

Vienna, March 18. On Monday last there was a grand Appearance at Court to compliment their Majesties on the Anniversary of the Birth of the Archduke Joseph, their Imperial Majesties eldest Son; but the Promotion of General Officers, which was expected to be declared that Day, did not take Place. All Things are now settled for taking the Investiture on the Part of the Duke of Holstein Gluckstadt: The Aulick Council has already made its Report to the Emperor in Relation thereto, and his Imperial Majesty will shortly appoint a Day for performing the Ceremony. Count Seilern, a Member of the Aulick Council, is appointed Minister Plenipotentiary from this Court to that of Turin. The Emperor has created M. Schaut, Privy Councillor to the Margrave of Brandenburg Anspach, a Baron of the Holy Roman Empire. The first Battalion of the Regiment of Puebla arrived here on Wednesday last from Bohemia; and, having passed in Review before Count Leopold de Daun, Commandant of this City, embarked the next Morning, and sailed away for Offen, from whence they are to continue their March by Land for Transilvania.

Berlin, March 20. The King has conferred on M. Weyher, the Post of Grand Bailiff and President of the Regency of Lawembourg; and his Majesty has appointed M. Machenau, Councillor of the Chamber of Justice at Halberstadt, to be Councillor of the Tribunal of Konigsberg.

Dresden, March 21. Field Marshal Count Sulkowsky is raised to the Dignity of a Prince of the Empire. The Departure of Count Flemming for Vienna will take Place as soon as his Lady, who was brought to Bed a few Days ago of a Son, is able to bear the Fatigue of the Journey. By our last Advices from Warsaw we are informed, that Count Potocky, Palatine of Braclaw, was married on the 4th Instant to the young Countess of Saphia.

Munich, March 23. The Departure of the Elector of Cologne for his own Court, is fixed for the 12th or 15th of next Month. That Prince, and the Elector our Sovereign, went on Monday last to Neubourg, on a Visit to the Elector Palatine, and returned here last Night.

Cologne, March 27. Two considerable Bodies of Recruits have marched from hence within these few Days past, the first to compleat the Regiments in Garrison at Luxembourg, and the other to be incorporated in that of Prince Charles of Lorraine, which is quartered at Brussels. A Gang of Fellows, who for some Time past have made it their Business to coin and put off false Money, were apprehended a few Days ago at Ravensberg, a Town belonging to the King of Prussia in Westphalia; they have since been conducted Prisoners to Wesel, in order to be tried for the same. We learn from Bielefeld, that a Peasant named Didier Bentrup, died lately in that Neighbourhood, aged 113 Years; and that in the Village of Dornberg, about a League from that Place, there is a Man now living, aged 115 Years, who enjoys a perfect State of Health. They write from Ratisbon, that Baron Walbrun, Minister from the Duke of Wirtembourg to the Diet of the Empire, died there on the 17th Instant.

Brussels, March 27. At an Assembly held last Week at the Town House, the Magistrates consented to continue the same Duties upon Provisions as were raised last Year, agreeable to the Request of the Court. Her Imperial Majesty has appointed M. Gentis, Bishop of Antwerp, and the Marquis de Spontin, to be Members of her Council of State in this Country. Prince Charles of Lorraine has taken the Diversion of Hunting in the Forest of Soignies twice this Week, in both which Parties of Pleasure he was accompanied by several of the Principal Nobility of this Place.

Hague, March 30. M. Citters, Pensionary of Middlebourg, who is appointed by their High Mightinesses to be one of their Commissaries to the Congress at Brussels, arrived here a few Days ago. The Members of the Council of State went in a Body on Thursday last to the Assembly of the States General, and laid before them the State of War for the Year ensuing. The Deputies from the Province of Friseland, who arrived here a few Days ago, in order to execute a private Commission, have already had a Conference with the Deputies of their High Mightinesses, and with those of the Council of State. The Duke of Brunswick Wolfembuttel has been greatly indisposed for some Days past, but is now much better.

Navy-Office, March 11, 1752.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy give Notice, that on Wednesday the 8th of next Month, at Eleven o'Clock in the Morning precisely, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as are willing to serve his Majesty with English Canvas, that they may attend with their Proposals at that Time.
