AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 28th Day of May, 1752.

P R E S E N T,

Their Excellencies the Lords Justices in Council.

THEIR Excellencies the Lords Justices in Council were this Day pleased to Order, That the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Thursday the Fourth of June next, should be further prorogued to Thursday the Sixteenth Day of July following.

WHEREAS upon Information given to his Majesty in September last, that the Plague did at that Time rage with the greatest Violence in Constantinople, and in the Parts adjacent:— His Majesty was pleased, out of his tender Regard for the Preservation of his People, and for the better preventing the Contagion from being brought into this Kingdom, or into the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark or Man, to issue his Order in Council upon the 4th Day of the said Month of September, requiring and commanding all Ships and Vessels at that Time arrived and not unladen, or that should thereafter arrive in any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark or Man, from the Levant, to perform a Quarantine of Forty Days, and to observe such Rules and Directions as were particularly specified in the said Order: And for avoiding all Doubts concerning the Extent of the Levant, his Majesty was further pleased, by a subsequent Order in Council dated the 11th of October last, to declare and order, that the Limits of the Levant should be understood in this Case, to extend Eastward from the Isle of Corfu on the Borders of Greece in the Ionian Sea, and from Cape Rufata on the Coast of Barca in Africa. — In pursuance of which Orders, all Ships and Vessels, Goods and Persons, coming from any Ports or Places within the said Limits, have hitherto not only performed a full Quarantine of Forty Days, but the Goods have likewise been opened, unpacked, and aired, before the Ship hath been permitted to unload: And whereas the Levant Company have presented a Petition to their Excellencies the Lords Justices at this Board, setting forth, (amongst other Things) that the Plague hath ceased at Constantinople, and that there hath not been in any of the other Parts of Turkey, any Pestilential Distemper for a great Length of Time past, and that they had been credibly informed, that a Dutch Ship having a clean Bill of Health from Smyrna, was lately permitted to come up to the City of Amsterdam, and to unload directly, without the Performance of any Quarantine; they therefore prayed, That all Ships from Turkey belonging to his Majesty's Subjects, and accompanied with clean Bills of Health, might be permitted for the Future, to come to the Place of Discharge, and there unload as usual, without any Interruption on Account of Quarantine: And whereas there was this Day laid before their Excellencies, the Advices which have lately been received from his Majesty's Minister at the Ottoman Porte, whereby it appears, that the Cities of Constantinople and Smyrna have been for several Months past, and are at this Time free from all Manner of Contagion; — And likewise a Letter from his Majesty's Minister in Holland, representing that the States General have received the like Advices from their Minister in Turkey, and that they had thereupon come to the following Resolutions on the 1st of this Instant May, viz.

“ To allow for the present, and until further Orders, to all Ships coming from Smyrna with clean Bills of Health, a free Navigation to the Places of their Destination, without observing the Quarantine or other Precautions, after they shall have been previously and diligently visited and found in perfect Health—But with respect to Ships and Vessels that might arrive from other Places specified in their Placard of the 23d of November last, That they should be held to a Quarantine of Twenty Days only, in Case they shall bring clean Bills of Health, and shall be found free from any Suspicion of Contagion; but such Ships are to observe all the other Rules and Directions required to be complied with by Ships coming from Smyrna, except only the Vessel named Ruggenhof, Captain John Westerdyck, of which Mention is made at large in their High Mightinesses Resolution of the 16th of December last; with respect to which, it is ordered, That whatever Place she shall come into, though

“ though furnished with clean Bills of Health,
“ she shall not be admitted without perform-
“ ing a full and exact Quarantine of Forty “ Days, and observing the other necessary Pre-
“ cautions mentioned in the aforementioned
“ Placard of the 23d of November last, unless
“ the Master of the said Vessel is able to give “ sufficient Proof that he has discharged his “ Cargo at Smyrna, or some other Place free
“ from Infection, and that his Cargo had been
“ there duly aired; and it is likewise further “ directed, that nothing beforementioned should “ be applied to Ships or Vessels that shall bring “ unclean Patents or foul Bills of Health, or
“ other bad or insufficient Certificates of Health,
“ but that such Ships be treated in the Man-
“ ner directed by the aforementioned Placard”.

