

And all His Majesty's Subjects, (other than such as are lawfully authorized thereunto,) going to, or found in the East-Indies, are declared guilty of a High Crime, and Misdemeanor, and are made liable to Corporal Punishment, Imprisonment, or Fine, for the same, at the Discretion of such of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, where the Prosecution for such Offence shall be commenced.

And every Person so offending may be seized, and brought to England; and committed to Goal there, by any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, until sufficient Security be given by Natural-born Subjects or Denizens, to appear in the Court, where such Prosecution shall be commenced, to answer the same, and not depart without Leave of the Court.

3d Geo. II. Cap. 14.] By an Act passed in the 3d Year of His present Majesty, it is Enacted, That if any of His Majesty's Subjects (other than the East-India Company, and those licensed by them) shall directly, or indirectly, go to, trade, or adventure into, or from, the East-Indies, every such Offender shall incur the Forfeiture, and Loss, of all the Ships, and Vessels, employed in such Voyage, Trade, or Adventure; and also all the Goods laden thereupon, or that were sent to, acquired, traded, or adventured, within the East-Indies, and all the Proceed, and Effects, of the same, and Double the Value thereof.

Lisbon, Sept. 20. The King has conferred the Dignity of a Count of this Kingdom on Don Sebastian de Carvalho, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, by the Title of Count Deyras. A few Days ago some Domesticks belonging to Count Aubigny, the new French Ambassador to this Court, arrived here with great Part of his Equipage, and the Count himself is expected some Time next Month. We are informed by our last Letters from Spain, that four Men of War, and ten armed Chebecks, were sailed from Carthagena, to cruize on the Barbary Pyrates, who have lately appeared in great Numbers on the Coast of Andalusia.

Naples, Sept. 26. The Court is still at Portici, where there was a grand Appearance of the Nobility and Gentry on Saturday last, to compliment his Majesty, it being the Anniversary of his Brother the King of Spain's Birth-Day. Their Majesties intended Journey to Caserta is put off for the present. The Chevalier Majo, who is appointed to take Care of the Affairs of this Court at that of Vienna, in the Room of Prince Campo Reale, waits only for his last Instructions, in order to set out for that Court.

Petersbourg, Sept. 29. Her Imperial Majesty having informed the Senate of her Intention to set out for Moscow the Beginning of December next, they have accordingly given Orders for getting every Thing ready against that Time for her Departure. Lieutenant General Brown, and M. Biberstein, Director General of the Posts in Lithuania, are both created Knights of the Order of St. Alexander Newsky. We learn by Letters from Moscow, that a Fire had lately broke out in that Part of the Town called Nova-Basmanowna, which had burnt down many Houses and Warehouses. The same Letters add, that the Houses burnt down by the late great Fires, were for the most Part rebuilt.

Rome, Sept. 30. The Pope has caused an Ordonnance to be published, forbidding, under severe Penalties, the sending of Corn out of the Ecclesiastical State, on Account of the Shortness of our Crops this Year in many Places.

Florence, Sept. 30. Count Richcourt, President of the Council of this Regency, having received Orders to repair to Vienna, proposes to set out for that Place the Beginning of next Week. There is now no more Talk of reinforcing the Garrisons of this Country, or those of Lombardy; on the Contrary, 'tis said, that some Regiments of Horse, that are become useless here by the late Treaty of Madrid, for securing the Tranquility of Italy, will soon be ordered to march from hence into Germany.

Stockholm, Oct. 6. On Monday Morning last the King came here from Drotningholm and assisted at the Deliberations of the Senate; and in the Afternoon his Majesty returned to Drotningholm. General Count Mark, Commander of the Swedish Troops in Finland, is arrived here from thence; and 'tis said the 8000 Men, who went from hence some Time ago to work at the Fortifications in that Province, will soon be ordered Home. The Convention lately concluded with the Crown of Denmark, for settling the Limits in Norway, is made publick, and appears entirely calculated to strengthen the present good Understanding between the two Courts.

Dresden, Oct. 10. According to our last Advices from Poland, their Majesties, accompanied by the Princes Xavier and Charles, arrived at Grodno on the 30th of last Month. The same Advices add, that the Day after their Arrival, the General Diet of the Kingdom was opened with the usual Ceremonies; when Count Masalsky, Son to the Castellan of Wilna, was unanimously elected Marshal.

Copenhagen, Oct. 14. Last Night ended the Publick Rejoycings here, which have been kept three Days successively, for the Reception of the Queen of Denmark. The Particulars whereof, which were as usual on such Occasions, are as follow: On the 11th Instant, the Day appointed for the Entry, her Danish Majesty, accompanied in her Coach by the Princess Charlotte, set out from Fridericksberg between Two and Three in the Afternoon, preceded by a great Number of fine Equipages, as well as Gentlemen on Horseback, and escorted by the Guards. In this Manner her Majesty proceeded hither, very slowly, and arrived at the Palace of Christiansburg about Six o'Clock, where she was received by the King. In the Streets, thro' which the Procession passed, there were several Triumphal Arches erected; the Houses on each Side being painted and adorned with Variety of Devices, and the Cannon of the Ramparts keeping a continual Fire from the Time her Majesty's Coach appeared within the Walls, till she alighted out of it at the Palace. There a magnificent Supper concluded the Evening, and each of the Guests received a large Silver Medal upon the Subject of the Day. On the 12th in the Forenoon, two new built Ships were launched, one of Seventy Guns, called Juliana Maria, in Honour of the Queen, and the other of Forty, called Moen, at which both their Danish Majesties assisted. This Ceremony being over, they returned to Court, where there was an elegant Dinner at several Tables. In the Afternoon a Danish Comedy, with an Italian Intermezzo, was
