

The London Gazette.

published by Authority.

From Saturday July 21, to Tuesday July 24, 1753.

Naples, June 22.

THERE is a strong Report here, of a Combat having happened between four Gallies of Malta, and six Algerine Xebecks; of which last, one, 'tis said, has been sunk, two taken, and the other three put to Flight. As this News is very interesting here, the Confirmation of it is expected with great Impatience.

Kiow, June 22. A great Body of Haydamacks having penetrated into the Russian Ukraine, Count Rasomofsky, Captain General of the Cossacks, marched with several Regiments to oppose and disperse those Plunderers, in which he has so effectually succeeded, that he has entirely driven them from those Frontiers.

Alicant, June 24. According to our Advices from Barcelona, Commodore Don Francis de Horosco left that Port on the 17th Instant, with three Men of War and two Frigates, in order to pass the Straits of Gibraltar, in Quest of four Algerine Corsairs, which have passed the same, with a View to disturb the Navigation of our Ocean-Coasts. Two Men of War from Cadiz are ordered to join the Commodore, to strengthen the said Squadron.

Madrid, June 26. The King has been pleased to appoint Lieutenant General Don Francis-Xavier de Lanzos, to be Councillor at War; and, amongst other Military Promotions, Don Eustachio Duran, Governor of the Castle of Rosalezar at Oran, has obtained the Government of Mazarquivit; and Lieutenant Colonel Don Pierre Guelfi, the Command of the second Battalion of the Regiment of Naples. His Majesty has also been pleased to grant the Place of Corrigidor of Salamanca, to Don Joseph de Mancha y Argote; and that of Guadiz and Baza to Don Juan-Antonio-Velmonte. Don Juliano de Arriago, President of the Board of Contractors for the Indies, and Intendant of the Navy at Cadiz, has acquainted the Ministry, that the two Register-Ships, St. Peter and Nuestra Senora de Mont-Carmel, sailed from thence on the 13th Instant for Vera Cruz; and another small Vessel, with Artillery and Ammunition, for Carthagenia in America.

Genoa, June 30. In the Beginning of last Week there was an Election here of five new Senators, viz. The Marquesses Augustino Imperiali, Constant Pinelli, Joseph Doria, Giovanni Antonio Spinola, and Sig. Giovanni Stephano Mousia. The Cavalier Augustino Pinelli, who has so happily succeeded in the Commission he was charged with against the revolted Inhabitants of St. Remo, is returned hither with the Gallies and other Vessels under his Command. The Master of a French Vessel, lately arrived here from Algiers, reports, that the Plague had broke out there the Beginning of this Month, amongst the Dey's own Domesticks, and had spread itself throughout the whole Town with so much Violence, that a great Number of Persons were daily carried off by it.

Warsaw, July 3. Count Oginsky, Grand Marshal of Lithuania, passed thro' this Town some Days ago with the Countess his Lady, on their Journey from Prague to the Palatinate of Cracovia, where he is going to visit his Estates. The Disputes between the Clergy and Nobility of this Kingdom, are daily increasing, and give Room to fear, that they will be attended with very bad Consequences.

Carlsbad, July 4. Amongst the great Number of Persons of Distinction, who are come here to use the Baths of this Place, there are lately arrived the Prince Bishop of Augsburg, the Count of Waldorff, the Baron of Asseburg, the Countess of Thun, the Count of Dohna, the Prince of Mansfeld, and the Count of Kokorsowa, Privy and actual Councillor of their Imperial Majesties.

Vienna, July 7. Their Imperial Majesties, accompanied by Prince Charles of Lorraine, and several Persons of Distinction, went on Saturday last to Neustadt, to see the Corps of Cadets perform their several Exercises, which gave great Satisfaction. Count de Bellasy having been appointed Chambellan to the Empress, took the usual Oaths last Wednesday upon that Occasion. The Departure of the Court for the Camp of Kittsee, is said to be fixed for Monday next; but it is still uncertain whether their Imperial Majesties will go to those which are soon to be formed in Bohemia and Moravia. There is Advice from Chemnitz in Hungary, that there had been a violent Storm, attended with Thunder and Lightning, by which several Combustibles in one of the Mines there had been set on Fire, and though it was with great Difficulty put out, yet several Persons who were at Work therein, were suffocated by the Smoak and Stench thereof.

