Petersburgh, January 25.

WE are informed by our last Advices from Moscow, that Count Rasoumoffky, Attaman or Chief of the Cossacks, was arrived there from the Ukraine; and that he had been introduced to the Empress, and met with a gracious Reception, her Imperial Majesty expressing the highest Satisfaction at the Account he gave of the Affairs of that Province. Count Bestucheff, the Great Chancellor, is still so weak, that there is no Appearance of his being soon able to follow the Empress; but Baron Pretlack, Ambassador from Vienna, is greatly recovered, and proposes shortly to set out for Moscow; for which Journey he is already making Preparations.

Stockholm, Feb. 4. The Court is still at Ulrichsdahl, from whence the King comes frequently to assist at the Deliberations of the Senate. The College of Commerce has published an Ordonnance, by his Majesty's express Order, commanding all Captains or Masters of Swedish Ships whatsoever, who shall happen to fall in with the three Dutch Ships which were last Year obliged to be left amongst the Ice on the Coast of Greenland, not to suffer any of their Crews to take the least Thing out of them; but, on the Contrary, to do all in their Power to secure them for the Use of the Owners.

Copenhagen, Feb. 9. The King, who some Days ago was pretty much indisposed, is now perfectly recovered, and goes frequently a Hunting in the Neighbourhood of Jagersbourg. The Chamberlain Count Cheusses, whom his Majesty has named to replace the late Count Dehn in the Post of Envoy Extraordinary and Minister, Plenipotentiary to the States General of the United Provinces, is arrived here from his Country Seat in Holstein, in order to receive his Instructions before he repairs to the Hague. The Report of a Camp's being to be formed next Summer in the Neighbourhood of Rottf-child, is confirmed; and we are now assured, that the same will consist of twelve Battalions, and the like Number of Squadrons; and that his Majesty has appointed Field Marshal Count Schulembourg to have the Chief Command thereof. The King has appointed M. Erboe to be Consul from this Kingdom to the Emperor of Morocco; and, as 'tis agreed he shall reside at Saffia, most People here imagine our Commerce with the States of that Kingdom, is settled upon a good Footing.

Berlin, Feb. 13. M. Kupferberg, having received his Instructions, set out on Monday last for Vienna, in order to renew the Negotiations begun some Time ago with that Court by the late Baron Dewitz. The King has conferred the Post of Grand Master of the Queen's Household, vacant by the Death of the late Count Dohna, on Baron Kannenberg, whom he has likewise honoured with the Order of the Black Eagle. His Majesty has appointed M. Cupner, to be Counsellor of War and Domains of the Chamber of Konisberg, in the room of his Father, who has obtained Leave to resign that Employment.

Mayence, Feb. 14. Count Cobentzel, whom their Imperial Majesties named some Time ago to assist, in Quality of their Commissary, at the Election that is shortly to be made of a new Prince-Archbishop of Saltzbourg, set out from hence on Sunday last for Saltzbourg; and Count Pergen, who came here lately to compliment the Elector our Sovereign upon the Re-establishment of his Health, is appointed to take Care of the Affairs of the Court of Vienna in his Absence.

Paris, Feb. 14. Since the Beginning of this Month several Couriers have arrived here from Stockholm and Berlin, whose Dispatches have occasioned the holding of divers Councils. The Colonels and other Officers of the Regiments in Garrison in Alsace, have received Orders to join their respective Regiments forthwith; from whence 'tis believed a Camp is intended to be formed
