By the Lords Justices,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N,

Tho. Cantuar., Hartington,
Hardwicke, C., Holderness,
Granville, P., Anson,
Argyll,

WHEREAS John Earl of Dunmore was duly elected and returned to be one of the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, to sit in the House of Peers of the present Parliament of Great Britain, and is since deceased; in order to the Electing another Peer of Scotland to sit in his Room, We do, by the Advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, issue forth this Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holy Rood House in Edinburgh, on Thursday the Ninth Day of July next, between the Hours of Twelve and Two in the Afternoon, to nominate and choose another Peer of Scotland, to sit and vote in the House of Peers of this present Parliament of Great Britain, in the room of the said John Earl of Dunmore deceased, by open Election and Plurality of Voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the Proxies of such as shall be absent, (such Proxies being Peers) and producing a Mandate in Writing duly signed before Witnesses, and both Constituent and Proxy being qualified according to Law, And the Lord Clerk Register, or such Two of the principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his Name, are hereby respectively required to attend such Meeting, and to administer the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their Votes, and immediately after such Election made, and duly examined, to certify the Name of the Peer so elected, and sign and attest the same in the Presence of the said Peers, and return such Certificate into His Majesty's High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And we strictly charge and command, that this Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns in Scotland, Twenty five Days at least before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such Election.

Given at Whitehall the Seventh Day of May, 1752, in the Twenty fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign.

G O D save the KING,

Dublin, May 7.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses, in Parliament assembled,

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government,

Truly sensible of the many Blessings that arise from the good Harmony, mutual Confidence and Affection of your Majesty's Subjects of these Kingdoms, and full of Gratitude for the Protection and Support we have at all Times received from the Crown of Great Britain, on the Continuance of which our very Being depends, we shall on all Occasions exert our utmost Endeavours to cultivate the same good Understanding, and merit the like Support and Protection.

We further beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that any Attempts to create Jealousies between your Subjects of Great Britain and Ireland, or to disunite their Affections, can only proceed from the selfish and ambitious Views of designing Men, who have an Interest separate and distinct from that of your Majesty and of your faithful Subjects of this Kingdom, ever ready and determined to maintain and support, to the utmost of their Power, the Honour and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown and Government, and the united Interests of both your Kingdoms, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes,

Edw. Sterling, } Cler. Com. Dom,
Henry Alcock, }

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer,

Will forthwith transmit this dutiful and loyal Address to be laid before His Majesty.

To his Grace Lionel Duke of Dorset, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled,

May it please your Grace,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, think it our Duty, before an End is put to this Session, to express, in the strongest Terms, our sincere and grateful Sense of the Obligations we are under to your Grace, for your most prudent and just Administration,

The long uninterrupted Course of Favour which your Grace has enjoyed, under the best of Kings, with unblemished Honour and Reputation, preserved through the Exercise of the several Offices of the highest Trust and Importance, which your Grace has so worthily and so eminently filled, will transmit your Name to Posterity in the most amiable Light, and will remain a standing Proof, that those Virtues, which dignify a private Life, are the surest Guards in the Difficulties of Publick Business, and the truest Ornaments of the most exalted Stations,

Your Grace's exact and extensive Knowledge of the State of this Kingdom, and your Inclination to promote its true Interest, manifested in your former Government, made your Return to us the most acceptable Pledge of His Majesty's continued Favour to a dutiful and loyal People; and our most promising Expectations have been fully answered by your Grace's constant Care and Attention to every Thing that could conduce to the Prosperity of this Kingdom, and by your Supporting the Dignity and due Authority of the Crown in such a

Manner
