

Paris, June 25. The Dauphiness being entered in the Sixth Month of her Pregnancy, publick Prayers, for her Royal Highness's safe Delivery, are made in all our Churches.

Berlin, June 27. The King has conferred on M. de Kalnein, Major General of Foot, and Colonel of a Regiment, the Rank of Lieutenant General; and, amongst several other Military Promotions, M. Heyde, and M. Loffau, both Captains in the Regiment of Konigsberg, have been raised to the Rank of Majors. Count Puebla, their Imperial Majesties Envoy Extraordinary at this Court, is soon expected here on his Return from the Baths of Carlsbad.

Franckfort, June 27. According to our Advices from Landau, and other Places in Alsatia, there are so little Signs of a Camp to be formed in that Province, that it begins to be doubtful whether it will take Place this Year.

Munich, June 28. Their Electoral Highnesses, who are still at Lichtenberg, are expected back at Nymphenberg towards the Beginning of next Month. Friday last, being the Birth-day of the Princess Consort of the Duke Clement of Bavaria, the same was celebrated here in a very grand Manner.

Cologn, June 28. The Countess Uhlfeld, Spouse of Count Uhlfeld, Grand Master of the Empress's Household, arrived here Yesterday, and will set out this Morning for Spa, where she intends to make Use of the Waters of that Place.

Hague, July 1. The States of Holland and West-Friesland are to continue their Deliberations next Tuesday. M. Hiemstra has been introduced into the Assembly of the States General, as one of the Members of that august Assembly, for the Province of Friesland.

Hague, July 3. M. de Cheusses, Chamberlain to the King of Denmark, is arrived here, in order to succeed the late Count de Dehn, as Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from his Danish Majesty to the States General.

Hague, July 5. The States of Holland and West-Friesland assembled this Day. Count Henckel de Donnersmarck has taken the Oath as Colonel Commandant of the Prince of Baden-Baden's Regiment. General Baron de Burmania, who has been taking Possession of his Governments in Dutch Flanders, is returned hither.

London, March 17, 1753.

General Post-Office.

Whereas a Person of about Six Feet high, Fifty Years of Age, of a Swarthy Complexion, much pitted with the Small Pox, and wore a darkish coloured Coat, and a brown Bob Wig, came last Night, about Six of the Clock, to the Shop of Mr. Thomas Harding, Goldsmith, in the Minories, and bought of him a straight bodied Silver Tankard, Weight 25 oz. 18 dwt. with the Letters C. D. marked, by his Desire, on the Handle thereof; and the said Person having given, in Payment, for the said Tankard, a Bank Post Bill, which was taken out of the Cirencester Mail, which was robbed on the 18th of April, 1751, and indorsed the said Bank Post Bill by the Name of Charles Dew.

This is therefore to give Notice to all Goldsmiths and others, to whom the said Tankard may be offered in Sale, that whoever apprehends, or causes to be apprehended the Person above described, who is strongly suspected of having been a Principal, or an Accomplice in the said Robbery, shall, upon Conviction, be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

General Post-Office, July 6, 1753.

These are to give Notice, That the Post will go every Night, (Sundays excepted) from London to Tunbridge Wells, and from Tunbridge Wells to London, to begin this Night and to continue, during the Summer Season, as usual.

By Command of the Post-master General,
Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.

HICKS'S - HALL.

July 6, 1753:

At a Meeting this Day of the Justices appointed by the Lords of His Majesty's Privy Council, by their Order of the 25th of November 1745 to put in Execution His Majesty's several Orders of Council, within the County of Middlesex, in Relation to the Infected Cattle.

WHEREAS the Time draws near for holding a Fair in this County, called Welsh Fair, for the selling of horned Cattle, which said Fair used to be held at Issington, but lately has been held at Barnet: And whereas we have Cause to believe the said Infection, which, during the Summer Time, in this County is greatly decreased, has for some Years, by Reason of this Fair, broke out again, and raged very much during the Months of September, October, and November; Therefore, in order to prevent such Spreading of the said Distemper, and in Pursuance of the Powers and Authorities given, as well by His Majesty's Orders in Council, as by the several Acts of Parliament in that Behalf made; We do order and direct, That no Fair or Market, or other publick Place of Sale, be held or kept within this County, for the Sale of horned Cattle, (except fat Cattle for immediate Slaughter) from the Fifteenth Day of August next, to the Tenth Day of October following; And that no Person or Persons shall or do presume to drive, send, or remove, or cause to be driven, sent, or removed, any horned Cattle (except fat Cattle for immediate Slaughter) to any Fair, Market, or other publick Place of Sale in this County, within the Time before-mentioned, under the Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, mentioned, sett, or imposed, by His Majesty's said Order in Council, or the said Acts of Parliament, or any of them, in that Case made. And for the notifying this Order, it is further ordered, That the same be forthwith inserted in The London Gazette, The Daily Advertiser, and London Evening Post.

By Order of the Justices,
John Lane, Clerk.
