Turin, January 3.

LAST Month several Expresses arrived here from Vienna and Madrid, in Relation to a Negociation that is set on Foot for engaging the King of Sardinia to renounce all Pretensions to the Dutchies of Parma and Placentia, for a valuable Consideration; upon the Arrival of which Expresses, several Conferences were held; but the Result of them is at present a Secret. The young Hereditary Prince of Anspach, who has been here for some Months past, is preparing to set out for Venice, in order to make the Tour of Italy. They write from Leghorn, that Prince Esterhasi, and his Spouse, were arrived there from Florence; and that they were received with great Marks of Distinction. We are informed by our last Letters from Venice, that the Doge of that Republick, having received a Confirmation that the Plague is entirely ceased at Algiers, has considerably shortened the Quarentine lately performed by all Ships coming from that Coast.

Rome, Jan. 3. Cardinal Ruffo, Dean of the Sacred College, who has been given over by his Physicians for some Days past, was Yesterday something better, and To-Day they have great Hopes of his Recovery. A few Days ago a Courier was dispatched for Malta, with the Pope's Bull, empowering the Grand Master of that Order, and his Successors, to appoint, for the Future, Governors and Commandants of all the Towns and Fortifications in his Jurisdiction.

Bourdeaux, Jan. 8. Within this Fortnight past upwards of one hundred Ships, loaden with Wine, have sailed from this Port, chiefly for Holland.

Stockholm, Jan. 10. The Collection that has been making for some Time past throughout this Kingdom for the Relief of the poor Sufferers by the late dreadful Fires, being now finished, publick Notice is given to all such poor Sufferers, to lay an exact Account of their respective Losses before the Commissaries appointed to examine the same, in order that an immediate Distribution may be made of the Money collected for their Relief. Their Majesties propose to set out for Ulrichsdall, attended by several of the principal Nobility, the Beginning of next Month, in order to take the Diversion of Hunting.

Lyons, Jan. 10. The Manufactures of this Place, which suffered greatly during the War, begin of late to flourish again. Last Week died here M. Antoine de Chevriers, Dean of the Metropolitan Church in this City, in the 70th Year of his Age.

Vienna, Jan. 13. The eldest Archdutchess, who was some Days ago seized with the Small-Pox, is in a fair Way of Recovery. They write from Brinn, that Baron Philibert, Lieutenant Field Marshal of their Imperial Majesties Armies, died there a few Days ago. We are informed by our last Letters from Leutschau in Upper Hungary, that a Fire broke out lately there with such Violence, that the Jesuits College, and near three Parts of the Houses of that Town, were entirely reduced to Ashes.

Baruth, Jan. 13. Prince Louis of Wirtemberg; after spending some Days at this Court, set out the Beginning of last Week for Stuttgart. On Tuesday last the Countess, Spouse to Count Frederick de Bosc, Great Chamberlain of this Court, was safely delivered of a Son, who was baptized the next Day by the Name of Frederic-Guillaume-Auguste, the Margrave our Sovereign standing Godfather, and the Princesses of Saxe-Weymar, Godmother.

Ratisbon, Jan. 15. Last Week the Prince of Tour-Taxis, and most of the principal Nobility, took the Diversion of riding in Sledges on the Snow, of which there has fell a surprizing Quantity within these few Days past.

Paris, Jan. 15. Yesterday Morning the King came from Meutte to Versailles, where a Grand Council of Dispatches was held the same Day. As the Audience which the Deputies of the Parliament have solicited of his Majesty, is

[Price Two-Pence.]
