Moscow, June 8.

THE New Summer Palace, which the Empress had ordered to be built in this Capital, being entirely finished, her Imperial Majesty begun her Residence there some Days ago. The Repairs of the Damages occasioned by the late Fires, are carried on with the greatest Diligence; and the Empress has been graciously pleased to order the greatest Part of the Timber, and other Materials, for the Rebuilding of the Houses, to be furnished at her own Expence. And by her Imperial Majesty's Commands, all possible Measures are taken to prevent the like Misfortunes for the future; for which Purpose the Guards in the several Quarters of the Town have been considerably augmented; and all Housekeepers have been strictly enjoined to keep themselves constantly provided with a certain Quantity of Water, sufficient for the extinguishing of a Fire, whenever it may happen.

Naples, June 9. Upon Advices received, that a great Number of Barbarian Corsairs were putting to Sea, to interrupt our Navigation, Orders have been given to equip, with all possible Diligence, some Men of War and Frigates, in order to form a Squadron, effectually to disperse those Pyrates.

Naples, June 12. A Usurer of this Place, called Murepa, having been committed to Prison some Time ago, for his illegally lending Monies to several private Persons at a very high Interest, has made an Offer of giving a considerable Sum to the Poor, in order to obtain his Liberty; but the King being informed thereof, far from indulging his Scheme of flying from Justice, by bestowing Alms at other People's Expence, has strictly charged his Judges to proceed against him, according the Rigour of the Law; and he will soon be brought to his deserved Punishment.

Turin, June 18. The Dutchess of Savoy is so far advanced in her Pregnancy, that it is supposed her Delivery will happen the Beginning of September.

Aranjuez, June 18. Last Week the Duke of St. Elizabeth arrived at this Court, and had the Honour of being presented to their Catholick Majesties. He is come to reside here, in Quality of Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Naples, during the Absence of Prince Jaci, who has obtained Permission to return home for some Time on his private Affairs. The Infant Cardinal, who has been here ever since the King's Name-Day, sets out this Evening on his Return to St. Ildefonso. By Letters from Cadiz of the 5th Instant we learn, that Advice had been received there from Carthagena de Indias, of Don Pedro de la Cordas having taken a Dutch Ship, with a Prussian Passport, trading on that Coast: She is said to have had 60,000 Dollars on board.

Warsaw, June 19. On the 14th of this Month, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, a violent Fire broke out in the New Street, where the Pope's Nuncio lives; and notwithstanding all possible Means were used to extinguish the Flames, several Houses were entirely destroyed. We here from the Frontiers of the Ukraine, that a considerable Body of Haidamacks, have again made an IncurSION upon our Territories, and that they had not only plundered several Places, but also murdered the Inhabitants.

Vienna, June 20. The Emperor is returned, with his Brother Duke Charles of Lorraine, from Hollitch to Schonbrun. The Bailli Majo, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of the Two Sicilies, arrived here Yesterday, and is soon to have his first Audiences of their Imperial Majesties, and the Arch-Dukes and Arch-Dutcheffes. An Ordonnance has been published this Morning, whereby the Trusting of Officers, and all other Military Persons, is limited to certain Sums, and certain Rules, in respect to the Mortgaging of their Pays.

Franckfort, June 25. We hear from Bamberg, that the Election of a new Prince-Bishop of that Place, is fixed for the 31st of next Month; and that there are, amongst other Candidates, Count Stadion, Baron Rechtolshheim, and Count Seinsheim.

Dresden, June 25. On the 18th Instant the Troops that were encamped at Ubingau, separated; and the Regiments of our Garrison, which had made Part of them, viz. Grenadiers, Footguards, and Prince Clement's, returned hither the same Day. The Foreign Officers, and other Persons of Distinction, who have been present at the Exercises of the said Troops, are setting out in order to return to their respective Residences.

SEMPER

Paris, June 25. The Dauphiness being entered in the Sixth Month of her Pregnancy, publick Prayers, for her Royal Highness's safe Delivery, are made in all our Churches.

Berlin, June 27. The King has conferred on M. de Kalnein, Major General of Foot, and Colonel of a Regiment, the Rank of Lieutenant General; and, amongst several other Military Promotions, M. Heyde, and M. Loffau, both Captains in the Regiment of Konigsberg, have been raised to the Rank of Majors. Count Puebla, their Imperial Majesties Envoy Extraordinary at this Court, is soon expected here on his Return from the Baths of Carlsbad.

