Naples, July 25. On Saturday last Prince Esterhafi, Ambassador from their Imperial Majesties, went to Court, in great State, and was admitted to his first publick Audience of the King, Queen, and the rest of the Royal Family, being introduced by the Marquess d'Aquaviva, Introducator of Ambassadors.

Rome, July 29. Count Riviera, Minister from the King of Sardinia to this Court, having received last Night a Courier from Turin, with Advice of the Dutchess of Savoy's being happily delivered of a Princess, communicated the same this Morning to the Pope in a private Audience he had for that Purpose. M. Buffy is returned here from Ferrara, whither he went some Time since, by Order of the Pope, to visit the Fortifications and Magazines. The Cardinal Secretary of State is again indisposed. We are informed by Letters from Tivoli, that on the 21st Instant at Night, they felt a most violent Shock of an Earthquake, which greatly alarmed the Inhabitants, but that happily it went off without causing any considerable Damage.

Petersbourg, July 29. Colonel Pofs, the new Swedish Minister to this Court, arrived here a few Days ago, and To-morrow he is to have his first Audience of the Empress at Peterhoff.

Turin, Aug. 2. The Dutchess of Savoy is so well recovered of her late Lying-in, as to be able to see Company in her own Apartment. The King has at length agreed to accede to the Treaty of Madrid, but we have not as yet been able to learn on what Conditions. By Letters from Modena we are informed, that the Duke has given Orders for raising a new Regiment, the Officers for which, 'tis said, are already appointed.

Munich, Aug. 7. The Elector of Bavaria, with the Electress his Spouse, attended by Count Sinheim, set out this Morning to hunt for some Days in the Mountains near the Tyrol, from whence their Electoral Highnesses will return to Nimphenberg on Friday or Saturday next.

Besancon, Aug. 8. A great Number of Gold, Silver and Copper Medals were found by some Workmen, a few Days ago, as they were digging for the Foundation of a House in the Neighbourhood of this City, amongst which there are some of Vespasian, Titus, Marcus Aurelius, Julian the Apostate, and several others of the ancient Roman Emperors.

Vienna, Aug. 9. Baron Newhaufs, Minister Plenipotentiary from the Elector of Bavaria to this Court, had last Week his Audience of Leave of their Imperial Majesties, and is since set out on his Return to Munich. The Repairing and Augmenting the Fortifications of this City go on very fast, a great Number of Men being actually employed in that Work. We learn from Bohemia, that the Troops appointed to form the Camp at Colin are already arrived. They talk of three several Camps being soon to be formed in Hungary, the first near Katschau, which is to be commanded by Lieutenant General Count O'Donel, the second in the Neighbourhood of Pest, and the third near Eperies.

Copenhagen, Aug. 12. The Court goes on Monday next to Jagersprus, and will spend a Fortnight there in the Diversion of Hunting; so that in all Probability no more Councils will be held at Friedensburg till the 1st of September. Last Week the new Queen came privately to view the Palace in this City, where she dined, and returned afterwards to Friedensburg, her Majesty intending always to appear here in private till after her publick Entry.

Hambourg, Aug. 12. The Magistrates of this City have given publick Notice to the Merchants, that the Treaty concluded last Year with the Algerines is now void; and that they are therefore to regulate their Affairs accordingly. We learn from Gothenbourg, that a great Number of Foreigners are already arrived there, to attend the Sale of the Merchandize lately brought from the East Indies, which begins on the 17th Instant.

Brussels, Aug. 14. The States of Brabant have agreed to the Project for making a new Road from Little Willebroek to Boom. M. Cordeys, one of her Imperial Majesty's Commissaries to the Conferences in this City, is appointed President of the Chamber of Accounts, in the Room of the late M. de Wit. We learn from Namur, that the Ceremony of the Marriage of Mademoiselle de Gavre, Daughter of the Governor of that City, with the Prince of Hernes, was celebrated there on Thursday last; and that the Entertainments given on that Occasion were very magnificent.

Dusseldorp, Aug. 15. Count Cavalchini, Governor of Manheim, having obtained Leave to resign that Post, the same has been conferred on Major General Breyfing, Lieutenant Governor of this City. They write from Spa, that the Cardinal Prince and Bishop of Liege had left that Place on his Return home, having found great Benefit from drinking the Waters.

Paris, Aug. 17. The Dauphin is perfectly recovered of the Small Pox, and is to be removed from Versailles, as soon as it is resolved to which of the Royal Houses it will be the most proper he should go for the Change of Air.

Hague, Aug. 20. Count Dehn, the Danish Envoy Extraordinary at this Court, has been in Conference with the President of the Assembly of the States General, to whom he delivered a Letter from the King his Master, acquainting their High Mightinesses with his late Marriage with the Princess of Brunswick Wolfembuttel. On Wednesday Night last Baron Waffenaer, Ambassador from this Republick to the Court of Spain, returned here from Dieren, where he went to take Leave of her Serene Highness the Princess Governante, being to set out on Tuesday next for Madrid, by the Way of Brussels and Paris. We learn from Rotterdam, that M. Senserf, Member of the Council, and ancient Burgomaster of that City, died there on Monday last.
