

with the King of Denmark, have been extremely Magnificent; and that great Preparations are making against the approaching Fair, which opens on the 1st of next Month.

Heidelberg, July 6. The prodigious Quantity of Corn that has been sent out of this Country for these five or six Months past into Swisserland and Alface, has caused a considerable Rise in that Commodity; but as we have now a fine Prospect of a plentiful Harvest, 'tis not doubted but that it will soon fall again to a reasonable Price.

Brussels, July 10. The States of the Province of Flanders are soliciting for Leave to make a Road from Alost to Louvain, and 'tis thought their Request will be granted, as 'twill doubtless be very serviceable to Commerce. The English and Dutch Commissaries have sent to their respective Courts the Result of a seventh Conference they have lately held with those of the Empress Queen, in relation to the settling of the Barrier and the Tariff. 'Tis said a Placard or Edict will soon be published here, forbidding all Persons whatsoever to wear Swords, whose Birth or Employments do not entitle them to that Liberty.

Hague, July 13. The States of Holland and Westfrizeland, who opened their Assembly Yesterday, have this Day continued their Deliberations. Mess. Schyderuyt and Alberda are returned here from Dutch Flanders, where they have been, by Order of the Council of State, to visit the Fortifications and Magazines.
