

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday December 12, to Saturday December 16, 1752.

St. James's, December 16.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Dorset, Lord Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Ireland, have by him been presented to His Majesty; who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the King's most excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars, of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe and happy Return to your British Dominions.

Your Majesty's mild and equitable Government at Home, and your unwearied Labours to promote and secure the publick Tranquility Abroad, must fill the Heart of every Person, who hath any Regard for the Prosperity of these Kingdoms, with the deepest Sense of Gratitude, and the most ardent Zeal for the Welfare of your Majesty and your Royal House.

But we of your Majesty's loyal University are most particularly oblig'd to acknowledge the Blessings we enjoy under your auspicious Reign, and to express our unfeigned Satisfaction at the happy Prospect of those Blessings being continued to the latest Posterity.

Permit us, Great Sir, to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Person, and of our constant Study to instruct the Youth committed to our Care in such Principles of Religion and Government, as may, under God, render them loyal Subjects, and worthy to be rul'd by your Majesty and your Royal Family.

[Price Two-Pence.]

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE are not insensible that your Majesty's Endeavours were strenuously exerted (whilst Abroad) to make your British and Irish Subjects easy and happy at Home.

This your Princely Care of their Interests, is the rather to be admired, as the Danger of the Seas, the Change of Climates, and the Fatigue of Travelling, could not deter you from removing to a Situation, where the Advantages to result to them could not only be more readily obtained, but at the same Time more effectually secured.

Your Conduct and Administration makes us happy, and your Example must be a Lesson to your Successors, how our Posterity is to be made so; and as no Return can be suitable on our Part, to such abundant Goodness on yours—Be pleased, Royal Sir, to accept the only Tribute we can give you—the Acknowledgements of loyal and grateful Hearts—And so far honour us, as to rank us in the Number of those, whose Joy is, Transport, on your safe Arrival to your British Dominions.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereunto affixed, the Seventh Day of December, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and fifty two.

Petersbourg, Nov. 16. Preparations are now actually making with great Diligence for her Imperial Majesty's intended Journey to Moscow, which will certainly take Place towards the Middle of next Month, if the Sledging Ways are open. Count Colorado, who acted in Conjunction with Baron Pretlack, their Imperial Majesties Ambassador at this Court, set out a few

