

St. James's, February 3.

This Day L'Abbè Grossa Testa, Minister from the Duke of Modena, had a private Audience of Leave of his Royal Highness the Duke; to which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

And afterwards he had a private Audience of Leave of her Royal Highness the Princess Amelia; to which he was introduced by the Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, February 4, 1752.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that, on Wednesday the 15th of January, between Ten and Eleven o'Clock at Night, George Carey, of Epping, in the County of Essex, Higgle, was robbed, and barbarously murdered, by two, or more Men, between the 13 and 14 Mile Stone Post, on Epping Forest, in the High Road from London to Epping; His Majesty, for the better discovering, and bringing to Justice, the Persons concerned in the said Robbery, and Murder, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon, to any one of them, (except the Person that actually committed the Murder,) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, or they, may be apprehended, and convicted thereof; and, also, a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person, whether an Accomplice, or not, in the said Crimes, (except the Person that committed the Murder,) who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid, over and above the Reward, given by Act of Parliament, for apprehending of Highwaymen; the said Reward, of One Hundred Pounds, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, upon Conviction of one or more of the Criminals.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement, William Harvey, of Chigwell, and John Conyers, of Epping Place, in the County of Essex, Esqrs. do, hereby, jointly, promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds, for each Person who shall be so apprehended, and convicted, as aforesaid, to be paid to the Person, or Persons, making such Discovery as is abovementioned, upon the Conviction of the respective Criminals; or, the Sum of Ten Pounds, to any Person, or Persons, who shall only apprehend, and bring before the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor of the City of London, or Henry Fielding, Esq; one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, the two Persons abovementioned, or either of them, of whom the following Description is given, viz.

One of them, (the Person who committed the Murder,) is a slight-made, tall, pale faced, young Man, who, when the Robbery, and Murder, were committed, wore his own Black Hair; and had on, a Blue-Grey Coat, with White Metal Buttons, and a Blue Apron, tyed round him: He then appeared like a Gardener, and is supposed to have worked, lately, about Kensington.

The other is a short Man, much Pock fretten, whose Name is supposed to be Edward Williams, alias Ned, the Hardware Man; and who was meanly dressed, in a Brownish, or Snuff-coloured Coat, with a Red, and Yellow Silk Handkerchief about his Neck. Both these Persons are supposed to travel about the Country, with Stockings, and other Goods, to sell; and the latter of them had, at the Time the Robbery, and Murder, were committed, a Wallet at his Back; and was seen, on the 18th of January last, at the Dolphin Alehouse, in Whitechappel, where he lately lodged, but he left that Place abruptly, and has not since been heard of.

Admiralty Office, Dec. 23, 1751.

Notice is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Goal Delivery for the Trial of Offences committed on the High Seas within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held on Tuesday the 18th Day of February next, at Justice Hall in the Old Baily, London, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning.

J. Cleveland.

Navy-Office, January 17, 1752.

The Right Hon the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed Money for paying Half Pay to Sea Officers, from the 31st of December 1750, to the 30th of June 1751, according to his Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf;

These are to give Notice, that the said Payment will begin to be made at the Treasurer of the Navy's Office in Broad Street, on Tuesday the 11th of next Month, at Eight o'Clock in the Morning, and continued the Wednesday and Thursday following, beginning at the same Hour; That all Persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the Affidavit required touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid the said Half Pay, but also produce Certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to his present Majesty. And in Case any of the said Sea Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpose, that the said Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.
