

from Moncalier, where he has been this Summer for the Benefit of the Air; and his Royal Highness's Health is much mended. The Marquis de Crussolle passed through this Place last Week in his Way to his Post at Parma; though his Stay here was only twenty-four Hours, he was presented to his Sardinian Majesty, and the rest of the Royal Family. The Neapolitan Ambassador has declared his being appointed Ambassador to the French Court, and that he is to be succeeded here by M. Carraccioli, who is now Minister at Paris.

Hanau, Sept. 8. Our Serene Sovereign the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel, who has been to drink the Water at Schlangenbad, is returned in perfect Health.

Brussels, Sept. 10. The Syndycks of the different Bodies of Tradesmen in this City, have had several Meetings to consider of some new Proposals which have been made to them by the Government. It is assured, that as soon as M. Neny is returned from the Court of Vienna, the Conferences, which had been opened here, will be reassumed, for regulating the Affairs of the Barrier and Tariff. The Viscount d'Oudenaerde, Son to Count Lalaing, returned here some Days ago from Vienna, and is preparing to go to take Possession of the Employment of Bayliff of Bruges, which the Empress Queen has been pleased to confer upon him.

Hague, September 11. We have received Advice from Soestdyck, that the first Princess Dowager of Orange arrived there Yesterday in the Evening in perfect Health, and was received by their Royal and Serene Highnesses with Marks of the most tender Affection. The Marquis de Bonac, Ambassador from France, received this Morning an Express from his Court, with the agreeable News, that the Dauphiness was happily delivered the 9th Instant of a Prince, who is to have the Title of Duke of Aquitaine.

Hague, Sept. 13. The States of this Province, who opened Yesterday their ordinary Assembly, have continued this Day their Deliberations. The Deputies of the several Colleges of the Admiralty are likewise employed here in the Affairs of that Department. The Marquis de Bonac, Ambassador from France, delivered Yesterday a Letter from the King his Master, to the President of the Assembly of the States General, in which his most Christian Majesty notifies to their High Mightinesses the Birth of a Prince, of which the Dauphiness had been happily delivered on the 9th Instant. The Ambassador has been complimented on this Occasion in the Name of the States General, who intend to write a Letter of Congratulation to his most Christian Majesty on this happy Event. The Baron de Grovesteins, who returned a few Days since from his Government of Ypres, set out this Morning for Soestdyck; and Baron de Schwartzenberg, Governor of Namure, who has been here for some Days, proposes to set out To-morrow for his Government.

Whitehall, September 15, 1753.

Whereas between the Hours of Eight and Nine on Tuesday Night the 4th Instant, a sudden Fire broke out in a Workshop and Shed, belonging to Mr. Anthony Natt at Bethnall Green, whereby the said Workshop and Shed, with a great Quantity of Timber and Boards, to a considerable Value, were destroyed, and the neighbouring Houses in Danger of being burnt down; and whereas there is great Reason to believe, that the same were wilfully set on Fire by some wicked and malicious Persons; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person, or Persons concerned therein, is hereby pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually set Fire to the said Premises) who shall discover his or their Accomplices in the same.

HOLDERNESSE.

And as a farther Encouragement, I do hereby promise a Reward of Thirty Guineas to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the principal Offender or Offenders, by me,
 Antho. Natt.

London, March 17, 1753.
 General Post-Office.

Whereas a Person of about Six Feet high, Fifty Years of Age, of a Swarthy Complexion, much pitted with the Small Pox, and wore a darkish coloured Coat, and a brown Bob Wig, came last Night, about Six of the Clock, to the Shop of Mr. Thomas Harding, Goldsmith, in the Minories, and bought of him a straight bodied Silver Tankard, Weight 25 oz. 18 dwt. with the Letters C. D. marked, by his Desire, on the Handle thereof; and the said Person having given, in Payment, for the said Tankard, a Bank Post Bill, which was taken out of the Cirencester Mail, which was robbed on the 18th of April, 1751, and indorsed the said Bank Post Bill by the Name of Charles Dew.

This is therefore to give Notice to all Goldsmiths and others, to whom the said Tankard may be offered in Sale, that whoever apprehends, or causes to be apprehended the Person above described, who is strongly suspected of having been a Principal, or an Accomplice in the said Robbery, shall, upon Conviction, be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,
 George Shelvocke, Secretary.

Plymouth, September 9, 1753.

This gives Notice, that at Mr. Harrison's Office in Plymouth, will be paid the Amount of the Panther, a French Frigate of War, taken July 22, 1745, by the Monmouth, Capt. Henry Harrison, to the Officers, &c. who then belonged to the following Ships of War as under-mentioned; which will be recalled the first Monday in every Month, at the same Place, for three Years after.
