AT the Court at St. James's, the 30th Day of March, 1752.

P R E S E N T,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty in Council this Day declaring his Intention of going out of the Kingdom for a short Time, was pleased to nominate the following Persons to be Lords Justices for the Administration of the Government during his Majesty's Absence, viz.

Thomas Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

Philip Lord Hardwicke, Lord Chancellor.

John Earl Granville, Lord President.

John Earl Gower, Lord Privy Seal.

Charles Duke of Marlborough, Lord Steward.

Charles Duke of Grafton, Lord Chamberlain.

Archibald Duke of Argyll.

Thomas Holles Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Lionel Duke of Dorset, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

William Lord Cavendish of Hardwick, commonly called Marquis of Hartington, Master of the Horse.

Robert Earl of Holderness, another of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

William Anne Earl of Albemarle, Groom of the Stole.

George Lord Anson, First Commissioner of the Admiralty. And

Henry Pelham, Esq; First Commissioner of the Treasury,

St. James's, March 31.

His Majesty set out from hence this Morning about Five o'Clock for Harwich, to embark on board the Royal Caroline for Holland.

[Price Two Pence.]

Leghorn, March 12. The last Advices received here from the Coast of Barbary say, that the Dutch Consul, residing at Tetuan, has agreed for the Ransom of the Captain and Crew of a Dutch Frigate, named the House in the Wood, who have, for these two Months past, been confined in the Prisons of Tetuan, and that, agreeable thereto, their Chains had been taken off.

Genoa, March 13. The Doge of this Republick, M. Viale, having filled that Post for two Years, in Conformity to the Laws of this Country, quitted the Ducal Palace Yesterday, and retired to his own House; but his Successor is not yet named.

Naples, March 14. The Squadron that is equipping in this Port, consisting of one Man of War of 50 Guns, four Gallies, and four Chebecks, will put to Sea on Thursday next, in order to cruize on the Barbary Pyrates, who appear in great Numbers in the Sea of Sicily. We have received Advice from Barletta, that some Thieves having broke into the House of the King's Treasurer in the Night, had murdered him and all his Domesticks, and had afterwards carried off all the Money and valuable Effects they found in the House. The Court has given Leave for the purchasing in this Kingdom another large Quantity of Corn, and for transporting the same to Parma and Placentia, where there is still a great Scarcity of it. His Majesty having ordered the new Prussian Exercise to be introduced amongst his Troops, several of the Regiments have already began to learn the same. A few Days ago a Ship from Trieste, carrying the Imperial Flag, was stopt in one of the Ports of Sicily, on Account of the Captain's being a Sicilian, the Laws of that Country not permitting any of its Subjects to serve under any Foreign Power whatsoever; which Prince Esterhazy, the Imperial Minister, having
