

And every Person so offending may be seized, and brought to England, and committed to Goal there, by any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, until sufficient Security be given by Natural-born Subjects or Denizens, to appear in the Court, where such Prosecution shall be commenced, to answer the same, and not depart without Leave of the Court.

3d Geo. II. Cap. 14.] By an Act passed in the 3d Year of His present Majesty, it is Enacted, That if any of His Majesty's Subjects (other than the East-India Company, and those licensed by them) shall directly, or indirectly, go to, trade, or adventure into, or from, the East-Indies, every such Offender shall incur the Forfeiture, and Loss, of all the Ships, and Vessels, employed in such Voyage, Trade, or Adventure; and also all the Goods laden thereupon, or that were sent to, acquired, traded, or adventured, within the East-Indies, and all the Proceed, and Effects, of the same, and Double the Value thereof.

Lisbon, Sept. 22. The Fleet from Fernambuco, which arrived lately at the Mouth of the Tagus, consists of seventeen Merchantmen, convoyed by a Man of War of fifty Guns. They made the Voyage in little more than two Months, and have on board 527,825 Cruzades, besides a large Cargo of rich Merchandize. An Express is arrived at Court with the agreeable News, that our small Squadron, which has been cruising for some Time past in the Streights of Gibraltar, had attacked, on the 8th Instant, four Algerine Corsairs, and had taken two of them, after a very smart Engagement, in which several Persons were killed and wounded on both Sides. The two Corsairs that are taken, have Forty-two Pieces of Brass Cannon on board, besides a great Number of Slaves.

Leghorn, Oct. 6. The Emperor's Men of War are now cruising off this Port, in order to protect our Trade and Navigation from being interrupted by the Barbary Corsairs, which have lately appeared upon these Coasts. Two Ships from Trieste have brought here a considerable Quantity of Linen; printed at Vienna, which sells extremely well. We learn by our last Letters from Naples, that the King of the Two Sicilies has granted Letters Patents for establishing a Company of Manufacturers at Messina, for the Weaving of Silks and Camblets. The same Letters add, that this Company is to pay no Duty for any Merchandize they shall have Occasion to make Use of in the said Manufactures for ten Years; and the King, to encourage them all in his Power, has promised they shall never want for Silk, though there should be ever so great a Demand for it in Foreign Countries.

Petersbourg, Oct. 6. Most of the Foreign Ministers have declared their Intention to follow the Court to Moscow in December next. Baron Leutrum, heretofore Lieutenant Colonel of Foot in the Dutch Service, has entred into the Service of this Court in the same Quality.

Naples, Oct. 6. The Fair at Salerno proves very successful this Year to most Persons that attend it with Merchandize, the fine Weather having not only invited thither many of the Nobility and Gentry of this City, but also those from all the Towns thereabouts. The Court having received Advice, that a Barbary Galliot was cruising off Portolongone, Orders were immediately given for two armed Vessels to be fitted out in order to give her Chace. The Prince de Cimitile, whom the King has named his Minister Plenipotentiary to the Court of Great Britain, waits only for his last Instructions, in order to set out for London.

Rome, Oct. 7. We are informed by Letters from Velletri, that in the Night between the 26th and 27th of last Month, they had a most terrible Shock of an Earthquake, which threw down several Houses, and put the Inhabitants into the utmost Consternation.

Madena, Oct. 12. The Duke our Sovereign intends shortly to make an Addition of several new Professorships in the Civil Law, Philosophy, and the Mathematicks, to those already established in the University of Reggio, in order to put that University in a more flourishing Condition.

Madrid, Oct. 16. Their Catholick Majesties set out on Wednesday last for the Escorial, where they intend to reside about six Weeks; most of the Foreign Ministers are gone to attend upon them. Two Days before the Court left this Place, the French Ambassador, M. de Vaulgrenant, had his Audience of Leave, when the King was pleased to make him a Present of his Picture, richly set with Diamonds; his Excellency intends setting out for Paris in a few Days, and the Duke de Duras, his Successor, is expected here towards the latter End of this Month.

Stockholm, Oct. 16. Last Monday Morning the King came here from Drotningholm, and assisted at the Deliberations of the Senate, and in the Afternoon his Majesty returned to Drotningholm. Baron Lieven, who went to carry the Order of the Seraphins to the Kings of Denmark and Prussia, is daily expected here from Copenhagen, where he stopt some Days on his Return from Berlin.

Copenhagen, Oct. 17. The King has promoted Vice Admiral Hoope to the Rank of Admiral, and Rear Admiral Tunder to that of Vice Admiral. His Majesty has also named M. de Qualen to be one of his Privy Council; and Mess. Gersdorff and Rosencrantz are appointed Chamberlains of his Majesty's Household.

Hague, Oct. 26. Colonel Yorke, Minister Plenipotentiary from his Britannick Majesty to this Court, has obtained the usual Passports of their High Mightinesses the States General, for the free Passage of the King his Master's Domesticks and Baggage through the Territories of this Republick, on their Return from Hanover to England. The Duke of Brunswick Wolfenbuttle arrived here last Night from his Government of Bois-le-Duc. We learn by Letters from Paris, that the young Princess, Daughter to the Dauphin, who is ill of the Small-Pox, has a very favourable Sort, and is in a fair Way of Recovery.