—Their Excellencies the Lords Justices having taken into Consideration the aforesaid Petition of the Levant Company, Letters of Advice, and Resolution of the States General, and being desirous to remove all Obstructions upon Trade, so far as may be consistent with the Health and Safety of his Majesty's Subjects, have therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice of his Majesty's Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, That all Ships and Vessels now arrived, which came directly from Smyrna, or that shall hereafter come directly from thence, into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark or Man, be permitted to discharge their respective Ladings without opening, unpacking, and airing, and without performing any Quarantine, under the following Conditions, viz: That they shall bring with them clean Bills of Health attested by the Consul there, or other proper Officer—And that the Master or other Person taking Charge of such Ship or Vessel, shall first make Oath before the Custom House Officer or chief Magistrate on their Arrival at the Place where they are bound to, that they did not touch at any infected Place, nor had Communication with any infected Ship during the Voyage, and are free from all Infection—And their Excellencies are hereby further pleased to order, that with regard to Ships and Vessels coming from any other Ports in the Levant, they do make their Quarantine for Twenty Days only—But that they do observe in all other Respects, the Rules and Regulations required by his Majesty's Order in Council of the 4th of September last, particularly with Regard to the opening, unpacking, and airing their Goods; but this is not to be understood to extend to any Ships or Vessels that shall bring unclean Patents or foul Bills of Health, all such Ships being to perform a full Quarantine of Forty Days, and to observe all the Rules contained in the aforementioned Order of Council; and as to the Ship named the Ruggenhof, John Westerdyck, Master, mentioned in the afore-recited Resolution of the States General, that she be not permitted to come into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark or Man.—And the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Lieutenant General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretaries at War, and Governors and Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the said respective Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Man are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Sharpe.

AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 28th of May 1752.

Their Excellencies the Lords Justices in Council.

WHEREAS it hath been represented to their Excellencies the Lords Justices at this Board, That Colin Campbell of Glenure, who had been appointed by the Court of Exchequer in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, to be the Factor or Steward upon the Estate of Charles Steuart of Ardsbiell, lately attainted of High Treason, but fled from Justice beyond the Seas, having received Directions from the said Court, to remove all the Tenants belonging to the said Charles Steuart, (some of them his near Relations, and all of whom had been in the late Rebellion) from the Possessions they had obtained of him before the Attainder—The said Colin Campbell did, upon Thursday the 14th of this Instant May, proceed to execute the Decrees of the said Court, taking with him a Messenger, (being the proper Officer for that Service) as also a Nephew of his own, and his Servant; and in the Way as they passed through a Wood on the Farm of Lattermore, in Duror in Argyllshire, Part of the said forfeited Estate from which the Tenants were to be removed, the said Colin Campbell was, from behind a Bush, shot dead on the Spot.—And whereas it is highly necessary that the Person or Persons who committed or were concerned in the said cruel and detestable Murder, in Violation of the Peace, and Defiance of the Laws of this Realm, should be brought to speedy and exemplary Punishment—It is hereby ordered by their Excellencies the Lords Justices, with the Advice of his Majesty's Privy Council, that all Magistrates and other Civil Officers whatsoever, and all other his Majesty's Subjects, do make strict and diligent Search and Enquiry after the Person or Persons concerned in the said Murder, and the Authors, Actors and Abettors thereof; and that they do apprehend and seize, or cause to be apprehended and seized, the said Offenders, that they may be punish'd with the utmost Rigour of the Law.—And for the Encouragement of all Persons to be diligent and industrious in their Endeavours to make such Discovery, and for the better and more effectual bringing the Offenders to Justice, it is hereby further ordered, That if any Person or Persons concerned therein, except the Person who actually shot the said Colin Campbell, shall discover any other Person or Persons concerned in the the said Fact, so as the Person or Persons thus discovered may be apprehended and convicted thereof, such Discoverer or Discoverers shall receive his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.—And it is hereby likewise further ordered, That any Person or Persons, who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any of the Persons concerned in the said heinous Offence, so as he or they be convicted thereof, shall have and receive for every such Person so convicted, the Sum of One Hundred Pounds, to be paid by the Receiver-General for Scotland, according to Directions to be given for that Purpose by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, who are hereby directed to give such Orders accordingly.—And all his Majesty's loving Subjects are hereby required to use their utmost Endeavours, in their several Stations and Places, to find out, discover, and apprehend, the Offenders as aforesaid, upon Pain of his Majesty's highest Displeasure.

