

The-London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 13, to Tuesday June 16, 1752.

Petersbourg, May 30.

THE Empress, who is expected here To-day from Czarkazelo, will set out for Petershoff towards the End of next Week for the Summer, her Imperial Majesty's intended Journey to Moscow not being to take Place till the Beginning of next Winter. Colonel Poshakoff is sentenced to be reduced to a private Soldier, for the Insult lately committed by him on Baron Greiffenheim the Swedish Minister. We learn by an Express from Moscow, that a most dreadful Fire broke out a few Days ago in that City, which burnt with such Violence, and spread so fast, that upwards of 5000 Houses, besides many Churches, Convents, and other Religious Houses, were entirely reduced to Ashes, and several Persons lost their Lives. Upon the Receipt of this melancholy News, her Imperial Majesty caused Orders to be dispatched thither for granting Relief to all such as are in immediate Want, great Numbers having been reduced to the utmost Misery and Confusion.

Turin, May 31. Publick Prayers are ordered to be put up in all the Churches of this City, for the happy Delivery of the Dutchess of Savoy, who is now near her Time.

Rome, June 3. Yesterday the Cardinal Secretary of State set out for Castel Gandolfo, where the Court now resides. Ten of the principal Authors of the late Tumults at Subiaco are sentenced to perpetual Banishment out of the Ecclesiastical State. The Pope has ordered 2000 Scudis more to be distributed amongst the Inhabitants of Gualdo, Nocera, and other Places that suffered so much by the late Earthquakes. 'Tis confidently reported here, that the Maltese Gallies had a very smart Engagement with some Algerine Corsairs on the 14th of last Month, off the Island of Pantellaria, which ended greatly in Favour of the Maltese, who took two large Algerine Xebecs, and sunk another.

Parma, June 6. The fine Appearance we have in this Country of a plentiful Harvest this Year, has already considerably reduced the Price of Corn and Bread, which have been extremely dear for some Months past.

Vienna, June 7. A Courier is dispatched to Madrid, with the Ratification of the Treaty lately concluded with that Court. The Number of Persons of all Ages who have passed by this Place from Swabia, the Uppere Rhine, the Watteraw, and other Places in the Empire, is computed to upwards of 20000: These People, who are mostly very poor, are going to settle in Hungary, where they hope to find better Encouragement than in their own Countries.

Stockholm, June 8. Their Majesties and the young Royal Family came here on Saturday last from Ulrichsdahl in perfect Health; and on Tuesday M. Marteville, Envoy Extraordinary from the States General of the United Provinces, had his first private Audience of the King, to whom he delivered his Credential Letters; after which he had an Audience of the Queen. The Separation of the Diet, which was fixed for Monday last, is deferred for eight or ten Days. His Majesty has appointed M. Adlerbeth, Knight of the Order of the North Star, to be Vice-President of the Tribunal of Jonkioping. On Friday last died here Count Gyllenbourg, one of the Senators of this Kingdom, and Chancellor of the University of Lund.

Dresden, June 9. The King, who set out for Fraustadt on Sunday last, to sign the Universalia for convoking the General Diet of Poland, returned to this City last Night in perfect Health.

Berlin, June 13. The King returned to Potzdam on Wednesday Night last from reviewing his Troops in the Dutchy of Magdebourg; and Yesterday Morning his Majesty, accompanied by the Princes Henry and Ferdinand, and attended by several General Officers, set out for Stettin, in order to review the Troops in Garrison at that Place. On the 24th Instant the King, the two Queens, and all the Royal Family, intend going to Charlottenbourg, in order to receive the Princess of Hesse Cassel, who is to be married to Prince Henry on the 25th,

[ Price Two Pence. ]