

conferred on M. Jean Hop, and their High-Mightinesses will soon dispose of the Place of Secretary of the Council of State, in the room of the said M. Hop.

Hague, July 31. The States of Holland and Westfrizeland will meet To-morrow, and the Members, who are to compose that Assembly, are already arrived here for that Purpose. Several Foreign Ministers have had Conferences with the President of the Week. The Council of State have nominated M. Belaarts, Lord of Blockland, and M. Pestors, to view the Fortifications and Magazines in the Places of the District of the Meuse; and they will set out on Friday next to execute that Commission. We have received Advice by an Express dispatched from Soestdyk, that their Royal and Serene Highnesses arrived there Yesterday in the Evening in perfect Health.

London, March 17, 1753.

General Post-Office.

Whereas a Person of about Six Feet high, Fifty Years of Age, of a Swarthy Complexion, much pitted with the Small Pox, and wore a darkish coloured Coat, and a brown Bob Wig, came last Night, about Six of the Clock, to the Shop of Mr. Thomas Harding, Goldsmith, in the Minories, and bought of him a straight bodied Silver Tankard, Weight 25 ozs. 18 dwt. with the Letters C. D. marked, by his Desire, on the Handle thereof; and the said Person having given, in Payment, for the said Tankard, a Bank Post Bill, which was taken out of the Cirencester Mail, which was robbed on the 18th of April, 1751, and indorsed the said Bank Post Bill by the Name of Charles Dew.

This is therefore to give Notice to all Goldsmiths and others, to whom the said Tankard may be offered in Sale, that whoever apprehends, or causes to be apprehended the Person above described, who is strongly suspected of having been a Principal, or an Accomplice in the said Robbery, shall, upon Conviction, be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen.

By Command of the Post-Master-General, George Shelvocke, Secretary.
