

The London Gazette.

published by Authority.

From Saturday August 18, to Tuesday August 21, 1753.

Leghorn, July 24.

COUNT de Richecourt is soon expected to arrive at Florence from Vienna; and it is reported, that immediately after his Arrival, the Regulation, which has been for a long Time under Consideration, for putting the Finances and the Commerce of the Grand Dutchy of Tuscany upon a better Footing, will be published.

Madrid, July 24. Great Preparations are making at Court to celebrate To-morrow the Anniversary of the Birth of the Infant Cardinal, who then enters into the 27th Year of his Age. The King has been pleased to confer upon Don Jean Baptiste Ruiz Delgado, the Place of Corregidor and Governor of the City of Xijona, in the Kingdom of Valence; and upon Don Francis Xavier Solanor, the Post of Commissary of the Armies. Count Saint Marfan, who has resided at this Court for some Time, in Quality of Ambassador from the King of Sardinia, has received his Letters of Revocation; and, in Consequence thereof, is preparing to set out on his Return to this Court, in the Month of September next. The last Letters from Lisbon say, that two Men of War were equipping there with the greatest Diligence, to cruize upon the Corsairs of Algiers, which have lately appeared in the Mouth of the Tagus.

Turin, July 28. Count de Bellegarde, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Poland to this Court, having received his Letters of Revocation, had his Audiences of Leave of his Sardinian Majesty, and the Royal Family, on the 22d Instant, and is preparing to set out on his Return to Dresden. The King, in forbidding his Subjects to furnish the Malecontents of the Island of Corsica with Arms and Military Stores, has, at the same Time, demanded from the Genoese, that these Prohibitions should not expose the Ships under his Colours, who are provided with his Majesty's Passports, to be molested, under frivolous Pretexes, by the Ships of that Republick.

Vienna, Aug. 1. The Departure of their Imperial Majesties, who are going to see the Encampments which are forming in Bohemia and Moravia, is fixed for the 21st of this Month; it is supposed that the Archduke Joseph will accompany them. General Nadasdy, Colonel of a Regiment of Hussars, and Count d'Arco, Great Chamberlain to the Archbishop of Saltzbach, having been appointed Privy Councillors, took last Saturday the usual Oath upon that Occasion.

Hague, August 14. Lieutenant General de Grovesteins, Master of the Horse to the most Serene Prince Stadtholder, set out Yesterday Morning to take Possession of his Government of Ypres. According to our last Advices from Soestdyk, their Royal and Serene Highnesses continue to enjoy perfect Health. Their High Mightinesses have appointed M. van Rooyen, Councillor and Pensionary of the City of Leyden, &c. to be Secretary of the Council of State, in the Room of M. Jean Hop. The Baron de Borseille arrived here last Sunday Evening from Middleburg, and set out this Day to make a Tour to Amsterdam.

Whitehall, August 21.

The King has been pleased to present Francis Milbanke, Master of Arts, to the Rectory of Croft in the County of York, and Diocese of Chester, the same being void by the Death of George Neale, the last Incumbent.

The King has been pleased to present John Gooch, Master of Arts, to the Rectory of Fen-Dixton in the County of Cambridge, and Diocese of Ely, the same being void by Lapse, and in his Majesty's Gift for this Turn.

Kensington, August 19.

This Day Count Colloredo, Minister Plenipotentiary from the Emperor and the Empress Queen, had his first Private Audience of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, to which he he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Carleton-House, August 19.

This Day Count Coloredo, Minister Plenipotentiary from the Emperor and the Empress Queen, had his first Private Audience of her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales, to which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, August 9, 1753.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that an incendiary Paper, containing the following Words, viz. "John Noake, I assure you, and other Farmers, if you do not fall the Corn, we will arise, and burn you, in your Beds," was, on Sunday the 22d of July last, in the Night, laid under the Gate of the House of John Prankard, of the Parish of Milborne Port, in the County of Somerset, Farmer, and one of the Church Wardens of the said Parish; His Majesty, for the better discovering, and bringing to Justice, the Person, or Persons, principally concerned in writing, and laying, the said Paper under the Gate of the said Mr. John Prankard's House, as aforesaid, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice, or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they, being principally concerned in the same, may be apprehended, and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement, the Church-Wardens, and Overseers, of the said Parish of Milborne Port, in the County of Somerset, do, hereby, promise a Reward of Twenty Guineas, to any Person, or Persons, making such Discovery, as aforesaid; to be paid upon the Conviction of the principal Offender, or Offenders, by me,
Tho. Medlycott,

London, March 17, 1753.
General Post-Office.