W. Sharpe.

His Majesty having been pleased, by his Letters Patent, bearing Date the 21st of April last, to appoint Gilbert West, Esq; one of the Clerks of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council in Ordinary, he this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, before their Excellencies the Lords Justices in Council, Whitehall, May 30.

On the 14th Instant the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland met at Edinburgh, and chose for their Moderator Mr. Patrick Cuming. His Majesty's Commission to the Right Honourable the Earl of Leven was read, as was likewise his Majesty's most gracious Letter to the Assembly. His Majesty's High Commissioner made a Speech to the Assembly, which was answered on their Part by the Moderator, and a Committee was appointed to draw up a dutiful Answer to his Majesty's most gracious Letter, which has been transmitted by the High Commissioner to the Right Honourable the Earl of Holderness, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in order to be forwarded to his Majesty,

The Earl of Leven's Speech to the General Assembly, the 14th of May 1752.

BEING again honoured with His Majesty's Commission to represent His Royal Person in this Assembly, it is with Pleasure I continue to assure you of your Sovereign's sincere Concern for the Honour and Prosperity of this Church.

In Opening a Meeting of this Kind, it must certainly give to every Wellwisher of our Constitution, the highest Satisfaction to see us again assembled under the Protection of the best of Sovereigns, of whose Regard for the Prosperity of all His Subjects, and in particular for this Part of the United Kingdoms, we are constantly receiving the most remarkable and illustrious Proofs: And here I cannot omit mentioning the late Act of the Legislature, annexing certain forfeited Estates to the Crown, and appointing their whole annual Produce to be applied for instructing the Ignorant, reclaiming the Disaffected, promoting Industry, and happily diffusing Heaven's favourite Blessings, Religion, Liberty, and Virtue, where Vice and Idleness, Slavery and Dependence, have hitherto had their chief Seat.—Such a signal Instance of Princely Wisdom and Goodness, in Concurrence with the Great Councils of the Nation, where the Forfeiture of a Few are made subservient to the Good of the Whole, and the very Weapons of Rebellion are become the Spring of true and lasting Felicity even to Rebels themselves, must perpetuate our Sovereign's great Name with distinguished Honour to latest Ages.

I am persuaded, that you Right Reverend and Right Honourable, who have always been Patterns of Loyalty, will now meet together with such Sentiments of the Blessings we enjoy under His Majesty's auspicious Government, as will dispose you to all Expressions of Gratitude, and will excite you to set that Example to others, which the Weight of your Characters justly may influence them to follow.

Such frequent Experience I have had of the Candour, Equity and Moderation of the General Assembly of this Church, that I make no Question of your conducting all your Proceedings in such a Manner as will be most agreeable to me, by enabling me to represent your Behaviour in the most favourable Light to my Royal Master,

I know it is unnecessary for me to admonish Gentlemen of so much Learning, Wisdom, and Experience, that Peace, Unanimity and Truth, are the great Objects at which you ought to aim: One Thing, however, which as a Wellwisher to the Government and good Order of this Church I cannot pass over in Silence, allow me therefore to hope, that as it is our Happiness to have regular Meetings of our National Assembly countenanced by our gracious Sovereign, you will be careful to support her Dignity and Authority, and not destroy with your own Hands our most valuable Constitution secured by Law, so dear to your Forefathers, so excellent in itself, and which your Enemies have so often in vain attempted to wrest from you.—The main Intention of your Meeting is frustrated, if your Judgments and Decisions are not held to be final; if inferior Courts continue to assume that Liberty they have taken upon themselves in too many Instances, of disputing and disobeying the Decisions of their Superiors; it is now more than high Time to think of putting a Stop to this growing Evil, otherwise such Anarchy and Confusion will be introduced into the Church, as will inevitably not only break us in Pieces amongst ourselves, but make us likewise the Scorn and Derision of our Enemies; for believe me, Subordination is the Link of Society, without which there can be no Order in Government.—When I have said so much, I must likewise be indulged to add, that as I ever was, and ever will be against Severities of every Kind,

