of His present Majesty, it is Enacted, That if any of His Majesty's Subjects (other than the East-India Company, and those licensed by them,) shall, directly, or indirectly, go to, trade, or adventure into, or from, the East-Indies, every such Offender shall incur the Forfeiture, and Loss, of all the Ships, and Vessels, employed in such Voyage, Trade, or Adventure; and also all the Goods laden thereupon, or that were sent to, acquired, traded or adventured, within the East-Indies, and all the Proceed, and Effects, of the same, and Double the Value thereof.

Milan, December 26. Count Palavicini, Governor of this City, having been informed that a numerous Gang of Thieves had committed many surprizing Robberies and Outrages in the Neighbourhood of Anhiera, sent thither a strong Detachment from the Troops of this Garrison, in order to apprehend them; and the Officer who commanded that Detachment, took such prudent Precautions, that he soon discovered the Place of their Retreat, and seized Seventeen of them, in whose Custody was found a large Sum of Money, besides some Plate, Jewels, and rich Furniture of which they had forcibly plundered the Country Seat belonging to the Marquis de Averio in the Day-Time. They were all brought here Prisoners last Week, and committed to Goal, where 'tis thought they will not remain long before they are brought to their Tryals.

Florence, Dec. 31. We are assured by our last Letters from Modena and Lavenza, that the Duke of Modena has entirely desisted from his Design of making a Port at Lavenza; and accordingly his Highness has dismissed M. Simon, the French Ingeneer and Director thereof, as well as all other Persons who were employed in that Work. And by the last Letters from Bologn and Milan we are informed, that Highway Robberies are become so common in the Neighbourhood of those two Places, that neither Couriers or Gentlemen can travel the Roads without running the Risk of being either robbed or murdered.

Vienna, Jan. 3. Last Wednesday, being New Year's Day, the Court was very numerous and brilliant to compliment their Imperial Majesties and the young Family on that Occasion. They talk of several Schemes being soon to be brought on the Carpet for encouraging the Industry of the Inhabitants of the Hereditary Countries, amongst whom no loose or disorderly Persons are to be admitted to inhabit that come from other Countries, to which Purpose Orders are sent to the Governors of the Frontiers, not to admit any Vagabonds, or Persons who cannot give a good Account of themselves, to pass into any of those Countries.

Ratisbon, January 3. The Protestants of Cronenbourg have presented a new Memorial to the Diet, complaining that the Elector of Mayence's sending Commissaries to examine into their Religious Grievances, had not had the desired Effect; and therefore employ the Assistance of the Diet, that they may enjoy the free Exercise of their Religion, agreeably to the Treaty of Westphalia.

Hambourg, Jan. 11. The States of Sweden are come to a Resolution of adopting the Gregorian Calendar.

Hague, Jan. 13. Our Lords the States of this Province, who opened their Assembly Yesterday, continued To-Day their Deliberations. All the Ambassadors and Foreign Ministers residing at this Court, have been invited to the Funeral of his late Serene Highness the Prince of Orange, which 'tis thought will be some Time this Month. We are informed by several private Letters from the Province of Utrecht, by To-Day's Post, that the Waters of the Lecq, which had continued rising for some Days past, and greatly alarmed the Inhabitants bordering on that River, had fallen considerably last Night; so that their Fears of the Banks of that River's being either overflowed, or broke down, are now happily dissipated.

Paris, Jan. 15. The Duke of Orleans, who has been very much indisposed for some Time past, is now so ill, that he is thought to be past Recovery.
