

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 14, to Saturday July 18, 1752.

Naples, June 27.

ON Saturday last the King, attended by several of the principal Lords of his Court, went from Portici to view the new Palace that is erecting at Caserta, with which his Majesty seemed greatly pleased, and ordered a handsome Sum of Money to be distributed amongst the Workmen. On Sunday Night a Fire broke out at a considerable Druggists in this City, which burnt down that and several other Houses adjoining. Most of our armed Chebecks are now cruising in the Seas of Calabria, in order to protect the Navigation of this Kingdom from the Barbary Pyrates.

Florence, July 1. The Regencies of Barbary and Algiers have made a Proposal to this State, to furnish the Inhabitants of Tuscany with all the Corn they shall from Time to Time have Occasion for, at a Sequin a Sack, and to take one half of its Value in the Manufactures of this Country, and the other half in Specie, which Proposal is sent by Count Richecourt to Vienna, for his Imperial Majesty's Approbation. They write from Leghorn, that on Friday the 23d of last Month they had a violent Shock of an Earthquake, which happily went off without doing any considerable Damage.

Leghorn, July 2. The Master of a French Ship which arrived here a few Days ago assures us, that a Venetian Man of War, cruizing in the Adriatick Gulph, had fallen in with two Barbary Corsairs, one of which she had sunk, and had taken the other with eight Guns and 64 Men on board. It has been currently reported here for some Days past, that Part of the Ottoman Fleet, under the Command of the Captain Bashaw, who was going to collect the annual Tributes of the Inhabitants of the Islands in the Archipelago, for the Use of the Grand Seigneur, had perished at Sea in a violent Tempest; but as some Ships are since come in from the Levant, the Masters of which declare they heard of no such Accident, we must suspend our Belief of it for the present.

Toulon, July 2. A Tartane, named the Emanuel, that made Part of the small Squadron commanded by M. du Reveft, which sailed from hence some Time ago for the Mediterranean, is returned into this Port with Advice, that the Dey of Tripoly has consented to give that Commander all the Satisfaction the King his Master required; that M. du Reveft continued at Anchor before Tripoly, waiting for the Squadron commanded by M. Villarzel, in order to go on a secret Expedition, as is said to Tunis, to demand Satisfaction of the new Dey for compelling the French Minister, M. Montchenu, to declare in his Favour against the Dey his Father, at the Time of the late Revolution in that State.

Parma, July 3. The Small-Pox being very rife at Colorno, and many of the Inhabitants dying of it, the Duke and Dutchess our Sovereigns have thought fit to leave that Place much sooner than they intended, and have fixed their Residence for the present in this City. We are informed that Cardinal Alberoni has, by his Will, given all his Lands and Tenements in Lombardy to the College of St. Lazarus at Placentia; and those he was possessed of in the Romagna, to the Abbe Alberoni his Nephew, for his Life only, after which they are to go likewise to the said College. They continue to make the necessary Preparations for the Dutchess's intended Journey to France, and 'tis assured she is to be accompanied thither by the Infanta Isabella her Daughter.

Stockholm, July 7. We have received Advice, that the King landed safe at Helsingfors in Finland the 27th of last Month, and was joyfully received by the Inhabitants of that Dutchy. The Resolutions taken by the late Diet, for the Improvement of the Commerce of this Kingdom, are now vigorously carrying into Execution. Lieutenant Colonel Baron Scheffer is set out from hence for France, in order to replace his Brother in the Post of Envoy Extraordinary from this Court. We learn from Gothenbourg, that the Prince Charles and the Gothick Lyon, two Ships belonging to our East India Company, arrived there the 26th of last Month

[Price Two Pence.]