and Affection of your Majesty's Subjects of these Kingdoms, and full of Gratitude for the Protection and Support we have at all Times received from the Crown of Great Britain, on the Continuance of which our very Being depends, we shall on all Occasions exert our utmost Endeavours to cultivate the same good Understanding, and merit the like Support and Protection.

We further beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that any Attempts to create Jealousies between your Subjects of Great Britain and Ireland, or to disunite their Affections, can only proceed from the selfish and ambitious Views of designing Men, who have an Interest separate and distinct from that of your Majesty and of your faithful Subjects of this Kingdom, ever ready and determined to maintain and support, to the utmost of their Power, the Honour and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown and Government, and the united Interests of both your Kingdoms, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes,

Edw. Sterling, } Cler. Com. Dom.
Henry Alcock, }

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer,

Will forthwith transmit this dutiful and loyal Address to be laid before His Majesty.

To his Grace Lionel Duke of Dorset, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled,

May it please your Grace,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, think it our Duty, before an End is put to this Session, to express, in the strongest Terms, our sincere and grateful Sense of the Obligations we are under to your Grace, for your most prudent and just Administration,

The long uninterrupted Course of Favour which your Grace has enjoyed, under the best of Kings, with unblemished Honour and Reputation, preserved through the Exercise of the several Offices of the highest Trust and Importance, which your Grace has so worthily and so eminently filled, will transmit your Name to Posterity in the most amiable Light, and will remain a standing Proof, that those Virtues, which dignify a private Life, are the surest Guards in the Difficulties of Publick Business, and the truest Ornaments of the most exalted Stations,

Your Grace's exact and extensive Knowledge of the State of this Kingdom, and your Inclination to promote its true Interest, manifested in your former Government, made your Return to us the most acceptable Pledge of His Majesty's continued Favour to a dutiful and loyal People; and our most promising Expectations have been fully answered by your Grace's constant Care and Attention to every Thing that could conduce to the Prosperity of this Kingdom, and by your Supporting the Dignity and due Authority of the Crown in such a

Manner

Manner, as to them, at the same Time, the strictest Regard to the Liberties of the People.

We should be wanting in Gratitude and a just Confidence in your Grace, if we could doubt of your representing our Duty and Affection to His Majesty in the truest and most favourable Light: And we should be wanting to ourselves, and to our Country, did we not earnestly wish, that your Grace may long continue to preside over us. We beg Leave to assure your Grace, that we shall be always ready to contribute every Thing in our Power to your Ease and Honour, and to the Support of your Government, being firmly persuaded, that your Grace's many personal Virtues, and the real Benefits of your Administration will be so sensibly felt, and make so deep and so lasting an Impression, that your Grace cannot fail to be possessed of the universal Affections and Esteem of all His Majesty's faithful Subjects in this Kingdom.

Hen. Baken Sterne, Cler' Parliamentor.

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

My Lords,

I Return your Lordships my sincere Thanks for this very obliging and affectionate Address. The Approbation, which you express of my Conduct, gives me the highest Satisfaction. I shall endeavour to preserve your good Opinion and Esteem, by making the true Interest of this Country the chief Object of my Administration. I shall with Pleasure represent to His Majesty, that your Duty and Loyalty deserve the Continuance of His Majesty's Favour and Protection.

To his Grace Lionel Duke of Dorset, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeses in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Grace,

WE his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to return your Grace the Thanks of this House for your wise and prudent Administration, and for your constant Care for the Welfare and Prosperity of this Kingdom.

The Cheerfulness and Unanimity with which the Supplies demanded from the Throne have been granted this Session of Parliament, not only demonstrate the Duty and Loyalty of the House of Commons to his Majesty, and their firm Attachment to his Government and the true Interest of their Country, but clearly shew their Respect to your Grace's Person, and their Inclination to make your Administration easy and honourable.

Your Grace is from long Experience so well acquainted with the truly loyal Sentiments of his Majesty's faithful Commons, that when we consider your Grace's Candour, and the high Trust vested in you, we cannot entertain the least Doubt but that your Grace will, upon your Return into the Royal Presence, represent his Majesty's Protestant Subjects of this Kingdom as inviolably and unalterably attached to his Sacred Person, and the Interests of his most illustrious House, and that your Grace will assure his Majesty, as we are fully sensible of the Happiness we enjoy under his most auspicious Reign, that we shall upon all Occasions endeavour to deserve the Continuance of his Royal Favour and Protection.

*Edw. Sterling, } Cler. Dom. Com.
Henry Acock, }*

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

I Thank the House of Commons for this Mark of their Esteem for me. My Endeavours shall never be wanting to promote the Prosperity of the Kingdom: And you may depend upon my representing to his Majesty your Duty and Loyalty in the truest Light.

And to one private Bill,

And then his Grace was pleased to make a Speech to both Houses of Parliament, which is as follows.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE extraordinary Length of your Attendance, and the advanced Season of the Year, will, I am persuaded, make it as agreeable to you, as it must be advantageous to your several Countries, that a Conclusion should be now put to this Session of Parliament.

The effectual Execution of the many useful Laws to which the Royal Assent hath been given, will greatly depend upon your Authority and Example: And I particularly recommend to you, to exert your utmost Influence, to enforce Obedience to the Act now pass'd, which provides against that Disgrace to Government, tumultuary and violent Obstruction to the free Administration of publick Justice.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I return you Thanks in the King's Name for the Supplies, which you have granted with your usual Cheerfulness and Unanimity. The Declarations, in your late Address to his Majesty, of your unfeigned Attachment to his Royal Person and Government, of your Gratitude for the Protection and Support received at all Times from the Crown of Great Britain, and of your Resolution to cultivate a good Understanding and Harmony between the two Kingdoms, cannot but be extremely acceptable to his Majesty, who will justly resent, as the Father of all his People, any Attempts to propagate Jealousies, or to disunite the Affections of his common Subjects.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The many obliging Expressions, in your Addresses to me demand my repeated Thanks. Be assured, I will not fail to represent to his Majesty in the truest Light, the Loyalty and Duty of his People of Ireland. I have long endeavour'd upon all Occasions, to contribute to their Prosperity; and shall make it my constant Study to discharge the high Trust which his Majesty hath graciously reposed in me, by steadily pursuing those Measures, that may most effectually maintain the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, and promote the inseparable Interest of his Majesty and his faithful Subjects of this Kingdom.
