Leghorn, July 24.

COUNT de Richecourt is soon expected to arrive at Florence from Vienna; and it is reported, that immediately after his Arrival, the Regulation, which has been for a long Time under Consideration, for putting the Finances and the Commerce of the Grand Dutchy of Tuscany upon a better Footing, will be published.

Madrid, July 24. Great Preparations are making at Court to celebrate To-morrow the Anniversary of the Birth of the Infant Cardinal, who then enters into the 27th Year of his Age. The King has been pleased to confer upon Don Jean Baptiste Ruiz Delgado, the Place of Corregidor and Governor of the City of Xijona, in the Kingdom of Valence; and upon Don Francis Xavier Solanor, the Post of Commissary of the Armies. Count Saint Marfan, who has resided at this Court for some Time, in Quality of Ambassador from the King of Sardinia, has received his Letters of Revocation; and, in Consequence thereof, is preparing to set out on his Return to this Court, in the Month of September next. The last Letters from Lisbon say, that two Men of War were equipping there with the greatest Diligence, to cruize upon the Corsairs of Algiers, which have lately appeared in the Mouth of the Tagus.

Turin, July 28. Count de Bellegarde, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Poland to this Court, having received his Letters of Revocation, had his Audiences of Leave of his Sardinian Majesty, and the Royal Family, on the 22d Instant, and is preparing to set out on his Return to Dresden. The King, in forbidding his Subjects to furnish the Malecontents of the Island of Corsica with Arms and Military Stores, has, at the same Time, demanded from the Genoese, that these Prohibitions should not expose the Ships under his Colours, who are provided with his Majesty's Passports, to be molested, under frivolous Pretexes, by the Ships of that Republick.

Vienna, Aug. 1. The Departure of their Imperial Majesties, who are going to see the Encampments which are forming in Bohemia and Moravia, is fixed for the 21st of this Month; it is supposed that the Archduke Joseph will accompany them. General Nadasdy, Colonel of a Regiment of Hussars, and Count d'Arco, Great Chamberlain to the Archbishop of Saltzbach, having been appointed Privy Councillors, took last Saturday the usual Oath upon that Occasion.

Hague, August 14. Lieutenant General de Grovesteins, Master of the Horse to the most Serene Prince Stadtholder, set out Yesterday Morning to take Possession of his Government of Ypres. According to our last Advices from Soestdyk, their Royal and Serene Highnesses continue to enjoy perfect Health. Their High Mightinesses have appointed M. van Rooyen, Councillor and Pensionary of the City of Leyden, &c. to be Secretary of the Council of State, in the Room of M. Jean Hop. The Baron de Borseille arrived here last Sunday Evening from Middleburg, and set out this Day to make a Tour to Amsterdam.

Whitehall, August 21.

The King has been pleased to present Francis Milbanke, Master of Arts, to the Rectory of Croft in the County of York, and Diocese of Chester, the same being void by the Death of George Neale, the last Incumbent.

The King has been pleased to present John Gooch, Master of Arts, to the Rectory of Fen Ditton in the County of Cambridge, and Diocese of Ely, the same being void by Lapse, and in his Majesty's Gift for this Turn.

Kensington, August 19.

This Day Count Colloredo, Minister Plenipotentiary from the Emperor and the Empress Queen, had his first Private Audience of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, to which he
