Petersbourg, May 13. On Saturday last her Imperial Majesty's Coronation was celebrated at Court with great Magnificence; on which Occasion Major General Hampff was promoted to the Rank of Lieutenant General, and the Brigadiers Proforofsky, Devier, and Isakoff, to that of Majors General. Her Imperial Majesty also nominated the Baron de Samorokoff to be Master of the Horse, in the Room of the late Prince Kourakin. On Tuesday last the Court quitted the Winter Palace, and went into the Summer Palace. Orders have been sent to all Commanding Officers of our Troops, to cause all the Men to be regularly exercised three Times a Week till further Notice. We learn from Persia, that Prince Heraclius still continues to gain some Advantages over Schach Doub, but that the Report of his being in Possession of Ispahan is without Foundation.

Naples, May 14. Commodore Martinez, who lately sunk a large Algerine Shebeck, has been promoted by the King to the Rank and Pay of a Colonel for his gallant Behaviour in that Action. Last Week he put in at Messina, where he landed 169 Moors to perform Quarantine, whom he had taken up from the Sea; and after having refitted his Squadron of Shebecks, and provided them with the necessary Provisions, sailed again on a Cruize. The Loss the Algerines sustained by the above Ship, has not hindered their appearing in great Numbers on the the Coasts of this Kingdom, and taking several of our coasting Vessels, amounting, as is alledged by our Merchants, to the Value of upwards of 10000 Crowns within these few Weeks. The Negotiation that has been carrying on for some Years between this Court and the States General of the United Provinces, for settling a Treaty of Commerce, is at length so far advanced, that the same is almost daily expected to be signed. They have already taken eleven of the eighteen Prisoners who last Week found Means to break out of one of the Prisons of this City, and 'tis thought by the Discoveries which some of them have already made, the rest will soon be apprehended.

Rome, May 16. The Departure of the Pope for Castle Gandolfo, is fixed for the 25th of this Month. We have received Advice from Civita Vecchia, that the Barbary Corsairs have taken a Genoese Felucca, with about 50 Men on board, whom they have carried into Slavery. The same Letters add, that they have likewise taken a Catalan Pink, with 120 Recruits on board, who were going to Naples, in order to compleat the Spanish Regiments in his Neapolitan Majesty's Service. They write from Macerata, a small Town of the Marche of Ancona, that a Person having been committed to Prison there for being concerned in the running of Goods, a large Body of Smuglers came and demanded him to be set at Liberty, but being refused, they immediately broke open the Prison, and carried him off in Triumph, the Goaler having escaped being murdered with the greatest Difficulty.

Bologne, May 16. We learn from Reggio, that the Duke of Modena, who has been there with his whole Court during the Time of the Fair, proposed to set out from thence on Saturday next for Sassuolo, in order to pass the Summer.

Parma, May 16. The Corn brought hither from the Ferrarois and Naples, not being sufficient to supply the Inhabitants with Bread till Harvest, the Duke our Sovereign has obtained Leave of the Court of Vienna for his Subjects to purchase Corn in the Mantuan, where they have at present a greater Quantity than most other Countries of Italy.

Florence, May 19. On the 13th Instant the Empress's Birth day was celebrated here with the usual Solemnity, the Foreign Ministers, the Nobility, and Military Officers, appearing in their rich Habits; and in the Evening there was the usual Fireworks, and the Cannon of the Castles were fired. On the 14th and 15th two Couriers from the Court of Naples passed by this City, whereof one for Parma and Madrid, and the other for Dresden, with Notice, that on the 11th Instant the Queen of Naples was happily delivered of a Prince. Within these few Days past this Government has restored the Inquisitor to his former Authority with regard to the Press, having caused a Notification to be given to the People concerned in it, to obtain first his Approbation, not only for the Printing, but also for the Exportation and Importation of all Books. The Emperor has lately granted 38 Commendancies of the Order of St. Stephen, to divers

Knights of that Order; and amongst them, a Commendary of 60 Crowns a Year to each of the young Gentlemen who went on board of the three Ships of War in their late Voyage to Constantinople, &c.

