Moscow, April 19.

YESTERDAY in the Afternoon an extraordinary Council was held at Count Bestucheff's; upon some Dispatches lately arrived from the Court of Vienna. As there are no Preparations making for her Imperial Majesty's intended Journey to Kiow, 'tis imagined that Journey will not take Place this Summer.

Leghorn, April 30. We learn by our last Letters from Corsica, that since the Departure of the French Troops from that Island, the Malecontents have made several Attempts to drive the Genoese from the Posts of Paludella and San Fiorenzo; but as they have always been repulsed with Loss; 'tis imagined they will make no more Attempts on that Side. The same Letters add, that the Malecontents have seized upon one of their Chiefs, whom they accuse of having carried on a secret Correspondence with the Marquess de Grimaldi, the Republick's Commissary General in that Island. They write from Florence, that the Hereditary Prince of Anspach arrived there on Monday last from Rome; and that his Highness was to continue his Journey in a Day or two for Germany.

We are informed by the Master of a Pink lately arrived from Barcelona, that the Fleet which has been for some Time equipping in the different Ports of Spain, will put to Sea some Time in July. We are informed, that besides the Orders given some Time ago by his Catholick Majesty, for putting his Troops on the same Footing they were at the Time of making the late Peace, Orders are since issued for making some Augmentations to the Army. Prince Doria, who went from hence to Turin, to take the Investiture of certain Fiefs which he is possessed of in the Dominions of the King of Sardinia, is returned here from thence, greatly satisfied with the Reception he met with at that Court.

Dantzick, May 6. The Contentions between the Clergy and Nobility of the Kingdom of Poland, become every Day more serious; and 'tis feared they will be attended with bad Consequences.

The Regiment of Prince Charles of Lorraine, which is here in Garrison, passed in Review last Friday before the Commissaries of War, and made a fine Appearance. Last Week four Companies of the Regiment of Trip's Dragoons, in the Service of the Dutch, arrived at Tournay from Maestricht, where they have been for a long Time in Garrison.
