

Dublin Castle, October 23.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of his Majesty's Coronation, the Great Guns were fired in His Majesty's Park the Phoenix, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks; and this Day their Excellencies the Lords Justices received the Compliments of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction upon the Occasion. In the Evening there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy: And at Night there was a Play given by their Excellencies for the Entertainment of the Ladies. And,

This Day being the Anniversary of the Irish Rebellion in 1641, their Excellencies the Lords Justices went in the usual State to Christ Church, where they heard a most excellent Sermon, preached by the Reverend John Palliser, D. D. Vice Provost of Trinity College, on the Day. After their Excellencies came from Church, the Great Guns in His Majesty's Park the Phoenix fired three Rounds, which were answered by Volleys of Small Arms from the Regiments in Garrison, drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks.
