

Places, and laid great Part of the adjacent Country under Water; that the Rapidity of the Stream was so sudden and so great, as to destroy most of the Bridges upon that River; and that several People, who lived near its Banks, were drowned, with most of their Cattle.

Dusseldorp, Sept. 5. According to our last Advices from Bonn, the Elector of Cologne was daily expected there from his Journey into Westphalia. The Desertion amongst the Troops in this Garrison is become more frequent of late than ever; and, by our best Accounts, the greatest Part of them take the Road to Wesel, and enter into the Service of the King of Prussia.

Hague, Sept. 7. Count Bentinck, who has been for some Time at his Seat in Guelderland, is returned here, and assists regularly at the Assembly of their High Mightinesses the States General. We have received Advice this Morning from Germany, that the Elector of Cologne is safe arrived at Augustebourg, from the Journey his Electoral Highness has lately taken into Westphalia.

Sept. 16, 1752.

William Goodacre, Servant to Samuel Dashwood, LL. D. of Wellins, Lincolnshire, being at Bath on the 25th Day of March last, was seiz'd with the Small-Pox, of a very mild and favourable Sort, which turn'd the seventh Day after the Eruption, and went off in the most desirable Manner; but about the second Day after the Eruption, he was seiz'd with a Delirium or Phrensy, which rose to such a Height, that he foam'd at the Mouth, refused all Liquors, and endeavour'd to bite the Attendants. This made two eminent Physicians, that attended him, suspect, that, besides the Small Pox, he had that Distemper which arises from the Bite of a mad Dog. For this Reason they endeavour'd to give him the Tonquin Remedy, but could not get him to take it. When the Small-Pox was entirely over, the Delirium still continuing in a violent Manner, all proper Measures were used to remove it, but in vain; and, at last, the Physicians left him as incurable. In this State he took, at once, two whole Papers of Dr. James's Fever Powder, after which he slept half an Hour, and awaked in violent Ravings. The Powders having no visible Effect, he took another whole Paper two Hours after the first; after which he slept again, and awaked in the same Way: This Paper likewise had no Effect. In two Hours after he took a fourth whole Paper which, in about half an Hour, operated by purging. His Ravings after this grew less violent, and he eat and drank every thing they gave him. He continued taking the Powders three Times a Day for three or four Days; after which the Cataplasms ordered in the Directions for taking these Powders, were applied to his Feet, as also a Blister to his Head, and upon taking the Powders twice a Day for a Week more, he perfectly recovered both his Senses and his Health. Dr. Dashwood esteeming this Cure worthy the Notice of the Publick has ordered it to be inserted in this Paper.

* * * These Powders are seal'd with a Serpent winding round a Branch of Lawrel; and round the Seal these Words, By the King's Patent: And are sold only by J. Newbery, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-Yard, London. Price 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses.