Franckfort, June 27. According to our Advices from Landau, and other Places in Alsatia, there are so little Signs of a Camp to be formed in that Province, that it begins to be doubtful whether it will take Place this Year.

Munich, June 28. Their Electoral Highnesses, who are still at Lichtenberg, are expected back at Nymphenberg towards the Beginning of next Month. Friday last, being the Birth-day of the Princess Consort of the Duke Clement of Bavaria, the same was celebrated here in a very grand Manner.

Cologn, June 28. The Countess Uhlfeld, Spouse of Count Uhlfeld, Grand Master of the Empress's Household, arrived here Yesterday, and will set out this Morning for Spa, where she intends to make Use of the Waters of that Place.

Hague, July 1. The States of Holland and West-Friesland are to continue their Deliberations next Tuesday. M. Hiemstra has been introduced into the Assembly of the States General, as one of the Members of that august Assembly, for the Province of Friesland.

Hague, July 3. M. de Cheusses, Chamberlain to the King of Denmark, is arrived here, in order to succeed the late Count de Dehn, as Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from his Danish Majesty to the States General.

Hague, July 5. The States of Holland and West-Friesland assembled this Day. Count Henckel de Donnersmarck has taken the Oath as Colonel Commandant of the Prince of Baden-Baden's Regiment. General Baron de Burmania, who has been taking Possession of his Governments in Dutch Flanders, is returned hither.

London, March 17, 1753.

General Post-Office.

Whereas a Person of about Six Feet high, Fifty Years of Age, of a Swarthy Complexion, much pitted with the Small Pox, and wore a darkish coloured Coat, and a brown Bob Wig, came last Night, about Six of the Clock, to the Shop of Mr. Thomas Harding, Goldsmith, in the Minories, and bought of him a straight bodied Silver Tankard, Weight 25 oz. 18 dwt. with the Letters C. D. marked, by his Desire, on the Handle thereof; and the said Person having given, in Payment, for the said Tankard, a Bank Post Bill, which was taken out of the Cirencester Mail, which was robbed on the 18th of April, 1751, and indorsed the said Bank Post Bill by the Name of Charles Dew.

This is therefore to give Notice to all Goldsmiths and others, to whom the said Tankard may be offered in Sale, that whoever apprehends, or causes to be apprehended the Person above described, who is strongly suspected of having been a Principal, or an Accomplice in the said Robbery, shall, upon Conviction, be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

General Post-Office, July 6, 1753.

These are to give Notice, That the Post will go every Night, (Sundays excepted) from London to Tunbridge Wells, and from Tunbridge Wells to London, to begin this Night and to continue, during the Summer Season, as usual.

By Command of the Post-master General,
Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.

July 6, 1753:

At a Meeting this Day of the Justices appointed by the Lords of His Majesty's Privy Council, by their Order of the 25th of November 1745 to put in Execution His Majesty's several Orders of Council, within the County of Middlesex, in Relation to the Infected Cattle.

WHEREAS the Time draws near for holding a Fair in this County, called Welsh Fair, for the selling of horned Cattle, which said Fair used to be held at Issington, but lately has been held at Barnet: And whereas we have Cause to believe the said Infection, which, during the Summer Time, in this County is greatly decreased, has for some Years, by Reason of this Fair, broke out again, and raged very much during the Months of September, October, and November; Therefore, in order to prevent such Spreading of the said Distemper, and in Pursuance of the Powers and Authorities given, as well by His Majesty's Orders in Council, as by the several Acts of Parliament in that Behalf made; We do order and direct, That no Fair or Market, or other publick Place of Sale, be held or kept within this County, for the Sale of horned Cattle, (except fat Cattle for immediate Slaughter) from the Fifteenth Day of August next, to the Tenth Day of October following; And that no Person or Persons shall or do presume to drive, send, or remove, or cause to be driven, sent, or removed, any horned Cattle (except fat Cattle for immediate Slaughter) to any Fair, Market, or other publick Place of Sale in this County, within the Time before-mentioned, under the Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, mentioned, sett, or imposed, by His Majesty's said Order in Council, or the said Acts of Parliament, or any of them, in that Case made. And for the notifying this Order, it is further ordered, That the same be forthwith inserted in The London Gazette, The Daily Advertiser, and London Evening Post.

By Order of the Justices,
John Lane, Clerk.