Lisbon, May 22. A Circumstantial Account of the great Damages received last Month by the Inhabitants of Aveira and Buarcos, as well by Earthquakes, as by the Overflowings of the Rivers, having been laid before the King, his Majesty was so affected therewith, that he not only ordered them to be supplied for the present with Corn at his own Expence, but also ordered that they should be exempt from paying all Duties and Taxes whatsoever for ten Years. The Corsairs of Barbary have of late interrupted the Commerce of this Kingdom so very much, that Orders are given for the immediate equipping four Men of War, and the like Number of Frigates, in order to give them Chace. The Fleets from the Bahia and Maranham are both arrived richly laden; that from the Bahia having on board half a Million on the King's Account, besides two Millions on the Merchants Account.

Turin, May 23. The Accounts received at Court from the Inspectors of the Troops, as to the Appearance and Behaviour of the several Regiments they have reviewed, give great Satisfaction. The Dutchess of Savoy advances happily in her Peggancy, and 'tis expected will be brought to Bed about the Beginning of July.

Venice, May 26. Early this Morning there was a violent Storm which has done a great deal of Mischief. The Lightning fell in several Parts of this City, and has damaged the Churches of S^{ta} Croce and St. Moise, the Convent of St. Andrea and S^{ta} Margarita, and killed several People. Some private Houses have likewise suffered, particularly the Imperial Ambassador's.

Berlin, May 27. On Thursday Morning last the King reviewed all the Regiments, that had been drawn together for that Purpose, on the Plain of Tempow. Most of the General Officers in Town, and many of the Nobility, were present at this Review, and were afterwards invited to dine with his Majesty, at his own Table. The King expressed great Satisfaction at the Appearance and Behaviour of his Troops.

Vienna, May 27. On Wednesday last their Imperial Majesties, accompanied by the two eldest Archdutchesses, and the Princess Charlotte of Lorrain, set out from Schonbrun for Laxembourg, in order to divert themselves with hunting for a few Days. Count Keyserling, the new Russian Ambassador, is soon expected here, upon whose Arrival Count Bestuchef will immediately depart from hence for Petersbourg. Several considerable Bodies of Recruits have lately been sent, by Way of the Danube, into Hungary, in order to complete the Regiments in Garrison in that Kingdom. On Sunday last General Count Brown set out from hence for Bohemia, in order to take upon him the Command in Chief of the Imperial Troops in that Kingdom.

Hague, June 6. We learn from the Upper Palatinate, that an Epidemical Distemper had lately lately broke out at Vernberg, a small Town in the Neighbourhood of Amberg, which greatly resembled the Plague; and that a great Number of the Inhabitants of that Place had died of it in a very few Days.

Dublin, May 26.

Last Sunday being the Birth-Day of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, the Great Guns were fired in his Majesty's Park the Phoenix, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks.

The Master and Wardens of the Company of Scriveners, London, hereby give Notice to all whom it may concern, That they will meet every Wednesday till the 24th of June next, at the Rainbow Coffeehouse in Cornhill, by Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, in order to admit into the Freedom of the said Company, all such Persons exercising the Art and Mystery of Scriveners as shall apply for that Purpose, in Pursuance of the late Act of Common Council, intituled, An Act for regulating the Company of Scriveners, London.

IN the Beginning of last November, the Right Honourable the Lord Falkland, being at Montauban in France, visited an English Gentleman there, who was thought to be expiring of a Fever, his Physicians and Friends being destitute of all Hopes of his Recovery. He had taken a great Quantity of the Bark, which, far from doing him Service, appeared to be very prejudicial to him. At this Time he rattled in the Throat, was very much delirious and insensible, and excessively hot and low. At Seven in the Morning the Lord Falkland gave him half a Paper of Dr. James's Fever Powder, which made him sweat profusely. Two Hours after he took another half Paper, in Consequence of which he brought up a large Mouthful of very black Bile, had some Stools, and sweated plentifully. Betwixt Twelvey and One he sat up, and spoke, and became sensible. At Three he took a whole Paper, which was repeated at proper Intervalls, according to the printed Directions. In Consequence of this he perfectly recovered from his Disorder, and, in a few Days, regained his Strength. The Right Honourable the Lord Falkland, esteeming this more a publick than a private Concern, has ordered it to be published for the Advantage of Mankind.
