Whitehall, January 6.

Letters from Fort St. George, in the East Indies, dated July 5, 1752, have brought the following Account.

THE President and Council of Fort St. George, having received Information sometime ago, that the Chunda Saib, and his Allies, were endeavouring to harass us in our own Districts, sent for a Reinforcement from Bengal, and also sent Capt. Clive to Madras, who having collected our Forces and taken the Field, found the Enemy strongly encamped at Vendaloor, a Place about 15 Miles distant from hence. The Enemy decamp'd in the Night, and took the Rout of Arcot, and were pursued by the Nabob's Forces; they gain'd Coverepaute about 60 Miles off, which Place was appointed for their Rendezvous, their Intention having been to surprize Arcot. Here an Engagement ensued, in which most of their European Forces were killed and taken Prisoners, and their Cannon and Baggage were also taken. Upon this Advice Capt. Clive was immediately ordered to march; he took St. David in his Way, and whilst he was there, the Ship Dorrington arrived, with Major Lawrence, who, at his own Request, had the Command of the Forces given to him, and he set out on the 17th of March from Fort St. David, at the Head of a Party of 400 Europeans and 1000 Seepoys, and took under Convoy a large Quantity of Stores and Ammunition for Trichinopoly, and proceeded, without Molestation, till he came with his Forces near Coiladdy on the 28th, when the Enemy strove to take Advantage of his Situation, a strong Detachment of French from Chunda Saib's Army having thrown up an Intrenchment in the Way he was to march, cannonaded him from it, and endeavoured to interrupt his Passage, which induced Major Lawrence, on the Nabob's Part, to return it, and occasion'd the Loss of some Men on both Sides, but, the Enemy not advancing, he went on the next Day for Trichinopoly, about 16 Miles distant, and as the Road was in Sight of the Enemy's Camp, they came out with their whole Force to oppose him. Major Lawrence, in order to secure the Baggage, marched to meet them; this brought on a Cannonading from them, which did him but little Damage, but his Guns galled the Enemy very much, and forced them to retreat into a hollow Way; upon this Major Lawrence drew off his Men, and join'd the Army that Night. In this Action the Enemy lost above 300 Horse, besides Allam Cawn, a Man of great Interest in the Country. Chundah was soon obliged to raise the Siege of Trichinopoly, and collect his Forces in Syringham, a Neighbouring Island; and the English Forces having possess'd themselves of all the strong Posts quite round it, they so effectually prevented Provisions from coming to the Enemy, that Chundah's great Army of above 30,000 Men was dispersed in less than two Months, and himself, with the French, and a few black Horse and Seepoys, who held out, were in a miserable Condition for Want of Sustainance.

Upon this the Nabob summon'd them to surrender Prisoners, and after they had sent Chundah in the Night Time to Monacjee, they deliver'd up the Island of Syringham on the 3d of June, on Condition that the French Officers should have leave to go to Pondicherry on their Parole, never to serve against the Nabob or his Allies, and the Soldiers to be sent to Europe by the first Opportunity, but in the mean Time to be kept Prisoners. As the Allies could not agree who should keep Chundah, who was taken at Monacjee by the Tanjore Ally, to end the Dispute his Head was struck off.

The whole Business was done in a few Sieges and some Skirmishes, in several of which not a Man of our Forces was lost, so that in reducing the Blacks to the Nabob's Obedience, and making 30 Officers and near 1000 European Soldiers Prisoners, we had not 50 Men killed.

M. Duplex, at the Desire of Sabbad Jung, has solicited for a Peace, which the Nabob is willing to consent to, provided it is made to our Satisfaction, as he owns himself much obliged to us.

Leghorn, Dec. 7. By Letters received here directly from Constantinople, we are informed, that some severe Shocks of an Earthquake have been lately felt in that City, and at Adrianople; and that the Damage caused thereby, particularly at Adrianople, are almost beyond Conception, whole Streets of Houses, and some beautiful Mosques, having been entirely destroyed thereby, and Numbers of the Inhabitants buried under the Ruins. The same Letters add, that there has been a great Scarcity of Coffee at Constantinople, the contrary Winds having prevented the Arrival of the Levant Ships; of which an Armenian, and two Jewish Merchants, had taken the Advantage, and raised that Commodity to an excessive high Price. This Proceeding so violently enraged the common People, that the Grand Visier was absolutely obliged to cause those three Merchants to be apprehended and put to Death before he could appease them.

Florence, Dec. 9. Prince Esterhasi, Ambassador from their Imperial Majesties to the Court of Naples, arrived here on Thursday last from Rome, accompanied by his Spouse, and his two Nephews, and followed by a numerous Retinue. Their Excellencies went immediately to an Apartment provided for them in the Palace; and, as their Stay will be but short, they are entertained every Day by one or other of the Members of the Regency. 'Tis said that some new Plans, for the Improvement of our Commerce, will be brought on the Carpet soon after the Return of Count Richecourt from Vienna.

Dusseldorf, Dec. 24. We are informed by our last Letters from Bonn, that the Elector of Cologne is preparing for a Journey to Munich; and 'tis said the Persons, who are to attend his Highness in that Journey, are already named. General Trips, who arrived here some Time ago, in order to assist at the Assembly of the States of Juliers and Burghues, set out from hence a few Days ago for his Seat in the Neighbourhood of Aix-la-Chapelle.

Brussels, Dec. 25. Count Caunitz-Rittberg is daily expected here from Paris: It is believed he will stay here about a Fortnight, and then proceed on his Journey to Vienna. The high Duties that are at present fixed on Tobacco and Spirituous Liquors in this Country, having greatly diminished the Consumption thereof, 'tis said an Ordonnance will soon be published for taking off a fourth Part of those Duties.

Hague, Jan. 1. Last Friday her Royal Highness the Princess Governante went, at the Head of the Council of State, to the Assembly of the States General, and laid before them the State of War for the Year 1753; on which Occasion M. Beelarts, Deputy to the said Council, on the Part of the Province of Holland, made an elegant Speech to that Assembly. We hear that the drawing of the Lottery of Obligations, which was agreed to by the States of Holland and Westfrizeland on the 4th of October last, will begin on Monday the 22d Instant. They write from Amsterdam, that six Ships belonging to different Chambers of the East India Company of those Provinces, put to Sea from the Texel on Tuesday last, one for Bengal, one for Ceylon and four for Batavia.

Dr.

DR. JAMES'S Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases)
any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms:
But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurisies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again; and by James Esdall, Printer, on the Blind Quay, Dublin.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6 d.
