Constantinople, January 2.

TH E Grand Signor, who at first looked with Indifference on the Troubles in Persia, seems now to conceive some Jealousy at the Advantages gained by Prince Heraclius of Georgia over Schach Doub; and 'tis said will order a considerable Body of Troops to assemble on the Frontiers of that Kingdom in the Spring, in order to be ready to act as Circumstances may require.

Algiers, Jan. 2. A few Days ago one of our armed Vessels brought into this Port a Polacco which she took in the Adriatick Gulf. But it appearing the Polacco belonged to some Merchants at Marsailles, and the French Consul interesting himself in the Affair, the Dey ordered her and her Crew to be immediately restored to the Master, with Liberty to proceed on his Voyage.

Lisbon, Jan. 12. The Infant Don Emanuel, who a few Days ago was so ill that there was but little Hopes of his Recovery, was Yesterday thought to be much better. The Departure of the Court for Salvaterra is fixed for the 19th Instant, where 'tis said their Majesties intend to stay a Month or five Weeks. Last Week the Spouse of Count Caravalho, Secretary of State, was safely delivered of a Daughter. The Man of War that carried the New Governour of Mazagan to that Colony, returned into Port on the 6th Instant, in a shattered Condition, having on her Return met with extreme bad Weather; however she is to be forthwith repaired, in order to cruize on the Corsairs of Barbary.

Naples, Jan. 24. On Saturday last, being the King's Birth-Day, the Court was very numerous and extremely splendid at Caserta, whither all the Nobility and Foreign Ministers repaired in their richest Habits to compliment their Majesties on that Occasion. The same Day his Majesty conferred the Order of the Golden Fleece on Prince St. Nicandre. Towards the End of last Week a large Quantity of Ingots of Silver, and Pieces of Eight, were sent from hence to the Spanish Treasurer at Rome, in order to be circulated in Commerce.

Rome, Jan. 27. Advice having been received at Court, that the Barbary Corsairs are become more troublesome than ever, and greatly interrupt our Navigation and Commerce, Orders are sent to Civita Vecchia for two armed Gallies to put to Sea forthwith in Quest of those Pyrates. A few Days ago a Courier was dispatched to Naples, with the Pope's Permission for the King of the Two Sicilies to raise Three per Cent. upon the Incomes of all the Clergy in his Dominions. Cardinal Albani, who is charged with the Affairs of the Imperial Court, having received some Dispatches of Importance from Vienna, has communicated the Contents thereof to the Secretary of State in a long Conference he had for that Purpose.

Turin, Jan. 27. They have been so successful in enlisting Men for the two new Regiments with which the King is about to augment his Troops, that those two Regiments are already compleat. We are informed by our last Letters from Corsica, that the Malecontents of that Island had taken up Arms, at a Time when 'twas least expected; and that they have taken, Sword in Hand, some strong Posts possessed by the Genoese and French Troops.

Prague, Feb. 3. Count Collovrath, to whom the Empress Queen has given the Regiment of Dragoons, vacant by the Death of Baron Philibert, set out from hence the Beginning of this Week for Vienna, in order to take upon him that Command. Prince Piccolomini, Commander in Chief of the Troops in Moravia, who was lately appointed Governour of the Fortres of Brinn, is gone to take Possession of that Government. 'Tis said that some Regiments will march from hence for Hungary in the Spring. The Frost continues so very severe in these Parts, that all Sorts of Carriages pass and repass upon the Moldau without the least Danger.

Vienna, Feb. 3. Their Imperial Majesties have appointed Count Ernest de Harlach to be Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from this Court to that of Sardinia, and a Courier is gone to Madrid, where he resides at present, with Orders for his setting out forthwith for Turin. The Prince of Schwartzenberg is extremely ill, and 'tis feared will not recover. The Deputies of the City of Hambourg have executed their Commission at this Court, and are preparing for their Return Home. We learn from Constantinople, that the new Captain Bashaw has so far insinuated himself into the Grand Signor's good Graces, that he is already named a Bashaw of three Tails, and has moreover the Government of Candia conferred on him, in the room of the late Governour, who is promoted to the Government of Negropont. The same Advices add, that the Bashaw of Chio, who was some Time ago deposed, is again taken into Favour, and made Governour of Bosnia, in the room of the late Governour, who is preferred to the Government of Oczakow, the late Governour whereof having been promoted to that of Bendar.

Franckfort, Feb. 10. At the Time when the Courier was robbed of the Mail near Bingen, about three Weeks ago, by six Men masked, it was generally believed to be done with a Design to secure some Papers of Consequence; but by several Circumstances which have appeared since, we have great Reason to think the Robbers had no other View than to take what Money they could find in his Portmante.

Dusseldorp,

Dusseldorp, Feb. 13. All the Troops in this Dutchy, as well as those in Juliers, have Orders to hold themselves in Readiness to be reviewed by Prince Frederick of Deux Ponts, in April or May next, when his Highness proposes to come hither for that Purpose from Manheim. We have received Advice, that Baron Widmann, Minister Plenipotentiary from their Imperial Majesties to the Princes and States of the Circle of Franconia, is gone from Nuremberg to Munich. They write from Mayence, that Count Coblentzel set out from thence on Sunday last for Saltzbourg, in order to assist, in Quality of Imperial Commissary, at the Election that is shortly to be made of a new Archbishop.

Whitehall, February 23.

The King has been pleased to order Letters Patent to be passed under the Great Seal of the Kingdom of Ireland, for promoting James Stopford, Doctor in Divinity, and Dean of Kilmacduagh, to the Bishoprick of Cloyne, void by the Death of the Right Reverend Father in God, Doctor George Berkeley late Bishop thereof.

East-India House, Feb. 14, 1753.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, do hereby give Notice,

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms; But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurisy, Quincies, acute Rheumatism, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again; and by James Esdall, Printer, on the Blind Quay, Dublin.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6 d.