Stockholm, July 8. The Senators Counts Tessin and Eckebladt, accompanied with Colonel Count Sparre, Baron Hopken, President of the Chancery, and Major General Count Lieven, set out some Days ago, to see and examine the new Canal of Trolhatta, which, after much Labour and Expence, is finally brought to Perfection. We have received Advice, that the Corps of 1200 Men, who were embarked some Time ago at Carlscroon, to relieve the Garrisons in Finland, were arrived at Helsingfors, one of the Ports in that Province. We have Advice from Gottenburg, that the Union, a Ship belonging to our East India Company, was arrived in that Port from Canton, which Place she sailed from the 24th of December last: Her Cargoe is said to be one of the richest that ever our Company received from thence.

Paris, July 9. The Camp which is to be formed within a few Days in the Neighbourhood of Compiègne, will be composed of no more than four Battalions of the King's Regiment, and one Battalion of that of the Royal Artillery; and is to be commanded by Lieutenant General Count Guerchy, Colonel of the first-mentioned Regiment. The Marechal de Camp, Joseph Lamoureuix de la Javeliere, died here some Days ago in the 88th Year of his Age.

Berlin, July 10. The King having last Year received great Benefit from the Use of Pymont Water, his Majesty has begun to use the same again, at his Palace of Sans-Soucy. Prince Frederick-Francis of Brunswick-Wolfenbuttle, returned hither last Thursday Night from the Court of Denmark, and set out the next Day for Konigsberg, to join his Regiment.

Hague, July 19. The Court's intended Journey to Dieren, is put off for this Year.

London, March 17, 1753.

General Post-Office.

Whereas a Person of about Six Feet high, Fifty Years of Age, of a Swarthy Complexion, much pitted with the Small Pox, and wore a darkish coloured Coat, and a brown Bob Wig, came last Night, about Six of the Clock, to the Shop of Mr. Thomas Harding, Goldsmith, in the Minories, and bought of him a straight bodied Silver Tankard, Weight 25 oz. 18 dwt. with the Letters C. D. marked, by his Desire, on the Handle thereof; and the said Person having given, in Payment, for the said Tankard, a Bank Post Bill, which was taken out of the Cirencester Mail, which was robbed on the 18th of April, 1751, and indorsed the said Bank Post

Bill by the Name of Charles Dew.

This is therefore to give Notice to all Goldsmiths and others, to whom the said Tankard may be offered in Sale, that whoever apprehends, or causes to be apprehended the Person above described, who is strongly suspected of having been a Principal, or an Accomplice in the said Robbery, shall, upon Conviction, be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

General Post-Office, July 6, 1753.

These are to give Notice, That the Post will go every Night, (Sundays excepted) from London to Tunbridge Wells, and from Tunbridge Wells to London, to begin this Night and to continue, during the Summer Season, as usual.

By Command of the Post-master General,
Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.

A General Meeting of the Trustees for Repairing and Amending the Turnpike Roads in the Counties of Surrey and Sussex, is appointed to be held at the Greyhound Inn, in Croydon, on Saturday the 4th Day of August, 1753, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, to chuse Trustees in the Place of such as are dead, removed, or refuse to act: And to appoint Toll Collectors; and other Affairs relating to the Trust.

Stevenson Gourney, Clerk.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty King George the Second, entituled, An Act for the Amendment of the Law relating to Actions on the Statute of Hue and Cry, it is enacted, That no Person shall have or maintain any Action against any Hundred, unless he or she shall, within the Space of twenty Days next after the Robbery committed, cause publick Notice to be given thereof in the London Gazette: In Pursuance whereof Dorothy Pomroy, of Lifton in the County of Devon, Widow, hereby gives Notice, That on Tuesday the Tenth Day of July Instant, about the Hour of Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon of the same Day, she was assaulted and stopped in the King's Highway, near a Place called Heath-Cross, in the Parish of Whitstone, within the Hundred of Wonford in the said County of Devon, about four Miles West of Exeter, by a lusty Man on Foot, about five Feet nine Inches high, who had a large Stick or Club in his Hand, with a great Head thereto, and with a black Crape or Gauze over his Face, with a Coat and Waistcoat of a light Drab coloured Cloth, and dark coloured Stockings, whose Speech was somewhat broad, resembling that of a Scotch or Irishman; who then and there robbed her, the said Dorothy Pomroy, of a half Crown and some Shillings and Sixpences, to the Value of ten Shillings; and of the several Pieces of Gold, tied up in a brown Piece of Paper, herein after particularly mentioned (that is to say) Twelve Guineas, eight Johannes or Portugal Pieces, of the Value of six and thirty Shillings each, four half Guineas, and four Moydores, amounting in the whole to the Sum of thirty-five Pounds.