I hope you will take the gentlest Methods possible to convince your mistaken Brethren of their past Error, and at the same Time, such as may effectually restrain others from following their unjustifiable Conduct: Nothing short of my Duty to my Sovereign, and my sincere Regard for the Honour of my Mother Church, could have prevailed on me to say so much as I have done. I shall conclude with assuring you, that as we are happy in an excellent Constitution of Government both Ecclesiastical and Civil, and happy, blessed be God, in a Sovereign, who is the gracious Protector and Guardian of both, it must be our own Faults if we lose the Advantages of such a Situation as our Ancestors might justly have envied.

His Majesty has been graciously pleased to renew his usual liberal Grant of 1000 l. for employing Itinerant Preachers and Catechists in the Highlands and Islands, and expects effectual Care will be taken, that none be employed but who are well affected, and sufficiently qualified for the Discharge of their Trust.

What Assistance can arise to you, Gentlemen, from the Character I have the Honour to sustain, in carrying on what Business may come before you to the best Advantage, you have an undoubted Title to expect, and shall not be wanting, to the utmost of my Power, as the Honour of the Church of Scotland ever was, and ever will be dear to me.

The General Assembly's Answer to His Majesty's most gracious Letter.

May it please your Majesty,

YOUR Majesty's most gracious Letter to this Assembly was received with that Respect and Gratitude, which become loyal Subjects deeply affected with a Sense of the Happiness we enjoy, in living under the best of Sovereigns.

As it gives us the greatest Joy, so we esteem it our highest Honour, that your Majesty has so often condescended to take Notice of our Zeal for Religion and the Protestant Succession, and of our Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government; It is universally known, that these are, and always have been, the Sentiments of the Ministers and Elders of this Church; and we can, with great Pleasure, assure your Majesty, that the Generality of the People are animated with the same loyal Principles.

Your Majesty's countenancing our present Meeting with your Approbation and Royal Authority, is one of the many Proofs you have given of your Regard for the Welfare and Prosperity of this National Church.

The Advancement of the Interests of Religion and Piety, is the great End we shall always have in View; and your Majesty's Royal Promise to protect the Church of Scotland in all her Rights and Privileges, as by Law established, gives us the best Ground to hope, that, by the Blessing of God upon our Endeavours, we shall be happy Instruments of accomplishing an End so important and valuable.

The Renewal of your Royal Bounty for promoting Religion and Loyalty, is a fresh Testimony of your Majesty's paternal Care and Goodness, and calls for the warmest Returns of Gratitude from us; and your Majesty may be assured; that we will faithfully employ it towards the pious and charitable Purposes for which it is bestowed.

Your Majesty's repeated Choice of the Earl of Leven to represent your Royal Person in the Assembly; his known Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government;—his zealous Attachment to the Church of Scotland, and the long Experience we have had of his Fidelity in the Discharge of so important and honourable a Trust, entitle him to our just Respect, and render him very agreeable to us.

It is our great and distinguished Happiness, that while, by inculcating Religion and Piety, we discharge our Duty to God, we at the same Time gratify your Majesty, and recommend ourselves to your Royal Protection.

As we have the most grateful Sense of your Majesty's Goodness, in expressing such Confidence in us; so we are firmly determined, that nothing shall be omitted on our Part, which may contribute to the Advancement of that Righteousness, which is the only Stability of Government, and which alone exalteth a Nation.

That God may long preserve your Majesty to be the Father of your People, the Support of the Protestant Interest, the Guardian of the Liberties of Europe—That His watchful Providence may protect you while Abroad: That He may prosper your Councils, and return you in Safety to your British Dominions: That He may bless their Royal Highnesses the Prince of Wales, the Princess Dowager of Wales, the Duke, the Princesses, and all your Royal Family; and that after a long and happy Reign on Earth, your Majesty may at last inherit the Kingdom which cannot be moved, are and shall be the sincere and hearty Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most dutiful and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders, met in this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by (Signed) Patrick Cuming, Moderator.

