Leghorn, Feb. 18. Orders are come from Vienna for equipping two of the Emperor's Men of War, in order to protect the Commerce of his Imperial Majesty's Subjects against the Corsairs of Barbary, who have lately found out many Pretences of evading the Treaty subsisting between those States and the Regency of Tuscany. We learn by private Letters from Modena and Parma, that those two Courts are actually concerting Measures for promoting Commerce between the Subjects of their respective Countries.

Stockholm, Feb. 24. The King has ordered all the Regiments that came here during the holding of the General Diet of the States of this Kingdom, to hold themselves in Readiness to return on the first Notice to their respective Quarters, so that 'tis expected the States will separate soon after they have agreed to the raising the necessary Sums for defraying the Expences of his late Majesty's Funeral, and their present Majesties Coronation. The Directors of our East India Company have come to a Resolution not to admit for the future any Foreigners to subscribe to that Company; and they have forbid the Officers of their two Ships taking on board any Foreign Merchants, lest they should any ways prejudice the Company's Trade hereafter.

Prague, Feb. 26. Field Marshal Count Brown, to whom her Imperial Majesty has given the Command of the Troops in this Kingdom, is daily expected here from Vienna. Yesterday two Jews of this City, who have for some Time past expressed an ardent Desire to become Christians, were baptized in the Church of St. Thomas, in the Presence of a vast Number of People, who came there on Purpose to see the Ceremony.

Vienna, Feb. 26. This being the Anniversary of the Birth of the Archduchess Maria Amelia, who then entered into the 7th Year of her Age, there was a numerous and splendid Appearance at Court of the Nobility and Gentry to compliment their Imperial Majesties on that Occasion. The Affair of the Investitures, which has lain dormant for some Time, begins to be talked of again, and 'tis said that the Ministers who reside here on Behalf of the Courts of Holstein Gluckstadt and Deux Ponts, have already received the necessary Instructions to proceed to that solemn Act.

Cologn, March 4. The States of this Arch-

on the 13th of last Month. On Tuesday last was apprehended, at an Inn a little Distance from hence, the Chief of that numerous Gang of Robbers who have lately committed so many Disorders in the flat Countries; he is committed to one of the Prisons in this City, and 'tis expected will make very great Discoveries. We learn from Frankfort, that the Margrave of Baden Dourlach was gone for some Days to the Court of Wirtemberg; and by our last Letters from Munich we are informed, that Prince Frederick of Deux Ponts set out the 21st of last Month for Neubourg, in order to receive the Elector Palatine and his Princess, who are coming there to spend some Weeks.

Amsterdam, March 8. We have received Advice by several private Letters from Cadiz, that a Register Ship, named the Superbe, run a Ground the Beginning of last Month a little Distance from that Port, and that 125 Persons lost their Lives by that Accident. She came from Vera Cruz, and was very richly laden, having on board 140000 Piastras in Gold and Silver, besides a very valuable Cargo of Merchandize, of which very little was saved.

Hague, March 9. Yesterday being the Anniversary of the Birth of the young Prince Stadtholder, there was a very great Appearance of the Members of the Regency, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of the first Distinction, at the House in the Wood, to compliment her Royal Highness the Princess Governante, and the young Prince, on that Occasion.