Whereas a Person of about Six Feet high, Fifty Years of Age, of a Swarthy Complexion, much pitted with the Small Pox, and wore a darkish coloured Coat, and a brown Bob Wig, came last Night, about Six of the Clock, to the Shop of Mr. Thomas Harding, Goldsmith, in the Minories, and bought of him a straight bodied Silver Tankard, Weight 25 oz. 18 dwt. with the Letters C. D. marked, by his Desire, on the Handle thereof; and the said Person having given, in Payment, for the said Tankard, a Bank Post Bill, which was taken out of the Cirencester Mail, which was robbed on the 18th of April, 1751, and indorsed the said Bank Post Bill by the Name of Charles Dew.

This is therefore to give Notice to all Goldsmiths and others, to whom the said Tankard may be offered in Sale, that whoever apprehends, or causes to be apprehended the Person above described, who is strongly suspected of having been a Principal, or an Accomplice in the said Robbery, shall, upon Conviction, be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

Victualling Office, Aug. 17, 1753.

The Commissioners for Victualling his Majesty's Navy hereby give Notice, That on Wednesday the 12th of September next, exactly at Twelve of the Clock at Noon, they will be ready to receive Proposals from such Persons as may be willing to serve his Majesty's Navy with British Butter, Suffolk, Cheshire, Warwickshire, or Gloucestershire Cheese, for One Year, commencing from the 30th of September next. The Conditions of the Contract may be seen at the Secretary's Office at the Victualling Office, London.

East-India House, Aug. 15, 1753.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, do hereby give Notice, That a Quarterly General Court of the said Company will be held at their House in Leadenhall-street, on Wednesday the 26th Day of September next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon.

East-India House, Aug. 15, 1753.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, do hereby give Notice,

That the Transfer Books for the said Company's $3\frac{1}{2}$ per Cent. Annuities will be shut on Friday the 14th Day of September next at Two of the Clock, and opened again on Friday the 19th Day of October following.

That the Transfer Books for the said Company's 3 per Cent. Annuities will be shut on Saturday the 15th Day of September next, at Two of the Clock, and opened again on Saturday the 20th Day of October following.

And that the Dividend Warrants, both for the said $3\frac{1}{2}$ and 3 per Cent. Annuities, due on the 10th of October next, will be delivered on Saturday the 3d Day of November following.

N. B. The Possessors of the Company's mark'd Bonds, and Certificates for East-India Annuities, are desired to bring them in to be made Stock before the Shutting of the Books, as otherwise Warrants for the next Dividends due thereon, cannot be made out.

No Certificates or Permits will be taken in to be made Stock during the Time the Books are shut.

A Quarterly General Court of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen ANNE, for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy, will be held at their Office in Dean's Yard in Westminster, on Monday the 3d Day of September next, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon.

In the Exchequer at Chester,

On the 16th Day of August, 1753.

Between John Saladine, Complainant; and Timothy Ryan, and others, Defendants. } W

Hereas the said Complainant exhibited his Bill of Complaint in this Honourable Court against the said Defendants, and took out Process of Subpœna returnable in this Court on the fifteenth Day of this Instant August, requiring the Defendant Timothy Ryan to appear to and answer the same; but the said Defendant Timothy Ryan hath not so done: And whereas by Affidavit made and filed in this Cause, it appears to this Court, That upon Enquiry at the said Defendant Timothy Ryan's usual Place of Abode, he is not to be found, so as to be served with such Process, but absconds, or is gone out of the Realm to avoid being served therewith; Thereupon, and on Motion this Day made on the said Complainant's Behalf by his Attorney in Court, this Court thinks fit, and accordingly does hereby order, That the said Defendant Timothy Ryan do appear to the said Complainant's Bill on or before the twentieth Day of September next.