Edinburgh, May 16, 1752.

Hague, June 5, N. S.

THE King of Great Britain, Sovereign of the most Noble Order of the Garter, having been pleased to commission the Honourable Joseph Yorke, Esq; his Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the High and Mighty Lords the States General of the United Provinces, and John Anstis, Esq; Garter Principal King of Arms, for Investing his most Serene Highness William the Fifth, Prince of Orange and of Nassau, Hereditary Stadtholder, Captain General, and Admiral General of the United Provinces, with the whole Habit and Ensigns of the most Noble Order of the Garter, Mr.

Anstis

Anſtis arrived here from England the 5th of laſt Month.

The Commiſſioners having Yeſterday delivered to his Highneſs their Credential Letters and the Book of Statutes at the Houſe in the Wood, where the Ceremony was performed, and received an Inſtrument under the Hand and Seal of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante, wherein ſhe promiſes that ſhe will endeavour that the Prince her Son, when he comes to a more mature Age, ſhall obſerve every Article of them not contrary to the Religion to be profeſſed by him, or be derogatory to the Rights and Privileges of the Holy Roman Empire, or the Rights and Privileges of the Republick of the United Provinces, whereof he is Hereditary Stadtholder, or to the Oaths that he ſhall, in Conſequence thereof, hereafter take.

Which Reſervations being allowed, the Ceremony of the Inveſtiture was appointed to be performed this Day in the Salon d'Orange. The upper Part of the Room was upon this Occaſion raiſed two Steps, and railed in and covered with Turkey Carpets.

In the Middle was a Stall with a Canopy, and the Sovereign's Arms affixed above the Chair; on the left Side another for the Prince, with his Highneſs's Arms placed in like Manner. On the oppoſite Side was a Place allotted for the Deputations of their High and Noble Mightineſſes, under a Canopy, and Chairs placed for them. A Chair was likewiſe placed near the Rails for the Princeſs Caroline.

The Plenipotentiaries arrived at Court about Noon, and were received at the Coach Door by the Great Officers, Gentlemen, and Aids de Camp of her Royal Highneſs, the Guards beating a March. Upon the Top of the Stairs, which were lined with Halbertiers of his Highneſs's Guard, they were received by his Serene Highneſs, and conducted by him into an Apartment, where the Enſigns of the Order were placed upon a Table.

The Deputies of their High and Noble Mightineſſes were received in the ſame Manner, and were immediately ſeated under the Canopy in the Place erected for them.

The Proceſſion was ordered in the following Manner.

Their Royal and Serene Highneſſes Gentlemen and Aids de Camp, Two and Two.

The Prince's Chamberlains.

Major General Bigot, Chamberlain to her Royal Highneſs.

Thomas Thornbery, Eſq; Windſor Herald, carrying the Cap and Feather richly adorned with Pearls and Diamonds.

Garter King of Arms, carrying upon a Crimson Velvet Cushion, fringed with Gold, the Commiſſion, Garter, Ribon and George, Surcoat, Sword, Mantle and Taſſells, Hood, Collar, and Book of Statutes.

Mr. Yorke proceeded ſingly.

His Serene Highneſs the Prince having on his right Hand Baron Burmania, General of Foot in the Service of their High Mightineſſes, and Great Maſter of his Highneſs's Houſhold; and on his Left Baron of Groveſteins, Maſter of the Horſe to his Highneſs, and Lieutenant General, followed by the Officers in Waiting of his Highneſs's Horſe-Guards and Halbertiers.

Immediately upon the Entry into the Salon, the Gentlemen and Officers of his Highneſs, thus proceeding by Pairs, made their Obeſances jointly towards the Stall of the Sovereign, and repeated the ſame in the Middle, and laſtly at the Places allotted for them.

Garter having depoſited the Cushion with the Enſigns upon a Table, Mr. Yorke proceeded to an Elbow Chair upon the Right, and Garter then went to another on the Left Side of the Prince's Stall.

His Highneſs the Prince, having alſo made the like Reverences, aſcended into his Stall.

