From Tuesday August 7, to Saturday August 11, 1753.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 10th Day of August, 1753.

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to order, That the Parliament which stands prorogued to Tuesday the Fourteenth of this Instant August, should be further prorogued to Thursday the Twenty-seventh Day of September next.

Naples, July 12. Their Majesties and the Royal Family continue at Portici, where was celebrated Yesterday, with great Splendor, la Fete de S<sup>te</sup>. Amelie, whose Name the Queen bears. Don Alphonso d'Arossteque, who arrived here some Days ago from the Court of Madrid, with the Character of Minister, will have, in a Day or two, his first publick Audience of the King. The Corsairs of Barbary, which, during the last Month, hovered about the Coasts of this Kingdom, are retired.

Florence, July 14. Agreeably to an Order which the Regency of this Dutchy received lately from Vienna, the Troops that were in the County of Carpegna are retiring; which gives Hopes, that the Differences which have for some Time subsisted between the Emperor our Sovereign and the Holy See, concerning the Fief, are at last adjusted to the mutual Satisfaction of the Parties interested.

Prague, July 18. Don Joseph da Sylva, formerly Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Portugal to the States General, and appointed since by his most faithful Majesty to reside with the same Character at the Court of the King of the Two Sicilies, arrived here lately from Dresden, and is going to Vienna. We hear from Streckow, a Village situated in the Neighbourhood of Tabor, and belonging to Prince Lobkowitz, that there fell, some Days ago, a great Quantity of Hail, of such Bigness, that all the Produce of the Earth, for two Miles round, is entirely destroyed thereby.

Copenhagen, July 20. Two Men of War, which have been cruizing for some Time in the Mediterranean, the one commanded by Captain Schinder, and the other by Captain Fisher, returned into this Port a few Days ago, and are ordered to be disarmed and laid up. Count Hamilton, and several other Swedish Officers, who came hither to see the Camp formed by our Troops in the Neighbourhood of Frederichsberg, are set out for their respective Posts.

Vienna, July 21. Their Imperial Majesties; who, with the Duke Charles, and the Princess Charlotte of Lorrain, were the 17th Instant at Kittsee, to see the Regiments of Hussars who are encamped in the Neighbourhood of that Castle, returned Yesterday in perfect Health to Schonbrun.

Modena, July 21. The Duke our Sovereign a few Days ago made a Tour to Mirandola, to view the Fortifications there, and to give Orders to make the necessary Repairs. His Serene Highness has also given Orders to repair the Works of other Places of this Dutchy.

Cologne, Aug. 2. The Count de Colloredo, whom their Imperial Majesties has nominated their Envoy Extraordinary to the Court of Great Britain, has passed thro' this City; and is to take Brussels in his Way to London.

Hague, Aug. 2. The Margrave of Baden-Dourlach, on whom her Royal Highness the Princess Governante has conferred the Government of the City of Arnheim, vacant by the Death of Lieutenant General de Rode van Heekeren, is set out in order to make a Tour in Germany.

Hague, Aug. 7. By the last Letters from Soefdyk, her Royal Highness and Family continued in good Health.

Whitehall, August 9, 1753.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King; that an incendiary Paper, containing the following Words, viz. "John Noake, I assure you, and other Farmers, if you do not fall the Corn, we will arise, and burn you, in your Beds," was, on Sunday the 22d of July last, in the Night; laid under the Gate of the House of John Prankard, of the Parish of Milborne Port, in the County of Somerset, Farmer, and one of the Church Wardens of the said Parish; His Majesty, for the better discovering, and bringing to Justice, the Person, or Persons, principally concerned in writing, and laying, the said Paper under the Gate of the said Mr. John Prankard's House, as aforesaid, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice, or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they, being principally concerned in the same, may be apprehended, and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement, the Church-Wardens, and Overseers, of the said Parish of Milborne Port, in the County of Somerset, do, hereby, promise a Reward of Twenty Guineas, to any Person, or Persons, making such Discovery, as aforesaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the principal Offender, or Offenders, by me,
Tho. Medlycott;