The Muſick played for ſome Time, and when it ceaſed, the Prince and Plenipotentiaries roſe. Mr. Yorke making his Obeſance to the Sovereign's Stall, briefly acquainted his Highneſs, that his Maſteſty having choſen him into the Order of the Garter, had granted a Commiſſion for his Inveſtiture, which he deſired might be read.

Garter made his Obeſance to the Sovereign's Stall, and gave the Commiſſion to Mr. Yorke, who preſented it to the Prince; his Highneſs delivered it to one of his Secretaries to be read aloud, during which every Body ſtood up. The Secretary having read it, returned it to the Prince, who gave it to the King of Arms to be preſerved among the Archives of the Order.

The Muſick played again, during which Time his Highneſs repoſed himſelf in his Stall, and the Plenipotentiaries ſat down.

After which the King of Arms, making a Reverence to the Stall and to the Prince, gave the Garter to Mr. Yorke, and they jointly inveſted the Prince therewith, Garter reading the Admonition.

Then the Blue Ribon with the George was put over the Prince's Left Shoulder, and brought athwart under his Right Arm, Garter reading the Admonition.

The Surcoat, Sword, Mantle and Taſſells, Hood, Collar, Book of Statutes, Cap and Feathers, were delivered to his Highneſs with the accuſtomed Admonitions.

Mr. Yorke then ſet forth in a Speech the Antiquity and Dignity of the Moſt Noble Order into which his Highneſs was elected, and complimented him thereupon.

Baron Burmania answered in his Highneſs's Name.

Laſtly, Garter King of Arms proclaimed the Stiles of the Sovereign and his Highneſs, during which Proclamation the Prince and all Perſons preſent ſtood up.

The Proclamation of the Stiles being made, the Muſick played while the Ceremony returned in the Manner it proceeded.

After the Inveſtiture, the Prince was pleaſed to ſhew himſelf to a great Number of People gathered without the Houſe, who expreſſed their Rejoycings by loud Acclamations.

D I N N E R.

A grand Entertainment was prepared upon this Occaſion, to which the Deputations of their High and Noble Mightineſſes, ſeveral

General

General Officers, and other Persons of Distinction, were invited. When the Desert had remained some Time upon the Table, his most Serene Highness the Prince of Orange proposed the Health of the King of Great Britain, Sovereign of the Order; and Mr. Yorke drank Prosperity to the Republick of the United Provinces. Then the Health of her Royal Highness the Princess Governante, and the Health of her Serene Highness Princess Caroline, were drank.

The Whole was performed with great Order, Splendour and Magnificence.

Admiralty-Office, April 30, 1752.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrent Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth; as also with the Clerks of the Checque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above mentioned, may apply by Letter to Mr Thomas Riley Blanckley, at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute to the Widows of Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August 1732, as well as to the Widows of those who died since that Time, whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, such Monies as may be due to them on the 31st Day of May next; This is to give Notice, that any Widows who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do so as soon as possible; and that all such Widows whose Claims have been already allowed, may send or bring to this Office, by the 31st of next Month, the Affidavits required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon the Pension or Bounty.

At a Meeting of the Trustees appointed to put in Execution an Act of Parliament, entitled, An Act for repairing the Roads from the North End of Matling-Street, near the Town of Lewes, to Witch Cross; and from the North End of Malling-Street aforesaid, to the Broil Park Gate; and from Offham to Witch Cross aforesaid, all lying within the County of Sussex, holden at the Star in Lewes, the 23d Day of May 1752, it was ordered that the Clerk do give Notice to every Trustee, and place up on every Toll Gate, and also advertise in the London Gazette, the following Resolution, viz.

By Virtue of a Power contain'd in the said Act of Parliament, Notice is hereby given, that on Friday the 26th Day of June 1752, will be holden, at the Star in Lewes aforesaid, a General Meeting of the said Trustees, in order to compound or agree for any Time, not exceeding one Year, with any Person or Persons using to travel through any of the Turnpikes, erected by Virtue of the said Act, with any Coach, Berlin, Landau, Chariot, Calash, Chaise, Chair, Waggon, Wain, Cart, or other Carriage, Horse, Mare, Gelding, or other Beast of Burthen, for any Sum or Sums of Money, for or in Liew of Payment of any of the Tolls or Duties payable by the said Act.

E. Verral, Clerk.
